The Official Voice of the New Hampshire Racquetball Association

Fall 1992

October, November, December

Message From the NHRA

We have been asked time and time again about tournament entry fees. We have advised Tournament Directors that entry fees must be reasonable, but the NHRA does not set the rates for tournament entry fees.

Entry fees are the decision of the club managers and tournament directors. While the NHRA has made suggestions to these people, we suggest that all active tournament players have meetings with their club's management and discuss ways of lowering entry fees. Your voice and willingness to help with tournaments may play a critical role in increasing tournament participation. It will also prove to club management everywhere that racquetball players are concerned about the growth of their sport.

Sponsored Players in New Hampshire

We would like to congratulate the following players who have received contracts from Ektelon for the current season.

Kelley Beane
Claude Benjiman
Pam Danisiewicz
Cindy Hamilton
Leo Jolly
Mary Dee Jolly
Peter Messier
Josh Messina
Bernie McGinty
Kate McGinty
George Vierra

We would like to recognize any other players who have been sponsored as well. Please send your name and the name of your sponsor to Gayann.

Membership Proof

You must be a current AARA member whenever you participate in a sanctioned AARA event. If you are not a member, you must pay for a membership at the tournament before you can play. Membership dues can be paid at every sanctioned event at the tournament desk. While there are some players who manage to "slip through", they are eventually found out and are required to obtain a membership. Whenever you do sign up as a member you will receive an updated rulebook, Competitive License information, credit card and travel plan benefits, insurance coverage information and various racquetball product brochures.

It takes 6-8 weeks for your Competitive License Membership card to be mailed to you. In the meantime, you must keep your membership dues receipt available at all times. Your receipt/membership card must be presented at every AARA sanctioned event or you will be questioned about proof of membership.

Not every State Association keeps accurate membership listings and the procedures for verifying membership vary from one state to another. If you are competing outside of your home state you must show a valid receipt/membership card or you will be charged a $5.00 fee. Depending on the rules in that state, the fee may be refunded if proof of membership is presented. Valid proof may be your membership card, dues receipt, or a mailing label off material sent to you from AARA National Headquarters or your state association.

Once again, keep your membership card or dues receipt available whenever you travel to a sanctioned event, and thanks for your continued support of racquetball.

The 1992-93 season started off in grand style with the IKKA/Crew West Open. Participation was high and the caliber of play was excellent across all divisions. The outstanding hospitality and early season enthusiasm made for a great weekend for everyone.

Special appreciation goes to the IKKA crew, especially Kelley Beane. Her devotion to promoting the sport is overwhelming!

The State Doubles were held earlier in the season this year due to the assumption that a number of competitors were interested in accumulating ranking points in order to get a better seeding in the Regionals. This point was debated with the contrary opinion being that most people compete for fun, not points and that an early date would reduce the size of the draw. Well, no harm in trying but it seems that the early date did reduce the size of the draw. But, the enthusiasm and enjoyment of those who did compete was not diminished in the least!! From the hospitality to the unique logo on the tournament shirts, all was done with class and gusto. Thanks to Kelly and the IKKA crew for their efforts.

Weathervane Seafoods created this tournament as a means of assisting with the medical expenses of one of its employees, Scott MacDonald who was recently diagnosed as having a brain tumor. Your response and participation was outstanding and shows again how the racquetball community works to support those around us in need.
