

U.S. WINS AMERICAN REGIONALS

Sponsored by Lite Beer from Miller and Penn Athletics Company, the United States, Mexico and Costa Rica met in the First American Regional Games for Western Hemisphere Supremacy in Racquetball. The American Games are the first of three World Regional Competitions scheduled by the International Amateur Racquetball Federation this year in preparation for the 1984 World Championships.

The United States team came in heavily favored to defend its world title won in 1981 at the World Games I in Santa Clara, California. The United States upheld its reputation, sweeping to a victory over Mexico and Costa Rica by not losing a single match, and only losing two games during the three-day event.

Play began on Friday at the prestigious Quail Lakes Athletic Club in Stockton, California with the round robin format between the three countries. Round one found the No. 3 United States single women's player, Malia Komahoahoa, going against the No. 3 Costa Rican women's player, Sylvia Portuguese. Malia, who qualified for the games by finishing third in the Nationals in Houston, won easily as she dominated Sylvia 21-7, 21-8.

In the men's, No. 3 player, Don Factor from San Diego (who qualified by finishing third in the Nationals), was seriously hobbled by an injury that he experienced this past October playing softball. With only partial mobility of his right leg, Dan, through experience and skill won over Enrique Carranza by 21-11 and 21-13.

Round three found the Mexican men's doubles team of Vizcaya and Moreno winning over Costa Rica's Carranza and Arias in two, while the Costa Rican women's team of Portuguese and Pozuelo upset the highly favored Mexican women's team of Suaroz and Lafon 21-5, 21-11.

Dan O'Brenski of Pittsburgh, PA., playing No. 2 for the U.S., played one of the most exciting matches of the games when he went up against Mexico's No. 2 man Raul Canales. Exceptional skill was demonstrated by both players as both Dan and Raul made incredible gets and received applause after applause as each rally ended. Dan lost the first game 18-21, won the second game 21-14 and set the stage for the 11 point tie-breaker. Dan quickly broke out to a 7 point lead only to have Raul tie him at 9-9. Both served at 9-9 five times with only Dan able to score once. At 10-9 Dan's favor, the ball turned over another five times. Dan finally pulled it out on a fantastic rally 11-9 and the U.S. victory in No. 2 was preserved. Meanwhile, Marci Drexler (U.S. National Junior Champion) was having little trouble besting Olga LaFon, No. 2 women's singles player from Mexico, 21-6, 21-11. At the close Friday the U.S. was undefeated while Mexico and Costa Rica were tied for second.

Saturday's first round found Dan O'Brenski and Marci Drexler, U.S. No. 2 singles, having little trouble winning over No. 2 Costa Rica 21-8, 21-13 and 21-5, 21-10, respectively. No. 3 singles between the United States and Mexico was another story. Dan Factor, U.S., continued to be severely hampered by his earlier injury as he lost his first game to Ed Vizcaya 21-13. Making up in skill and experience what he lacked in mobility, Dan won the second game 21-19. The tie-breaker was classic with the score tied at 10-10 when Dan hit a passing shot to Vizcaya's left, thus ending the Match 11-10, Factor.

The U.S. doubles team's debut of Stan Wright and Steve Trent, California (U.S. National Champions) and Beth Latini/Tammy Hajjar, Pennsylvania (U.S. National Champions) had little problem as they won over the Costa Rican doubles teams of Carranza/Arias (men) and Portuguese/Pozuelo (women's).

In round 8 the U.S. No. 1 player, Jack Newman, Illinois (U.S. National Champion) and Cindy Baxter, Pennsylvania (U.S. National Runner-up) were not threatened by Mexico's No. 1 players of Fredrico Alvarez and Armida Suaraz.

The No. 3 singles matches between Costa Rica and Mexico held up to expectations as No. 3 player Gabriela Pozuelo of Costa Rica defeated Monica Inclan of Mexico 21-10, 21-11. No. 3 Ed Vizcaya of Mexico defeated a much-improved Luis Gomez 21-14, 21-9.

The last round Saturday pitted Jack Newman (No. 1 U.S.) against Enrique Carranza (No. 1 Costa Rica). Jack won going away 21-10, 21-12, while Cindy Baxter (No. 1 U.S.) was having little trouble defeating Sylvia Portuguese (No. 1 Costa Rica) 21-11, 21-8.

At Saturday's close, all teams remained in the same position. The United States had a firm hold on first while Mexico and Costa Rica were tied for second.

Costa Rica had to win both of the contests Sunday in order to maintain its tie for second. In No. 1 women's singles Sylvia Portuguese dominated Armida Suaraz winning 21-15, 21-12 holding up her part of the bracket. In the men's No. 1 singles Costa Rica's much-improved Enrique Carranza forced Fredrico Alvarez of Mexico into a tie-breaker.

Fredrico eventually won out 11-8, happy to get out with a victory.

The show-down in doubles between Mexico and the U.S. was all U.S. as

U.S. WINS

Trent/Wright and Hajjar/Latini dominated the matches winning both in two.

Thus, the United States team preserved its undefeated reputation during its second international competition with Mexico finishing second and Costa Rica third.

The U.S. National team will compete in the Central American Games slated for October, 1983 in Costa Rica. The World Championships are scheduled for July, 1984 in Sacramento, California with 19 countries already committed to compete.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS NOMINEES

The following are the nominees for the A.A.R.A. Board of Directors of which three positions will be vacant in May. The three new directors will be elected at the Annual Membership meeting May 27th which is held as part of the National Singles in Houston, Texas. Nominees:

Paul Henrickson, Millbury, Massachusetts, currently is president of the A.A.R.A. and serves as Regional Commissioner over Region #1 which boasts the best organized and largest membership in the A.A.R.A. Paul has served on the A.A.R.A. Board of Directors since 1980. Paul's continued service as President of the A.A.R.A. would go far in continuing to make the A.A.R.A. the driving force in the racquetball industry.

Jim Austin, Houston, Texas, has been a current member of the A.A.R.A. Board of Directors since 1980 and is the National Rules Commissioner. Under Jim's supervision the Rules Committee completely revised and up-dated the rules, plus placed a moratorium on rules changes until May of 1984. Jim's continued efforts as the National Rules Commissioner would continue to make a valuable asset to the A.A.R.A.

Clint Koble, Gillette, Wyoming. Clint currently serves as Regional Commissioner for Region #11 and Junior Regional Commissioner for Region #13. Clint has long been a leader in bringing the A.A.R.A. to the northern part of our country. Clint's organizational talents and racquetball zeal would make a valuable contribution to the A.A.R.A.

Jon Denley, State Director of New Jersey. Jon has been instrumental in a complete reorganization of the State resulting in New Jersey's being in the top five membership-wise in the A.A.R.A. parade states. Jon's organizational talents, as well as his court club owners' ties would be a valuable asset to the Association.

Kirk Howe, Fairfield, California. Kirk is the Junior Regional Commissioner for Region #14 which boasts the largest and best developed Junior's Program in the United States. Kirk is employed as a court club manager and is the front runner to become president of the Junior Council which oversees the junior activities throughout the United States. Kirk will bring junior representation to the Board and along with his organizational and managerial talents will be a valuable asset to the A.A.R.A. Board.

Anyone wishing to appear on the official ballot other than the above nominees must submit to the A.A.R.A. National Office an official petition indicating such signed by 100 current members in good standing with the A.A.R.A. no later than May 13th, 1983.

NEW DIRECTIONS

BY LUKE ST. ONGE

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

I have just returned from the 1983 American Regional Games in Stockton, California.

In the summer of 1981 our national team competed in the first World Championships and World Games I where we were victorious over five other national teams.

We've had 1½ years to observe and participate in the international growth of our sport. The Mexican National Team has progressed to a point which is much more competitive with us than during the first World Championships. Costa Rica, competing for the first time in sanctioned I.A.R.F. competition was surprisingly strong, especially in the women's divisions where they dominated Mexico. In fact, only two losses separated Costa Rica from being in a tie with Mexico for second place.

There are now 32 countries organized and conducting national championships on five continents throughout the world: a growth of 20 countries in less than two years.

What this all means is future Pan-American and Olympic competition for racquetball and a bonafide conduit for our junior development as well as any aspiring amateur to qualify in representing the United States on its national racquetball team in international competition.

The United States team will next compete in Costa Rica in October. The World Championships will be held in Sacramento, California during the summer of 1984 and will feature 19 countries.

Racquetball has come a long way in a short period of time.

Regards,

Luke St. Onge

playing by the rules? The AARA rules appear in numerous publications i.e. you get a copy with your membership to AARA, ball and racquet manufacturers sometimes provide them or check with the gym or club at which you play. Once you've gotten a copy, review them periodically. Sometimes we get a little lazy about some aspects, for example, check out hinders, screens, foot faults, and serves.

Today's test questions: Who can and when do you call a hinder? Is a ball passing between your legs a screen? Can you start your serve "out of the box"? Can you call a time out after a short first-serve? If you can't know the rules — look them up. Send your suggestions and comments to Mr. Stephen D. Ducoff HQ AFMPC/MPCSOA, Randolph AFB TX 78150

STARS AND STRIPES

The 1983 Showboat Military Racquetball Championships are now history. It was a super tournament, special kudos to Mr. Steve Betterton and staff at the Showboat Hotel. Additionally, the folks at the Las Vegas Racquetball Club were quite helpful. Winners included: OPEN — Fernando Avalos, USMC; "A" — Frank Toney, USAF; "B" — Brian McNabb, USAF; "C" — Larry Martin, USAF; "D" — Tom Lipuma, USA; 30+ — Britt Mistole, USAF; 35+ — Carl Crown, USCG; 40+ — Pat Drennon, USN; 45+ — Paul Banales, USAF (Ret); 50+ — James McBride, USAF (Ret). WOMEN'S OPEN — Jayne Treadwell, USAF; Women's B — Sue Lehman, USAF; Women's C — Sharon Duell, USAF, and Women's D — Cathy Youngsma, USAF.

This year the attendance exceeded 150, up substantially from last year. Mark your calendar for next year's tournament, it should be February 6-10. Mr. Betterton promises a bigger and better event, possibly with more divisions.

I was provided with results of the 1983 South Atlantic All-Navy Regionals conducted at Naval Submarine Support Base at Kings Bay, GA. Congratulations are in order to Glenn Allen of Norfolk for his win in the Open; to LJG Willis-Wise also of Norfolk for her win in the Women's OPEN; to Jamie Gardner, John Casterline and John Krane for their triumph in the Men's JV, Seniors and Masters Divisions respectively.

Well, the mail on mandatory use of eye protection is running about two to one in favor of. Most of the people opposed say it should be optional. Those favoring generally relate a story of being hit or knowing someone who was hit and therefore have become great advocates of the use of eye protection. Seem to me, it sounds like you must be hit to get the message! I wear eye protection, of course, the way I play I should wear a football helmet, flack jacket and hip pads! More on this subject next time.

Gerald R. Travers, D.P.M., F.A.C.F.O.

Editor's Note: Dr. Travers is a podiatrist who specializes in sports related injuries with eleven years of experience. He has authored several articles related to his specialty. Among his many credentials are fellowship status in the American College of Foot Orthopedists, the American College of Foot Surgeons, and the American Academy of Podiatric Sports Medicine.

Beginning with the next issue of the A.A.R.A. newsletter, a medical advice column will be initiated, aimed at educating our athletes about medical problems common to racquet sports, in particular, racquetball. Obviously, not all racquetball injuries occur to the feet and legs so the column will include articles from other expert medical specialists

Topics discussed will include (in addition to foot and leg problems) eye injuries, knee, shoulder, and other musculo-skeletal injuries, training programs, nutrition, flexibility, and others. The emphasis will be on prevention, protection, and treatment recommendations.

Your questions are very welcome. Your questions will be referred to the proper authority for evaluation and answer. If several questions are on the same topic, they may be approached on an article basis rather than a question-answer format. Your comments and suggestions are also welcome. Please send them to:

STRANDEMO'S

RACQUETBALL TIPS:

TIP 1

When working on your backhand, out of the deep left corner, remember to rotate your shoulders and hips slightly to that corner. This will enable you to get your entire body into the shot. Too many players use only their arm in their backhand swing and that tremendous strain will often cause fatigue and injury up the road.
