

NATIONAL DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP : MAGIC IN SEATTLE

It could have been the magic of Halloween. It might have been the magic of Seattle, that magnificent coastal city of the Pacific Northwest. It could have been the magic wrought by Mother Nature herself as she changed the leaves from green to gold. Whatever the cause, it was definitely magic for the 1982 U.S. National

Doubles held at the Federal Way Athletic Club.

The magic began with the spirit of competition that brought the best 200 Doubles teams in the United States and Canada together to vie for the coveted National Champion title.

The magic continued off the court as old friends met in the friendly atmosphere of Federal Way, and past times were exchanged over a Lite Beer.

Excitement abounded as no less than ten of the top seeded teams were upset. The talk of the tournament was the 3rd round upset of the top seeded and 4-time National champions, Mark Malowitz and Jeff Kwartler of Houston, TX by Dan Massari and John Mack of Los Angeles, CA. The magic continued as two teams performed the incredible feat of winning two divisions. Bill Thurman and Bill Dunn of California in the Men's 30+ and 35+ and Burt Morrow and Less Shelton also of California in the Men's 55+ and 60+. The magic that the team of Dr. Bud Muehleisen and Myron Roderick has had over their opponents for years failed to appear. Though Muehleisen and Roderick repeated their National 45+ division win, they failed to repeat in the 40+ as Jim Austin of Houston and Bill Schmidtke from Minneapolis, MN defeated them in the finals.

Pennsylvania brought some Allegheny magic with them as they dominated the Women's Open (Tammy Hajjar, Harrisburg and Beth Latini, Philadelphia) and captured the Mixed Doubles (Dan Obremski and Tammy Hajjar over another Pennsylvania team of Hugh Klein and Beth Latini).

More magic occurred on Saturday evening. The awards banquet attracted 300 guests. Highlight awards were given to Bill Gillespie, Northwest Regional Director and J. P. Kidwell from Lite Beer from Miller for their continued support and contributions to amateur racquetball in the United States. Congratulations go out to the U.S. team qualifiers, Steve Trent/Stan Wright, Men's Open winners and Tammy Hajjar/Beth Latini, Women's Open winners. It is our hope that the magic will continue as they prepare to meet the best from Canada and Mexico at the North American Regional Games March 4-6, 1983 in Montreal.

MEN'S OPEN

The quality of teams in the Men's Open was the strongest ever. After Massari/Mack won in round 3 over the top seeded Texans some fans feared a let down on the Californians part as they met the local favorites Tony Krause and Hank Marcus of Oregon. Dan Massari was entered in two events as well and many thought that it would take its toll. Massari held true to form and with John Mack complementing Dan's left handed play they dominated the match 21-13, 21-16 to move into the finals.

In the lower bracket, second seeded Steve Trent and Stan Wright now heavily favored since the defeat of Malowitz and Kwartler found themselves in the semis against the strong intercollegiate team of Jack Newman or helping in the organization and conducting state tournaments.

Many of our state associations are now in the process of developing intercollegiate, junior and non-tournament player membership programs; volunteers are sorely needed to assist in the development of these programs.

It is a prime responsibility of a state association to coordinate tournament dates within its state, avoiding possible conflicts of major tournaments. The most effective way for an association to accomplish this goal, is to publish a monthly newsletter informing their membership as to the dates and sites of sanctioned tournaments within their states. If your state association does not at this time publish a monthly newsletter, I urge you to contact your state director and volunteer your time to promote and establish your own state publication.

Racquetball facilities in most states have the need for someone to act as a clearing-house during the tournament season . . . what agency is better suited to serve this purpose than the player's voice of amateur racquetball from within the state?

PRIPPS PLUS TO AGAIN BE THE "OFFICIAL" ENERGY DRINK FOR THE 1983 RACQUETBALL SEASON

Pripps Plus has been awarded the "official" energy drink of the 1983 A.A.R.A. Regionals, Nationals and Intercollegiates. Pripps Plus developed for the Swedish Olympic team, is manufactured by Pripps and distributed by Lipton.

This is the second year that Foot Joy has been an "official" sponsor of the U.S. Team. Foot Joy's involvement with the U.S. National team is indicative of its continued support of amateur racquetball in the United States.

Penn®

PENN AWARDED "OFFICIAL" BALL STATUS

Penn Athletic Products Co., headquartered in Monroeville, PA, has been awarded the "official" ball of the 1983 A.A.R.A. Adult Regionals and Nationals. Penn's Ultra Blue Racquetball, which has become the industry standard, was awarded the elite distinction from competitive bidding of approved ball manufacturers.

LEVI STRAUSS AND CO. TO OUTFIT THE U.S. RACQUETBALL TEAM

For the second straight year Levi Strauss, the leading name in sports active wear, will supply the uniforms to the U.S. Racquetball team. The team will compete initially in 1983 in the North American zone competition March 4-6 in Montreal, Canada. Levi Strauss was the official supplier for the U.S. Team that won the World Championships in 1981 and the World Games I competition also in 1981.

LITE BEER FROM MILLER TO SPONSOR THE UNITED STATES RACQUETBALL TEAM

Lite Beer from Miller has been named co-sponsor of the U.S. National Team that will compete in the upcoming North American Zone competition March 4-6 in Montreal against Mexico and Canada. Lite Beer from Miller, long a supporter of amateur racquetball, continues to expand its involvement and commitment to the sport.

D.P. LEACH TO SPONSOR ALL A.A.R.A. ADULT AND JUNIOR PROGRAMS

D.P. Leach, in an historical marketing change, will again be involved with the grass roots amateur player in the United States. Mr. Greg Eveland, Racquet Sports Product Manager for Diversified Products — Leach, recently met with the A.A.R.A.'s Board of Directors to unveil its 1983-84 plan for sponsorship of major A.A.R.A. events. D.P. Leach will sponsor all adult Regionals, National Doubles and National Singles, Junior Regionals, Junior Nationals and Intercollegiate Nationals.

D.P. Leach has been absent from the amateur racquetball scene for two years with major emphasis in the professional end of the sport. Leach's re-dedication to the amateur player in racquetball is another vote of confidence in the growth and future of the sport.

SPECIAL NOTE

Anyone interested in serving on the A.A.R.A. Board of Directors please submit goals and complete resume to Nominating Committee c/o A.A.R.A.: 815 N. Weber, Suite 203; Colorado Springs, CO 80903 no later than January 15th, 1983.

In Memorium

It is with great sorrow that we record the death of Richard Walker, Dallas, TX. Richard made a major contribution not only to the American Amateur Racquetball Association by serving as a Board of Director and State Chairman in Texas, but as a good will ambassador for the sport in his everyday life. He will be truly missed.

Robert Kendler, past president of the I.R.A.(A.A.R.A.) N.R.C., U.S.R.A. passed away recently in Chicago, Illinois. Mr. Kendler's contribution to the sports of racquetball and handball are legendary and the sport will certainly miss this colorful, controversial and yet historic man.

(current National Open Singles Champion) and Brian Sheldon from Memphis State University. Wright and Trent dominated the first game 21-12, but the second game was another story. Newman got hot and blasted his way to a 16-1 lead. Trent and Wright never lost their composure, however, and slowly began a long comeback. Newman/Sheldon had game point at 20-16 four times, but could not score as Wright and Trent continued their relentless pressure to win 21-20. The finals were a repeat of the semis for Trent and Wright as Massari and Mack shot out to an 11-0 lead only to have Wright and Trent come back to win game one 21-17. It was all over but the shouting for Massari and Mack as Dan Massari who had played in the 25+ finals earlier in the day began to tire. Game 2 was dominated by Wright and Trent as they won easily 21-13 and captured the National title as well as a berth on the U.S. National Team.

WOMEN'S OPEN

The women's field was filled with one upset after another as only the #3 seeded team of Tammy Hajjar and Beth Latini, PA lived up to their billing. No. 1 seed Janet Simon and Eileen Ehrlich, Maine, went out in the first round to the highly touted Beth Latini, left, and Tammy Hajjar battled it out against Kim Tiedeman and Lee Jew of Washington. Hajjar and Latini triumphed 11-6 in the final game.

Juniors team of Mona Mook and Mo Nard from California, 21-10, 21-18 only to have this fine young team upset by locals Kim Tiedeman and Lee Jew of Washington in one of the most exciting matches of Nationals 17-21, 21-14, 11-7. In the lower brackets Hajjar and Latini were having their problems in the quarters squeaking by Connie Peterson and Kathleen Wilson from Oregon 14-21, 21-8, 11-8. The magic continued for Hajjar and Latini as they met the strong second seeded team of ex-pro Sheryl Ambler and Barb Smith of Boise, Idaho in the semis. They dropped the first game 17-21, rallied in the second to win 21-12 and dominated the tie breaker 11-6.

The most exciting match of the tournament was played in the Women's Open Finals as Tiedeman and Jew met Hajjar and Latini. So exciting, in fact, that the men's open finals was delayed an hour in order to allow the large crowd of spectators the opportunity to enjoy the outcome. Turnover after turnover occurred as the fans applauded continuously throughout the match. Game 1 went to Hajjar and Latini as they seemed to dominate Kim Tiedeman on the left side. Game 2 saw the magic shift to the Washington hopefuls as the momentum swung 180° for Tiedeman and Jew to win 21-11. The tie breaker found Tiedeman and Jew with the large crowd solidly behind them, cheering their every move. At 6-6 Hajjar called a time out and regrouped. The Pennsylvania team never lost its composure and the experience of Hajjar (national intercollegiate champion) came through as she led her team to the National title and a U.S. National team berth at 11-6.

MEN'S 25+

Top seeded and local favorites Tony Krause, OR and Fielding Snow, WA breezed through the upper bracket to find themselves in the finals against Gary Mazaroff, NM and Dan Massari, CA who had their problems getting into the finals. In the semis they met the local team of Dan Allen and Gordy Pfeifer. For those non-Handball buffs, Pfeifer is the current reigning National Open Professional Champion in handball who had played racquetball only three times this year. Gordy's team lost in the tie breaker 11-9 and one can only speculate what would happen in the racquetball hierarchy if Gordy adopts racquetball in a competitive way. The finals went to Krause and Snow as they completely dominated Massari and Mazaroff 21-13, 21-13.

WOMEN'S 25+

In a round robin format the top seeded open team of Janet Simon, MA and Eileen Ehrlich, ME who lost in the second round of the Open redeemed themselves by dominating the 25+ division going 4-0. Simon/Ehrlich had wins over Taffy Savard/Diane Clairmont CN Sybil McCormack/Judy Lambly, ID, Kathy Mueller/Kathy Passe, MN and Gloria Pierson/Teresa Silva, OR.

Junior Grand Prix

Juniors from all over Northern California attended the first of five NCRA tournaments in Modesto this last weekend, October 16 and 17. These tournaments were created to promote Junior Racquetball in all Northern California. The kids, ages from 6 to 18 participated in a two day tournament in hopes of accumulating points for Junior rankings.

Many of the out-of-town juniors had the privilege of being housed by local juniors and their families. This arrangement always results in both the juniors and adults alike getting to know each other much better.

Saturday night the kids were hosted by the "Electric Experience" for a 2 hour party; meanwhile the adults all went out for dinner, a pleasing experience after watching racquetball all day.

The kids were also all treated to lunch at Rax Restaurant, completely free of charge, our special thanks to these people for providing this service. The kids will remember you forever.

A good time was had by all, and everyone went home anxious for the next meeting (Fairfield, November 19, 20, 21). The NCRA Jrs. hope that with each tournament that we can increase the number of juniors able to take part in this program. Anyone interested may contact Liz Smith, 3704 Dorado Court, Modesto, California 95356 (209-524-3447) for information. Please note that these tournaments have been limited to a $10.00 charge, in keeping the costs down we are in hopes to encourage more juniors to attend.

Special thanks to Lynn Hethcock, Carol Pearce, Ken Miller and the Modesto Courtroom staff for having our tournament. Also thanks to Kelly Bohannon the NCRA Jrs. secretary/treasurer for all her help during the tournament.

NATIONAL DOUBLES

30+ division has become one of the premier events in racquetball. No less than 6 past National Champions competed with all six making it to the semi finals. Top seeded Steve Dunn/Bob Kraut, CA met the ever strong team of Pat Page/Ron Strom, MN for the right to represent the upper bracket in the finals. Most attention, however, was on the other semis that found Bill Dunn/Bill Thurman, CA battling Bruce Radford, CA/Gene Grapes, ID. It was surprising that the match didn't go three as Dunn/Thurman overpowered Radford/Gibbs 21-16, 21-11. The contrasting styles of the finesse play of Thurman, precision of Dunn, against the power of Radford and the explosiveness of Gibbs made for one of the most exciting series in the Nationals. The semis in the upper bracket was anticlimactic as Page/Strom dominated Dunn/Kraut 21-11, 21-7. The more experienced and better team work of Dunn/Thurman proved itself once again as they held out over Strom/Page 21-16, 21-7.

WOMEN'S 30+

Only two short years ago we were scrambling to get enough entries in the 30+ to hold the division. This group has grown in popularity as 10 top flight teams competed. The top seeded team of Jeanine Farrell, VA and Marilyn Ross, PA breezed its way to the finals and met the second seeded team of Wanda Collins/Lee Jew, WA. Both teams had little trouble getting to the finals but there the yellow brick road came to an end. In an excellent display of racquetball skill and sportsmanship, Collins/Jew defeated Farrell/Ross 13-21, 21-14, 11-3.

THE SHOE FOR FICKLE FEET.

Some feet are just impossible to satisfy.

You buy them shoes for tennis, and they start flirting with basketball. Or sneaking off at lunch for a quick game of racquetball.

It isn't fair. And if you're concerned they may get hurt, it isn't exactly cheap, either.

Or wasn't. Until we came out with the Challenge Court.

This shoe not only satisfies the most diverse, most demanding of appetites, it does so without compromise.

While originally designed for, and worn by, the top racquetball players in the country, the Challenge Court is now being enthusiastically run up and down the courts of the NBA by players the caliber of Norm Nixon.

In tennis, John McEnroe has found it sufficient to win the Transamerica Open Championship, the Australian Indoor Championships, the Grand Prix Tournament in Tokyo, as well as the Davis Cup.

One of the things that makes the Challenge Court such an outstanding performance shoe is something we call the extended ankle collar.

It works on the principle of biofeedback. And it does its most important work when the foot is in the air, headed for a painful landing, by sensing trouble and alerting the muscles in the lower leg to take corrective action.

And because the padded collar is lined with Spenco®, the Challenge Court is one of the most comfortable shoes on any court.

The bi-level hobnail cupsole provides excellent traction. And with a nylon mesh upper, the shoe is extremely lightweight. It even accepts custom orthotics.

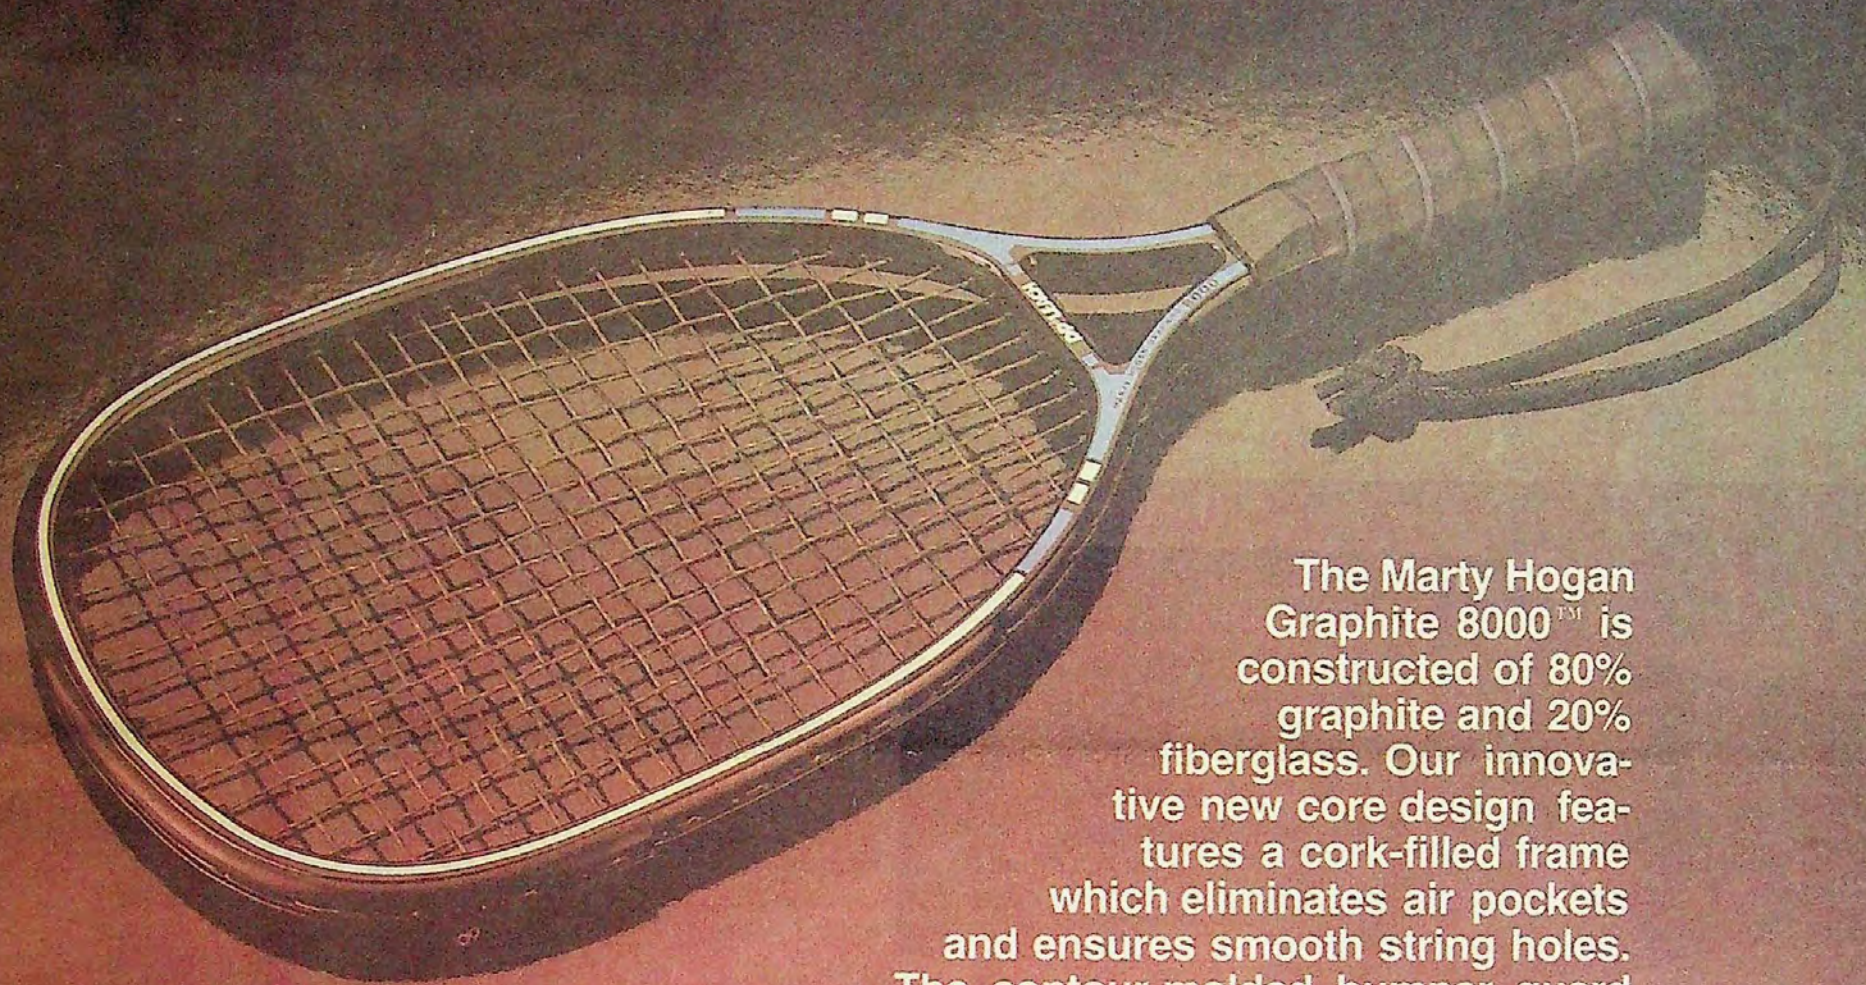

So if you have a difficult time restricting your feet to a single sport, slip them into the Challenge Court.

They'll be devoted.

8000 Ways to Beat Your Opponent

The Marty Hogan Graphite 8000™ is constructed of 80% graphite and 20% fiberglass. Our innovative new core design features a cork-filled frame which eliminates air pockets and ensures smooth string holes.

The contour-molded bumper guard gives longer string life and added protection.

The narrow, contoured throat creates a perfectly balanced racquet. Put these unique features together and the result is a racquet that gives you power for the kill shots, control for the finesse shots, and consistency for an overall better game.

The Marty Hogan Graphite 8000™ gives you every advantage.

MEN's 35+

Could Bill Dunn and Bill Thurman repeat their National title win just secured in the 30+ in the 35+? Due to the seeding, the bets were down that they could after they defeated the ever strong team of Bill Schmidtke/Ron Strom, MN in the semis 21-14, 21-10. In the upper bracket, the Number 2 team from last year: Mark Wayne, CA/Jerry Davis, OH were having little trouble until they ran into Jerry Henderson and Mike Call from Washington. Both games were always in doubt but Wayne/Davis prevailed 21-18, 21-16 and won the right to meet Dunn/Thurman in the finals. Dunn/Thurman upheld their favorite role as they totally dominated Wayne/Davis to capture their second straight national crown 21-10, 21-11.

WOMEN's 35+

This division was a round robin affair with the highly touted Barb Smith/Sharon Kennedy ID winning, Mimi Kelly/Vickie Edelman 2nd and Pat Guth/Dorothy Patent 3rd.

MEN's 40+

The question — would the perennial favorites of Bud Muehleisen and Myron Roderick, dynamic forces in the 40+ division for so many years, again retain their title in the 40+ division? A lot of spoilers in the pack said they would give Bud and Myron a run for their money, but this team was not tested until the finals where they met Jim Austin, TX and Bill Schmidtke, MN after a semi final win over Bob Petersen and Don Erickson, ID 21-12, 21-11.

In the lower bracket, second seeded Austin/Schmidtke, who lost last year to Muehleisen and Roderick, had little trouble reaching the finals with a 21-16, 21-14 win over Mark Wayne, CA/Jerry Davis, OH. The scene was set with the crowd judging the outcome a toss up. In game one Austin/Schmidtke were overpowering as they isolated Muehleisen and went after Roderick. Roderick handled the onslaught well, but seemed to tire as game one went to Austin/Schmidtke 21-16. Game two was all Austin/Schmidtke as their plan continued to work to perfection. Total frustration for Muehleisen/Roderick ended the match as an avoidable hinder was called upon Roderick at game-match point thus crowning new National Champions in this 40+ division Jim Austin/Bill Schmidtke 21-11.

MEN's 45+

Revenge is sweet as Muehleisen and Roderick snapped back from their 40+ loss to overwhelm local favorites Sid Williams and Tom Silverman 21-1, 21-10 to once again claim their National 45+ title. With a virtual walk through this division to the finals this team continues to prove their dominance in the sport.

MEN's 50+

Favorites and defending National Champions Gene Grapes/Al Schattner, PA found themselves in a round robin format much to their dislike in that Grapes was still recovering from a hip replacement. There were no sleepers in the 50+ as Pat Whitehill/Charlie Jackson, WA Ron

NORTH AMERICAN YOUTH MACCABI GAMES MEMPHIS JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER MEMPHIS, TN AUGUST 3-10

The first North American Youth Maccabi Games were held at the Memphis Jewish Community Center in Memphis, TN from August 3-10, 1982. Over 400 Jewish youngsters from Canada, Mexico, Israel, Australia and the United States converged on the Memphis JCC for a week of competition, home hospitality, Southern entertainment and Jewish cultural celebration.

The teenagers (12-16 year olds) competed in nine sports including softball, basketball, volleyball, soccer, swimming, gymnastics, table tennis, tennis and racquetball. The racquetball tournament was held at the JCC's five courts, which include 2 all-glass backwall courts. Boys singles, girls singles, and doubles were contested, with Canadian players sweeping the gold in all three events.

The Boys Singles drew 26 entries from Canada and the U.S. Drew Cohen of Canada took the gold medal, defeating countryman Lorne Levy 15-9, 15-14 in the final. Cohen's combination of drive serves and pinpoint passing shots were too much for the Omega-sponsored Levy.

The semifinals saw hometown hero Adam Brown lose to Levy 15-3, 15-1. Brown's hustle was no match for the shotmaking ability of the Canadian. The semis also featured the best match of the tournament as Cohen defeated fellow Canadian Mitchell Tessler 15-9, 8-15, 15-11. These two evenly matched players will be heard from in the future.

The Girls Singles drew only 3 entries, but saw some fine racquetball in the double round robin schedule. Gail Grief of Canada went undefeated to take the gold; fellow Canadian Bari Rapp won the silver and Risa Feit of Memphis the bronze.

The Doubles division of 16 teams came down to two Memphis-Canada battles in the semifinals, with the Canadians winning both. The powerhouse duo of Cohen-Tessler then defeated Grief-Levy 15-13, 15-8 for the gold. The Memphis teams of Eric Elster-Jeff Baum and Howie Manis-Larry Silver all received bronze medals.

SEMIFINALS: Levy d. Brown 15-3, 15-1; Cohen d. Tessler 15-9, 8-15, 15-11; FINALS: Cohen d. Levy 15-9, 15-14; Consolation Winner: Larry Silver; GIRLS SINGLES DOUBLE ROUND ROBIN: Gail Grief, Canada d. Risa Feit, USA, 15-2, 15-0; Bari Rapp, Canada d. Risa Feit, USA, 15-0, 15-5; Grief d. Manis-Silver 15-7, 15-11; FINALS: Cohen-Tessler d. Grief-Levy 15-13, 15-8.

Thompson/Dunc Stockwell, CN and Joe Coleman/Don Goddard, MT paired up to challenge the crown worn by Grapes/Schattner. After three days of playing, there was a 3-way tie with Whitehill/Jackson, Grapes/Schattner Thompson/Stockwell all having exact win/loss records of 2-1. After the points scored against were added up Thompson/Stockwell, CN emerged the winners with Grapes/Schattner second and Whitehill/Jackson third.

MEN's 55+ and 60+

No question about it, Burt Morrow and Leo Shelton, CA came to play. They totally dominated both age groups, captured both division titles and took home two National Championships. In the 55+ they were not tested as they coasted into the finals to face Scotty Deeds/David Hughes, CA who had squeezed out a close win over John Leshar/Melvin Brown, WA in the semis 21-16, 15-21, 11-3. The finals, however, were all Morrow and Shelton as they dominated Deeds/Hughes 21-8, 21-17. The 60+s were a different story as Morrow and Shelton's real challenge came in the semis against the strong team of Don Erickson, ID/Don Goddard, MT. In an extremely well played match Morrow/Shelton outlasted Erickson/Goddard 21-17, 12-21, 11-4. The finals held on the glass championship court showcased the art of the sport and much to the delight of the partisan California crowd Morrow and Shelton overpowered long time Champions Ike Gumer and Irv Zeitman, KY 21-5, 21-12.

MIXED DOUBLES

In one of the most spirited divisions, both finalists were from Pennsylvania. Dan Obremski/Tammy Hajjar defeated the much improved team of Hugh Klein and Beth Latini 21-18, 21-14.

Steve Trent prepares to hit the ball while partner Stan Wright is ready and opponent John Mack watches.

TIME OUT

In a monumental undertaking such as the U.S. National Doubles Championships numerous people make major contributions to the overall effort. Maximum credit must be given to our National Sponsors, Lite Beer from Miller and its excellent support staff. Lite is unique in Racquetball sponsorship for not only does it give financial support, it backs it up with expertise in management and public relations. Steve Forsyth, public relations manager for Lite, was on hand throughout the event masterminding the overall publicity efforts which were second to none in the sport's history.

Working closely with Steve was Jim Hatch, public relations for Federal Way, who did an excellent job. Sam Jones Number 24 Miller Lite Celebrity was ever present signing autographs and sharing promotional ideas. Other Lite support came from Jimmy Looper, Kevin Wulff, J. P. Kidwell and Premium Distributors of Seattle.

Also of great assistance was Bob Smith, Product Manager of Seamco-MacGregor whose sponsorship was well received once again in the amateur ranks. Smitty — ever present support giving out the national champion jackets, officiating and overall presence went far in making the event the success it was.

The tremendous effort from the Federal Way Athletic Club owned by Joe Hollman under the professional management of Jerry Henderson left no stone unturned to create an atmosphere and hospitality that will be long remembered. The staff at Federal Way immediately made everyone feel at home and maintained the atmosphere throughout the Nationals which can be exceedingly tiring.

Phrases like "racquetball is in good hands" and "it has a bright future" were repeated often after the finals. "See you at the National Singles in Houston" was frequently heard along with the last goodbyes.

The Ram Racquetball By Right Guard Corp. Has Been Approved For All A.A.R.A. Sanctioned Events.

"NO MATTER WHO YOU'RE UP AGAINST,
CONTROLLABLE POWER IS THE KEY TO WINNING.
THAT'S WHY I PLAY WITH HEAD."

Steve Strandemo, top-ranked player, teacher and author of Advanced Racquetball.

Unique fiberglass/graphite construction is molded by hand for precise weight, balance and flex.

Specially formulated bumper strip protects racquet for longer wear.

Unique quadriform head shape provides larger sweetspot and firmer response.

Variable density string pattern provides power on sweetspot hits and forgiveness on off-center shots.

Unique torsion tube construction adds incredible strength, but not weight.

Open throat design improves torsional stability and quickness.

One-of-a-kind contoured "hourglass" shape conforms to your grip.

Foamed handle, unlike plastic versions, virtually stops vibration for a truer response.

Head's uncanny blend of power and control lets you shift from blistering shot to deft return without missing a beat. And whether you're up against a power player or a smart strategist, a Head racquet helps you get the ball where you want it to go. Faster. And more accurately.

So take a lesson from Steve Strandemo and ask to demo a Head racquet at your club. One game will be worth a thousand words. For a color brochure, write "Head Racquetball," Box CN-5227, Princeton, New Jersey 08540.
