

PEGGY AND JUSTIN – THEY'RE AT IT AGAIN !

Hi everyone,

Well it looks like our NH tournament season is off to a great start this year! The Executive Open attendance was up, and the draw for the Justin Open was full well before the deadline.

Speaking of the Justin Open, you will find the results later in this issue, but there is one match that the results really don't give justice to. That match would be the renewed rivalry between 'Peggy' Beane (Kelley's sister), Chris Zalegowski and Justin Wallace /Heather Dunn. You could tell right from the beginning that this match was going to be a great one! Justin and Heather wore their defending champion belts to try to taunt Peggy and Chris, but they would have none of that. The warm-ups attracted quite a crowd, the likes not to be seen again during the entire tournament.

Once Peggy was finished her routine warm up push-ups, and Chris his routine rollouts, it was game time! Things started out a little tense - a few early skips by Peggy and Justin offset each other as Dunn and Zalegowski played flawlessly. But then Justin fired up that forehand and it seemed that Chris just couldn't handle the heat. Heather really wasn't a factor as Peg kept her pinned on the right wall most of the game. The scores for that match were unavailable at press time; however I know the team of Beane/Zalegowski was kept to single digits. That does not mean that it was a "walk in the park" for the team of Wallace/Dunn by any means! Peggy and Chris clawed and scratched for every point, diving and serving up aces, but unfortunately the referee took many points away. After a critical timeout, Peggy and Chris came back and served up a few points in a row, only to have Justin and Heather call a time out of their own and stop them in their tracks. Needless to say, Justin rose to the occasion once again and single handedly won another Justin Open Pro Mixed Doubles title. We probably won't see Peggy again anytime soon - she does not like to lose! She was unavailable for comment after the big match...

The Executive Health & Sports Center has opened the tournament season with a bang! Entries at this year's event were up by 26% over last year. A big 'thank you' to all of you who competed. You would never know it was the first tournament of the new season by the quality of play! Looks like a lot of you picked up right where you let off last year. For some that's a good thing, and for the rest of us, it's a wake up call!

The Executive tournament team, a.k.a. Kelley Beane, Mike Normand, Ron Bouchard, Julie Gamage, Lisa Paladino and Mike Keddie - did a great job (also thanx to Jean Lerch for her help too). Learning how to put an event together from start to finish is no easy task, and to want to volunteer and learn how is a big task. This is a new team, and it will be "fine tuned" by the Mitch Nathanson — so please be patient with them. Unless you've sat in the 'hot seat' running a large tournament, you really have no idea how much time is spent behind the scenes and before the tournament. It is all the advance work that makes it seem easy to run smoothly!

Our divisions filled rather nicely; ladies divisions across the board ran, as did 3 junior divisions. Men's and Women's B/C doubles were thin in attendance and probably won't be offered again. Instead I heard some rumblings on a Men's 60+ division - are we really getting older, I personally am still in denial. . .

The top finishers are listed opposite this page. Congratulations go out to Scott Reiff and Heather Dunn on their wins in the Men's & Women's Open events - both class acts on the court. Dave Breton, winner of his 2nd "A" division, is now welcomed to the Open division! Todd Anderson on his Men's D win, welcome to the "C" level! Judy Bress Women's Novice, welcome to the "D" division! Other NH players that won are Paul Wallace - are you still 40? Lisa Paladino, Women's C, time to move along, and Sue Hutchinson, Women's D. As for doubles, NH dominated, Chris Zalegowski & Scott Reiff Men's Open, Kelley Beane & Joanne Pomodoro Women's Open, Labonte/Pierce Men's A, Cooper/Riley Men's B/C, Lerch/ Perreault, Women's B/C, and Dyer/Pierce, Mixed A/B.

Thanks to everyone for competing! Our next Executive event will be the Mitch Nathanson Classic — Jan 31st to Feb 2nd. See ya there!
