

College Tour Questions

1. How large are your introductory classes?
2. How large are freshman classes?
3. Do you have helpful faculty advisors and do you meet regularly with your advisor?
4. Who teaches lecture classes?
5. Who teaches lab sections?
6. Can you get individual help from professors? How accessible are the professors?
7. Where do you study?
8. How many libraries are there?
9. Do they offer an excellent place to work and study?
10. Where do students with disabilities receive support?
11. What hours do students have access to libraries, computers, labs, etc.?
12. What percent of students live in dorms? Is housing guaranteed for all four years?
13. Is it necessary to have a car?
14. How are safety concerns addressed on and off campus?
15. Are there regular patrols, escort vans, emergency phones, etc. if needed?

16. Is this an openly competitive environment?
17. How are tests and exams administered?
18. Who grades exams?
19. Do you meet with professors informally?
20. How tolerant is this community of independence and diversity?
21. What did you do for fun last weekend?
22. How do students spend their breaks and summers?
23. What are the most popular extra-curricular activities here?
24. What leadership positions in this community do women hold?
25. What do you like best/least about being a student here?
26. Where can I obtain counseling / mental health services?
27. What are the operating hours of the student health center?
28. What services are offered by the student health center?
29. Are there study abroad options?
30. Are there research opportunities for underclassmen?

Inappropriate questions include:

What were your SAT scores, and GPA in high school and what is your GPA now?

Where else did you apply?

What makes this college better than college X?

At the end of the visit, the most important question to ask yourself is: “Do I see myself fitting in here?”