For exceptionally smooth taste. There is beer. And there is Michelob. The difference is day and night.

The night belongs to Michelob.™

After a year of preparation the big event is finally here, The Michelob Pro-Am, the biggest tournament in the Rocky Mountain area. The Michelob Pro-Am is one of the largest Pro-Doubles tournament in the nation. The tournament committee has been working overtime for your enjoyment. If you need any help during the event don't hesitate to approach anyone in an AVIA shirt, they will be associated with the tournament and can answer your questions.

We have brought some of the top players in the WORLD to compete in the Pro-Doubles event. Cliff Swain and Gerry Price are back to defend their title and entertain us. Rueben Gonzales the 1988 World Champion is here for the 1st time, we look forward to his teaming up with Mike Ray and old favorite. Jack Newman has received back his amateur status and found a new partner in Andy Roberts. Between the two of them they hold more than 7 national titles. Also competing are top rated Woody Clouse, Mike Guidry, Drew Katchtik, Bobby Rodriguez, Jack Nolan, and many talented local pro teams.

I must deeply thank Michelob, with out there never ending support this whole event would still be an idea. We would like to welcome some new faces to the sponsor arena; Avia Shoes, Coca Cola, American Airlines, Altempco Glass, Precise Repro, Tacki-Mac. Also a big thanks to the Radisson Hotel, the official tournament hotel.

The Michelob Pro-AM will be on Cable T.V. nationwide coast to coast and in Canada. We are proud to be the only event in the nation to accomplish national coverage. The event can be seen locally on Prime Sports Network on May 7th at 7:00 PM. Mark it on you calendar so you won't miss it.

The last thanks goes to the players in all divisions. We appreciate you selecting to play in our event over the many others in the area. Enjoy the hospitality and competition and have a great time.

Sincerely,

Dirk D. Zeller

The Player Profiles:

Seeded #1 Cliff Swain/ Gerry Price:

This team has extreme power from either side. They both are ranked in the top 10 in the world with Cliff at #2 and Gerry at #8. They are the defending champions of the event. This team is a classic "old school" doubles team, where the right side player sets the shots up for the left side player. Because of this style Cliff could dominate the play in the match like he did in the finals last year. Most teams will try to keep it away from Cliff to try to throw off this teams rythum. The other teams must keep the ball deep enough on Price to be effective. If the shots to the right are not perfect Gerry will roll them out!

Seeded #2 Mike Ray/ Rueben Gonzales:

Mike has been in the finals of this event two times before and came away with a win and a loss. He has a new partner this year in Rueben. We are excited to have them team up together. They will probably play a very staight up style with the court being divided fairly equally. Rueben will play more up front than Mike and be forced to dive for balls. Mike will play back a little farther to hit the "BIG" forehand for the winners. Most teams will attack them by trying to move Rueben back in deep court and forcing Mike to the front court. These two will be tough to hit around because of their size, so their opponents must be patient with their shots or it will be a short match.

Seeded #3 Jack Newman/ Andy Roberts:

Jack is back! Watch out all Open players going to nationals, They could be in the Open National championship finals. This team we really know little about since Andy is new to the event and Jack is playing a different side. Andy has extreme power from the forhand side. If a team makes a mistake and leaves it short on the right the rally will be over. Jack has great quickness on the left and can get to almost any ball. You will probably see most teams stay away from Andy and play more on Jack's side of the court.

Seeded #4 Mike Guidry/ Drew Katchtik:

These are a great pair of young players. Mike has had a sensational year with the Junior National title, the Junior World title and has beat some of the top pro's in the draw at this event. Drew just won the Southern regional Open title. Doubles wise they are a solid team. Drew covers the whole court from side wall to side wall. He is the retriever in this team. He has good shots from his right side players position. Mike will be playing a little deeper and trying to hit the forehand for winners.

Seeded #5 Bobby Rodriguez/ Jack Nolan:

We have not seen Bobby play much this year. He and Jack have won this tournament in the past and could again this year. Jack is playing the left side now. You will see the crack serve all day from him. This team will try to play a more contolled tempo. They will try to stay away from the blast'em type of racquetball. Bobby will try to get up front and hit his great touch shots in the corner. You will see most opponents try to over power these two and make them both become defensive with their shots.

Seeded # 6 Woody Clouse/ Dirk Zeller:

Woody has had an impressive year. He most recently lost in the Semi-finals in the Pro-stop in Michigan to Marty Hogan in a tough match. This team is another "old school" doubles team. Dirk will be hitting shots to set Woody up. Most of the play will be on the left side. Both players play up in front court. This will be an advantage to them when teams hit poor pinch shots. This team will play blast'em racquetball from the drop of the ball. Woody's famous on tour for being a wild man, and if he gets hot they could go all the way.

Seeded # 7 Tony Boscia/ Mark Helton:

This is a great local team. They have been playing together for years. They have won every tournament you can imagine in the area. Tony can dominate the left side if he gets hot. Mark plays a very solid right side. Mark will hit from deep court with great consistancy. Tony will hit the backhand splat every chance he gets. Look for opponents to sit on Tony's splat shot, if he makes the splat they will be tough. They are the best team in the draw in covering the court. You will see a lot of floor work in their matches.

Seeded #8 Tony Jelso/ Louis Vogel

Tony will play right side and hit with power. If he can keep the amount of skips down they will be a very good team. If he has control problems look for their opponents to hit his way. Louis has really developed a powerful backhand, and will cover a great portion of the court. He will probably play farther up on the left side than Tony. This could cause problems for some teams. The altitude could have a big effect on the way this team plays.
