Boscia & Bailey Capture State Open Title

Boscia becomes four time champ, Bailey makes it one in a row!

It was a well run, well attended, and well played tournament. Tony Boscia became the most successful state champ in Colorado history and Martha Bailey became our newest women's champ. Those statements pretty much sum up the 20th Annual CRA/AARA State Singles Championships at the Aurora Athletic Club.

The tournament was held at a club with only 7 courts. There was certainly the potential for disaster. Combined with the fact matches started on Wednesday, and at 1:00 on Friday, there was concern as to how it might effect the turnout.

The end result showed any concern there might have been was without merit. Approximately 270 players in two events made the '94 event one of the best ever. The organizational efforts of the Aurora Athletic Club set the basis for a smooth running event, and kudos to the many member volunteers, the staff, and management, for allowing C.R.A. to host the tournament at such a fine facility.

See pages 3-5 for complete results.

Presidents Message

Steve Blackwood

When should a player be required to move into the next skill division? This has been the topic that many of you have asked this past season, and one that I think is very misunderstood.

There is a point system that the C.R.A. has adopted for player classification only, and it is separate from ranking or AARA points. This system takes into consideration the size of the draws and is calculated over twelve calendar months of tournament play. Until now, this has been the best way for the C.R.A. to keep track of who should be reclassified. Due to the number of people who have expressed dissatisfaction with this process, it may be necessary to revise the current system.

The C.R.A. Board will be discussing this over the next few months, and would greatly appreciate any input we can get. If you have any concerns or ideas, please write them down and send them to the Editor so they will be considered. Thank you.

As all of you who played in the 20th Anniversary State Singles are aware, it was a great tournament. The staff of the Aurora Athletic club, along with several of its committed members, were the reason this year's State Singles went so smooth. It is always a lot of work for the C.R.A. Board to run the state tournaments, but with the level of commitment we received from the AAC people, it seemed more like fun than work.

Thanks to all of you who expressed your satisfaction with the tournament, and especially to all who helped make it one of the best tournaments I've ever been a part of!

IN MEMORY OF John Leonardelli

by John Foust

On March 29 John Leonardelli was stabbed to death in a parking garage on South Parker near the Aurora/I.A.C. His assailants took a Rolex watch, contents of his wallet and his 1993 Jaguar.

I didn't know John Leonardelli. I only know what I read in the paper. He was the father of six, a successful business man, and devoted to caring for his ailing wife. He was also an avid racquetball player and loved the game.

You hate to see anyone die a senseless death, but it's brought a little closer to the heart when it's a fellow competitor. It's a small bond, but certainly one that's important to many of us.

On behalf of the C.R.A., and all recreational players, our condolences to his family.

20 Years of Colorado Racquetball

A perspective by John Mooney

The recent Colorado State Championships were billed as the 20th Colorado State Championships and to all the winners I give my congratulations. Even though a lot of time has passed and faces have changed, racquetball is still alive and well in Colorado.

I congratulate the Colorado Racquetball Association on a long overdue recognition to JOHN FOUST, who was presented the "John Mooney Award for Excellence", at the State Championship Banquet.

What about our 20 plus years of racquetball in Colorado? My memory is a little cloudy, as memories get when you get older, but we thought it would be of some interest to patch together a article, which would cover some of the earlier days of Colorado Racquetball. Some of you reading this newsletter were not born when we started Colorado Racquetball, and some of you remember bits and pieces and some of you were involved from the very beginning.

The sport really got started in Colorado in 1969 when a small group of people got together at the downtown Denver YMCA and attempted to get court time from the handball players. It wasn't long, before the Universities at Fort Collins and Boulder had players using the racquets on their "Handball Courts". There were not any private facilities (court clubs, racquet clubs, etc.) available until Ron Blanding (a Denver Contractor) built the Court Club on 3rd and Broadway in Denver, and Willie Morton's Conditioning Spa opened in Greeley.

Then it started. There were two new courts (maybe three) at the Stapleton Plaza Hotel in Denver. Two courts at the Steamboat Athletic Club in Steamboat Springs. The new YMCA in Colorado Springs was under construction with four new courts. Writers Manor had two courts with Bill McKinzie as the Athletic Director. Executive Tower had two courts with Fritz Fenton as Manager. West Hills Racquet Club (now the Point) had two courts. Fort Collins, Greeley, Durango, Montrose, Colorado Springs, Denver, Littleton, Aurora, Arvada, Loveland, Glenwood Springs, Longmont, Pueblo, Gunnison, Evergreen, Lamar, Grand Junction, Lakewood, and Englewood all followed with two to sixteen court facilities.

The National organizations (IRA and USRA) were trying to out do each other to see which organization could establish their power in the most number of states. Colorado had an IRA and a USRA representative appointed. Bernie Greenberg was the self appointed IRA State Racquetball Chairperson. John Mooney was the USRA State Chairman.

The first Colorado State Championship was held at the Denver YMCA, February 7 through 11, 1973 under the sanctioning of the IRA. It was both the Singles and Doubles State Championships. Bernie Greenberg was the winner of the Singles Championship and John Mooney & Donald Edwards won the Doubles Championship.

TIP OF THE RACQUET TO...

Denise Whitelaw, Lynea Seal, Scott & Joyce Swanson, Lucy Jirik, Mike Ray, Martha Bailey, Deb Gridley, and Larry Mullen.

In our last edition of ROLLOUT it was requested players who competed in State Doubles voluntarily replace checks that had not cleared their bank as a result of a theft involving Steve Blackwood's car. Of the approximately 90 players this affected - the above nine answered the call. Read those names well. They're people who have honor, can be trusted, and care about the sport. Thank you.

K.T. Beck, tournament director for the Athletic Club Inverness, for donating all raffle proceeds to Urban Peak. Urban Peak is a counseling and housing facility for homeless children in Denver.

The Rocky Mountain News for publishing information pertaining to racquetball. It may not be much but they did have a blurb about the U.S. Team in Colorado Springs, something about State Singles before the event, and worked with getting the results published the following week. I know all of you would like to see more, but it's at least a start.

Thanks to Culligan Water for stepping forward during the State tournament and supplying bottled water on Saturday and Sunday. They were not listed as a sponsor, certainly not obligated, and did what they did on the spur of the moment. Thank you to Joe Cohen and company owner Paul Marotta.

AVOIDABLE HINDERS...

To the Denver Post for not having the space to print anything about racquetball. No pre-tournament release, no results, no nothing. It's not like they didn't have the information. It certainly makes it easier to figure out why they're number 2 in the newspaper race, and will probably stay that way (they also have Woodhead Paige which could be viewed as a big strike against them).

A big avoidable hinder to all the players of who did not voluntarily replace their uncashed checks from State Doubles. You know who you are, and should be ashamed of yourselves.

Where Culligan stepped forward... Grayson Water blew it. Having made a commitment to the State tournament they did not return calls and failed to supply any product. The C.R.A. on the other hand featured Grayson on the entry and shirt. That's a first in sponsorship history.

To the Pittsburgh Pirates for letting go a very good Chris Knabenshue on the last day of spring training. Chris, a local area boy who happens to be an avid racquetball player, was leading the team in hitting, showed a strong arm and looked to possibly make the team, but certainly seemed to be headed to their triple A team in Buffalo. No dice. Cut. Yer outta here. Judging by their dismal start they might want to rethink the situation. Chris, in the meantime, is playing in Mexico and waiting to be called up.

Tom Lynch as emcee of the 1994 Awards Banquet

In addition to winning the Men's AA and the 19+, John Miller put in a lot of time planning and working the State Tournament.

The Aurora Athletic Club's Cindy Andersen was an unsung hero for her organizing efforts.

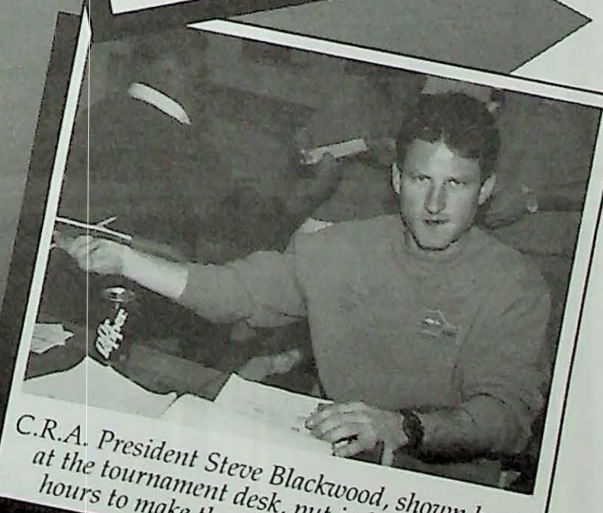

"And another thing...I want a new ball, the glass court, and a little respect" says Russ Krugman to Ted Wall. OK, we're assuming he said that.

GREAT JOB...
Thank You
Everyone!

Awards banquet participants were treated to a great buffet at Blossoms restaurant in Heather Gardens.

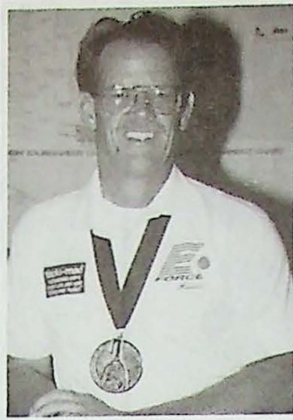

C.R.A. President Steve Blackwood, shown here at the tournament desk, put in his share of hours to make the tournament a success.

A SPECIAL THANKS TO the International Athletic Club / Aurora for allowing the C.R.A. usage of their club for consolation. Chambers Wine & Liquor for all you do. Inland Design for the great job on the sweat shirt. The Aurora Athletic Club staff, management and members for being so helpful and courteous throughout this event.

LOCKER ROOM TALK

YOU HAD TO BE QUICK to see it but.....the January 16th episode of Superman had Clark Kent reaching for his EKTELON workout bag prior to leaving the office. Jeez, if he plays racquetball, he must hit a mean kill shot. I wouldn't want to stand in front of him. Bet he gets to everything.

LITTLE KNOWN RACQUETBALL FACTS...
Tony Boscia, is a four time state open champion, Diane Adams, a four time champ, Doug Zirkle, three times, Dave Blackford, two times, as were Steve Nielson and Mirjam Wielhessen. The Aurora Athletic Club hosted both the 10th Anniversary State tournament and the 20th.

DID YOU KNOW
Jeff Mulligan was a national caliber pole vaulter when young? For that matter, did you know he was a junior national champion in racquetball? Now you do.

John Vohland, of Colorado Springs, was the first official entrant in the 20th Annual CRA State Singles Championship.

THEY OUGHT TO RENAME IT... the Tony Boscia Invitational at the D.A.C. Seriously, he's won the tournament seven times (87-93). The only comparable player would be five time champ (85-89) Mirjam Weilheesen, who is no longer active.

NICE TO HAVE
Flatiron Athletic Club back on the tournament circuit. Kudos to Brett Nichols and Rich Tarde for making it happen. They ran a good event and showed players that the F.A.C. was still in business. Here's looking to a great 1995 tournament.

UP AND COMING PLAYERS:
Willie Tilton, Travis Morphew, John Miller, Lourdes Garcia, Amy Crocker, Jenny Meyer, and Tony Trevino. It happens in all sports. There's a changing of the guard on the horizon and these players will most likely be part of that change.

Inaugural High School Racquetball Championship

Lynmar hosted Colorado's first State High School Racquetball Championships February 18-20th. Seven high schools were represented. Colorado Spring's Liberty High took the 1994 Championship title thanks to the individual performances of Lynmar's Willie Tilton and Rafael Diaz. Willie and Rafael earned first and second places respectively in the individual competition. Lakewood's Green Mountain High finished second, while Pueblo South took third place.

RESULTS:

GOLD DIVISION

1. Willie Tilton, Liberty High
2. Rafael Diaz, Liberty High
3. Frank Krupka, Pueblo South
4. Brian Bollig, Green Mountain

BLUE DIVISION

1. Phillip Stepanek, Green Mtn.
2. Kelly Ruhl, Arvada West
3. Chris Paxton, Air Academy
4. Tom Golden, Liberty High

RED DIVISION

1. Dan Davis, Greeley High
2. Leland Wolfe, Greeley High
3. Jonathan Weimer, Pueblo South
4. Sean McNeill, Liberty High

WHITE DIVISION

1. Megan Goodman, Palmer High
2. Andrea Emmons, Pueblo South

The names of the top racquetball players at that time were Greenberg, Edwards, Mooney, John Whistler, Hank Rucker, Hazy Meridith, Ted Goodrich, Skip Lytle, and Tim Oliver.

In the Summer of 1973, Bernie Greenberg was recognized as president of the C.R.A. by the IRA. There was some controversy as to which National Organization Colorado was going to affiliate with, the IRA or the USRA. Bernie had started the State Association by putting together a Board of interested racquetball players. This board consisted of Dick Engebretson, Boulder; Don Edwards and Patrick Barry, Colorado Springs; Mike Temaat, Fort Collins; Hank Rucker, Lowry AFB; Ted Goodridge, Fritz Fenton, Ken Weiner, Bill McKenzie and Rick Way, Denver. This organization was never formalized and when Greenberg moved out of Colorado in late 1973, no one stepped forward for the IRA to guide Colorado Racquetball. At the time I was the State USRA Chairman and I corresponded with both National Organizations. Both appointed me as their Colorado representative. We decided to legally form the Colorado Racquetball Association. We appointed a temporary board of officers by soliciting the help of a newspaper man (Jim Hershberger), a Lawyer (Jack Herron), a CPA (Roger McEchern), and three members at large (Bill Mims & Robin Starr of Colorado Springs, and Willy Morton of Greeley). We drew up the constitution and by-laws, applied for and received incorporation papers as a non-profit educational organization.

Over the next few years many changes took place. Rick Schleibe got together with a group of folks and started a court club consulting service along with developing and building new clubs. (He was a general partner in the Sporting Houses of America). Monte Huber (who was the Assistant Athletic Director under Schleibe) took over Ricks vacated position as Athletic Director of the Denver Athletic Club. Jack O'Connor was hired as the Assistant Athletic Director under Monte.

Rick developed the Montbello Sporting House, the Denver Sporting House, the International Athletic Club Downtown Denver, and the International Athletic Club in Aurora.

Bill Moyle, along with Orman Balzer and Larry Feil developed and built the Aurora Athletic Club in Aurora.

Ron Blanding expanded the Court Club at 3rd and Broadway and developed and built a new club on I-70.

Don Hanna and his brother, both of whom were involved in Tennis in the Midwest, moved to Denver and built a 10 court facility in Northwest Denver.

Clubs started springing up all over Colorado and by 1979 there were 37 court clubs or athletic facilities that had racquetball courts. Unfortunately, many have now closed and there has been no new club building in Colorado in recent years.

Colorado's first national recognition was when Ed Creagh and I won the USRA National Senior Doubles Championship in Las Vegas, in 1975. Since then

From the Editor...Many thanks to all the people who have approached me with compliments about the ROLLOUT. Our goal is to keep players informed about Colorado racquetball. Please understand your comments and suggestions are certainly welcomed and appreciated.

On a personal note, I would like to extend my sincere thanks to Larry Daub, Dick Manson, Dan Davis and any other people who were involved in nominating me for the John Mooney award. Being nominated was an honor in itself. Winning was great. But I must say having it presented by Larry Daub, a very good friend, really made it special. As for everyone else who came up and congratulated me, I extend to you a "thank you" for your confidence and hope that I can continue to contribute in a positive way.

there have been some very good players representing Colorado. To name a few: Barb Levitt, Colorado Springs, 1976 National Senior Women's Champion. Harold Lujan, Steamboat Springs, Colorado State Singles, Rocky Mountain Regional Champion and National level player. Jim Owens, Denver, National Competitor and Pro Qualifier. Jim Warner, Monte Huber, Jack O'Connor, Dave Blackford, all State Champions and National Competitors. Frank Leydons, Fort Collins, National Masters Singles Champion and two times runner-up in National Master Doubles with John Mooney.

People who have been responsible for perpetuating racquetball in Colorado in the beginning. Rose Mooney, Jim Hershberger, Jim Fleming, Bill Mims, Robin

Starr, Willy Morton, Lou Smario, Paul Swoboda, Bernie Greenberg, Janice Brown, Roger McEachern, Dave Glander, Jack Herron, Duane Cottles, Sid Peretti, James Kosmiski, Ed Creagh, John Gillingham, John Foust, John Mooney, Monte Huber, Bill Roth, and Bill McKenzie. I am sure I have left some out, but the names slip by me at this time.

In 1986, the Colorado Racquetball Association inaugurated the Annual "John Mooney Award" which was to be given each year to the person who gave the most to perpetuating racquetball in Colorado during the past year. Jim Turner presented the first award to me in 1987 on behalf of the C.R.A. Helen O'Connell was presented the award in 1988 for her work and dedication to the Colorado Juniors Program. Luke St. Onge was presented the award in 1989 for his continued work in perpetuating racquetball at the State level, National and International levels. I am very proud to be a part of the Colorado Racquetball History and having the award named in my honor was one of the greatest honors that has ever happened to me in my lifetime. I am delighted that this award has again gained prestige and that the Colorado Racquetball Association and that the C.R.A. continues to recognize those people who have dedicated their time and efforts to making racquetball a better sport in Colorado.

There are so many people who, over the years, have added a great deal to the sport of racquetball in Colorado and this "memories" article is in no way meant to slight any of those people. What it does do is leave room for some young racquetball journalist to write another article on, maybe, "Who's Who in Colorado Racquetball Now", or "The Past 10 Years, or...?"

John H. Mooney,
Past C.R.A. President
