NATIONAL SINGLE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Bronfeld Wins it Again!--Californians Win More Than Their Fair Share!

Michael Bronfeld of Carmel Valley joined an elite club of five athletes who have been able to retain their national open titles "back to back" in the sport's history. Pro tour greats Tim Doyle (89/90), Ed Andrews (85/86 & 80/81), Dan Ferris (83/84) and Charlie Brumfield (72/73)--and now Bronfeld--have been the only players to achieve the feat since the first national championship in 1968. And Bronfeld wants more. "I'll be here next year, looking for a three-peat", says Bronfeld.

Robin Levine, of Sacramento suffered an upset loss in the quarters against Laura Fenton of Nebraska and was unable to continue on to defend her 1994 win against Michelle Gould. Michelle Gould won the women's open this year, defeating Malia Bailey and resuming her reign as the female with the most-ever National Singles win in the Open division.

Other finalists include Rocky Carson (1st Men's A); Debbie Tisinger (1st Womens 35+); Terry Ann Rogers (1st Womens 45+); Mary Walker (2nd Womens 60+); Chip Parmelley (1st Wheelchair Open).

RANKING NEWS

C.A.R.A. now Ranking Doubles Players

Due to the increased numbers of people participating in doubles and because of popular demand, Jack Hughes has initiated a ranking system for doubles that is similar to the ranking system for singles.

The rules for doubles are the same as for singles. Some of the more important rules are:

- A player may not enter a doubles division lower than the division in which he/she is ranked in singles or lower than the singles division in which he/she is entered in the same tournament.
- When a player has won twice in one of the following divisions, AA, A, B,C, or D, he/she must move up and play in a higher division.
- A player who has earned points in one of the following divisions, OPEN, AA, A, B,C or D is ineligible to play in a lower division.\
- A special consideration is that a layer ranked in the Mixed Doubles may play one level lower when playing in either the men's or women's doubles.
- It is the responsibility of the player to enter only a division in which he/she is eligible. Repeated disregard of this rule may lead to disciplinary action by the Board of Directors of the C.A.R.A., including suspension of eligibility to play in tournaments sanctioned by the C.A.R.A.

The goal of the ranking system is to promote fair competition by 1) eliminating "SANDBAGGING" through the use of eligibility standards and 2) providing information to be used in the seeding of players in each division.

C.A.R.A. Board of Directors _____
We're Looking for a Few Good People

The Board of Directors is made up of a dedicated group of people of all playing levels and varied personal and professional backgrounds with one thing in common: they are dedicated to the propagation and promotion of racquetball. This volunteer board is constantly changing and in need of your input! If you feel you have something you can contribute to our board and are interested in helping the sport you love then please contact Sharon Rummel at State Headquarters with a brief letter as to why you are interested in serving on the board. All directors are nominated from a "pool" of Associate Board members. Please express your interest in becoming involved!

Pan American Games

Californians John Ellis and Michael Bronfeld Finish First and Second in Singles; Twins Jackie Gibson & Joy McKenzie take Womens Doubles

In its debut as a Pan American Games sport in 1995, racquetball drew eight of the top ten national teams in the world to the First Club in Buenos Aires, Argentina for an historic, world-class event March 13-17, 1995. In a determined showing against long time Canadian rivals, the U.S. national team made a clean sweep of the individual singles and doubles events, plus took top honors in the men's, women's and combined overall team competition. Canada held its number-two spot in its team standings, but was shut out of the individual finals of both singles divisions. In doubles standoffs, the U.S. pairs took their wins over Canada in straight games.

Pro Kennex and Active Ankle Joins C.A.R.A. in Congratulating John Ellis

ProKennex, the industry leader in the introduction of new racquet technology, and Active Ankle, the Ultimate Ankle Support, are pleased to congratulate John Ellis on Winning the Men's Singles Championship at the 1995 Pan-American Games.

In racquetball's quest for inclusion the Olympics, the Pan-American Games is the final stepping stone and ultimate competition next to the Olympic Games themselves. In 1995 the sport of racquetball was showcased to the world, for the first time, as a full medal sport in the Pan-Ams. John Ellis concluded his amateur career winning the Men's Singles title in a dramatic 11-10 tiebreaker over teammate Michael Bronfeld. This 1-2 U.S. finish led the way for a U.S. Team sweep of Men's Singles, Women's Singles, Men's Doubles, and Women's Doubles. Ellis becomes the only man who can claim Open titles in National Singles, National Doubles, a World Championship, and now, a Pan-Am Championship. Having accomplished every major amateur title, Ellis now turns his complete focus to the International Racquetball Tour and moving ahead from his current number eight ranking.

NEW AA DIVISION FOR MEN & WOMEN

Men's and Women's Open AA represents a new format for the highest level play. Players losing in the first round of this division will drop down into the AA division. Players in the AA bracket will then compete on a single elimination format. Players winning their first round in Open/AA division will not be allowed to drop down, even if they lose!

The Novice division is for the player with little or no experience! Please use your best judgement and only sign-up for novice if you are a true beginner. Note: a beginner doesn't hit rollouts and does not have sand in their shorts! Thanks!

Nidia Funes Roasted

A party and roast was held at Fina's Restaurant in Petaluma Saturday, June 3rd, to congratulate Nidia Funes on being voted 1995 CARA Senior Female Player of the Year. Fifty of Nidia's closest friends were present to celebrate her achievement and to tell their favorite Nidia stories. Master of Ceremonies Vinnie Caramagno lost control of the proceedings at a very early stage, but fortunately CARA President Jack Hughes was present to congratulate Nidia and to bring a little decorum to the evening. Nidia was presented with a plaque by her home club, Rancho Arroyo in Petaluma, poems were read, gifts were given, and many great new Nidia stories actually occurred or were invented. The festivities continued late into the evening, a fact evidenced by the poor standard of racquetball at Rancho Arroyo the next morning. Congratulations, Nidia!

Craig McCoy Memorial Tournament

The Tournament House in Riverside will host the First Annual Craig McCoy Memorial Racquetball Tournament during the weekend of July 28-30, 1995. Craig passed away in August, 1994 at the young age of 37. He is dearly missed by all of us at Tournament House and the entire racquetball community.

Craig was one of the pioneers of pro racquetball, and was consistently in the top eight for ten years. We expect this tournament will generate much interest among top professionals and amateurs in the country. Hope to see you there!

Royal Athletic Club to Host National Women's Seniors/Masters Championships in January 1996

Royal Athletic Club in Burlingame has been selected to host the National Women's Seniors/Masters Championships to be held January 25 - 28, 1996. This prestigious national event will attract players from all over the nation.

For all of you women out there who are not participating in tournaments due to lack of competition--that excuse goes out the door! Train hard and well and look forward to the best women's tournament to come to California in a long time!

TEAM TOUR GEAR by ProKennex

ProKennex, consistently the industry leader in the manufacture of graphite-composite sports equipment and the introduction of new racquet technology, has developed Team Tour Gear, a multi-faceted player program designed to promote the growth and positive exposure of racquetball.

Team Tour Gear has been developed to utilize a staff of players throughout the country to advance the sport of racquetball through positive exposure and teaching of the sport in the court clubs. John Weaver, ProKennex Vice President of Marketing, further explains, "the ultimate goal of the program includes having a Team Tour Gear player in every club in the country promoting not only ProKennex technology but also the virtues of the sport". "Ideally the teaching pro at each club is a candidate to be a member of Team Tour Gear, but the program is not limited to them only. Any player who is an ambassador of the sport, exhibiting positive promotional enthusiasm is certainly a candidate to join the Team," Weaver continued.

Team Tour Gear will be led by ProKennex Professionals Mike Martinez and Steve Lerner who will make selections for the Team from information and recommendations provided by the players and club management. Players interested in joining Team Tour Gear should contact either Martinez (if they are west of the Mississippi River) or Steve Lerner (east of the Mississippi) at ProKennex. The one and only Mark Spangenberg, manager of Courtesy Sports, came back into town Monday evening (the week of the Elite Tourney) from the National Singles Championships in Houston where he won a Bronze Medal in the Men's 19+. As if he wasn't busy enough after working and playing the entire week while in Houston, he went on to run the Elite 8 Tournament by himself for the very first time. A special thanks from "Home Fry Senior" to "Home Fry Tournament Director." You did a fabulous job on no sleep, no help and no thanks! Hope everybody else can appreciate all the little things that happen during the week of a tournament, because it takes that extra effort.

ELLIS HOLDS ON TO WIN THE ELITE 8 TITLE

The second seeded John Ellis held on to beat long time rival and friend Michael Bronfeld 15-13, 8-15, 11-10 in what seemed like a Pan-Am rematch.

Ellis and Bronfeld came out of their respective flights in 1st place and were destined to meet in the finals like they have so many times. In the first semi of the day, Michael took out Eric Muller 15-11, 15-13 in two quick games while John had more trouble advancing past last minute entry Joe Paraiso 15-3, 14-15, 11-7.

The Elite 8 final was a match-up between Ellis's power and Michael's quickness. Michael kept pace in the first game but a few ace serves late in the game helped John win game one. In the second game, Michael dominated. Both players began to show the toll of a lot of racquetball in three days. In the tie-breaker, Ellis jumped out to a 10-6 lead, but Bronfeld responded by saying "you know I'm coming back." Michael did come back to tie the game at 10-10 only to allow John to power a forehand for the Elite 8 Title.

Ellis took home $1250 for the win and Bronfeld settled for a generous $1000 for second.

Ellis awaits Muller's return in their second round match.

2ND ANNUAL ELITE 8 TOURNAMENT ENERGIZES THE FANS AND PLAYERS

Gerry Price rips a backhand in the doubles final as Joe Paraiso, Marty Hogan and Kelly Gelhaus anticipate the shot.

Pro Kennex saved the Elite 8 tournament by adding it to its already successful annual tournament series presented by Courtesy Sports. This year's Elite 8 tournament featured Elite Team Courtesy Players in a round robin format that allowed the players and the fans to see some of the best match-ups in racquetball.

Last year's winner Sudsy Monchik and National Doubles Champion Tim Sweeney couldn't make the trip due to injury. This allowed Pro Doubles Semi-finalist Joe Paraiso and Kelly Gelhaus a chance to show everybody that the doubles finish was no fluke. The field was completed with John Ellis, Gerry Price, Marty Hogan, Michael Bronfeld, Eric Muller and Todd O'Neil.

Over 400 people turned out to watch these eight great personalities. Matches began Friday evening at 6:30 and continued until the final match on Sunday afternoon, when John Ellis beat Michael Bronfeld for the Elite 8 title.

A special thanks goes out to 21st Point and the Courtesy Sports staff who made this event possible. The super tournament hospitality and fun was provided by Smitty's BBQ. And of course, no one could forget the CASH forked over by our good friends at Pro Kennex.

BIGGEST UPSET OF THE TOURNAMENT!

Hal checks the ball in hope that the rally he just lost would be replayed.

Hal Spangenberg Jr. did something his brother has yet to do beat the state's #1 seeded Jeff Mayorga. At only 17 years old, Hal Jr. lost the first game 15-8, but came back strong as he took Jeff's power game away to win the second game 15-8. In the tie-breaker, both players looked determined, but the young energy and emotion propelled Hal Jr. to an 11-3 win which put him in the Open Finals, where he would face Marko Perez.

Hal's luck ran out in the finals as Marko showed why he has been a top player for so long. Marko held strong by controlling the match with consistency and experience by winning 15-9, 15-12. Hal was disappointed with his second place finish, but he did like the fact that he finished ahead of his brother Mark Spangenberg!

Beach Bums

Every tournament there are players who spend way to much time at the beach in the sand (AKA. wrong division). Although they may like the beach, they are viewed as "sandbaggers". This is a rude yet polite way of saying, "Get off my beach!"

Congratulations!
No sandbaggers found this tournament!

GERRY PRICE SAYS GOODBYE TO RACQUETBALL

Gerry Price claims to have played in his last competition. Gerry has been a great competitor in the game for 2 decades, but unfortunately his body doesn't seem to cooperate. With a nagging shoulder stiffness and a wrist that just healed, Price feels it's time to say goodbye to competitive play.

Gerry did manage to go out a winner by winning the Elite 8 Doubles Title with partner Marty Hogan by defeating Joe Paraiso & Kelly Gelhaus 15-13, 9-15, 11-8 in the finals. After the match, Gerry gave away many of his playing shirts to his younger fans.

"The greatest backhand in the World" will be missed along with all the intensity that made him one of racquetball's great personalities. Many thanks for all the great memories Gerry, and best of luck in your future endeavors.
