DAVID LUND AND JOEL BONNETT INDUCTED INTO MICHIGAN'S HALL OF FAME

The 2010 inductees into the RAM Hall of Fame are David Lund of Lansing, Michigan and Joel Bonnett of Kentwood, Michigan. Both players were nominated and inducted under the player category.

Dave Lund began playing racquetball in 1976 and played his first tournament in 1979. His impressive resume includes eighteen local and statewide tournament championships beginning in the 45 and over division and continuing through the 70 and over age division. Mr. Lund is the holder of nine consecutive Michigan State Singles Championships beginning in 2001 and continuing through 2009. He holds a total of eight regional championships (55+, 65+ and 70+) and three US Open Championships (Memphis, Tennessee) in both the 65+ and 70+. Mr. Lund is the title holder of one USAR National Championship in 2006 in the Men's 70 Open division and one National Masters International Championship in 2001 in the Men's 65 Open division.

What Dave hoped people will remember him as "a club player and tournament player who was able to blend winning, learning, fun and comradery into his style of play." Dave is married and has six children and six grandchildren. Congratulations, Dave!

The second inductee for 2010 is Joel Bonnet. Joel started playing racquetball in 1977 at age of six and entered his first tournament at age eight. Mr. Bonnett won numerous Men's Open singles and doubles championships in Michigan, Ohio, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and Canada. He was a three time national Olympic Festival participant and two time US Olympic team member in 1990 and 1992.

Mr. Bonnett was a National High School Singles Championship in the 18 and under bracket in 1990. He holds the title of Singles 18 Under Junior Olympic Champion in 1990 and was a Junior Olympic Champion in the Doubles in the 16 and Under bracket in 1988 and the 18 Under bracket in 1990. Joel holds the title as Michigan State Singles Open Champion in 2002 and a title as US Open Men's Open Champion from Memphis, Tennessee in 1996.

What Joel hopes people will remember him for is "his competitive spirit both on and off the court, his focus and determination to compete at the highest level, his 180 mph drive serves and power racquetball and most importantly, his love for the game." Joel is married and has two children. Congratulations, Joel!

Dave and Joel will be honored at the 2010 RAM Hall of Fame and Awards Banquet to be held in conjunction with the 2010 RAM State Singles Championship on March 27, 2010 at the Davison Athletic Club and Country Club. Plan to attend these festivities and help Joel and Dave celebrate achieving the highest racquetball honor in Michigan.

Dave and Joel become the 30th and 31st members of Michigan's Racquetball Hall of Fame. Joel joins his dad, Ken becoming the only father and son members of Michigan's Racquetball Hall of Fame.

THOUGHTS FROM THE PRESIDENT . .

- Twayne M. Howard

Another new year, another new decade, the same great game and lots too look forward to. By the time you read this, there will be a few weeks left in the season and we will be heading for a big finish. The RAM State Singles Championships at Davison Athletic Club, March 26-28.

State Singles. Says it all, doesn't it? It's the reason you work, sweat and train all year. The time on the court, the time off the court, all the tournaments... this is it. The goal is in sight. That big Gold medal at the end of the weekend. Maybe even two. Are you ready for it? Only one way to find out. Get in the game and give it your all. You can use the entry form in this Newsletter.

Hand in hand with State Singles tournament weekend is the RAM Hall of Fame and Annual Awards Banquet. This used to be a bi-annual event, but no more. The RAM Board of Directors decided that we have too much to celebrate to only have a formal banquet every other year.

Once again this year, we are seeking nominations in several categories for players who are truly the best of the best, and worthy of recognition. The categories are Female Player of the Year, Male Player of the Year, Junior Player of the Year, Most Improved Player, Sportsperson of the Year, Tournament Director of the Year and Club/Owners of the Year. If you have know someone that you think deserves one of these awards, use the attached entry form and return it with your entry into State Singles.

As I write this the voters are considering several nominees for induction into the Hall of Fame. In my personal opinion, it's an impressive group and the Banquet will be another night of stars. Make sure you reserve your ticket for the Banquet. It promises to be another special night for Michigan racquetball.

That will bring the Michigan indoor season to a close, but that doesn't mean the season is over. Illinois and Ohio will host Regional Championships. Each of these great events brings the best players from several states to compete and is a tremendous proving ground. After that, is The Finals. The USA Racquetball National Singles Championships is making what could be its last trip to Houston, TX. The event will conclude on Memorial Day after a full week of play and parties. Are you up for the challenge? Could you be a National Champion? Make the trip and try your best. Join the other members of Team Michigan as they compete with the best of the best.

After that, the juniors get their shot at the USA Racquetball Junior National Championships in Arizona. Junior Team Michigan will make a bid for yet another top five finish. I wouldn't want to bet against them.

Then, it's all about the Outdoors. Outdoor racquetball that is. Several great events are planned for Belle Isle and St Clair Shore. No back wall? No problem.

Whew. That's a ton. Not to mention leagues and lessons, and learning opportunities and all the fun pickup games at your home club.

Make sure you check out the RAM Web Page at www.michiganracquetball.net for details on all of these and more. I hope to see you on the courts. Hang on. It's going to be a heck of a finish.

Editor's Note. . . .

This will be my last edition as editor of the Racquetball Reporter. I have been the editor since the March 2003 edition. This has been my second time as editor, the first being during the 1980s when the Reporter was a news-print edition. It is time for me to begin to do other things and for the Reporter to grow and evolve taking on a new shape and form. RAM STATE DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP CLOSES OUT THE YEAR IN FINE FASHION

- Twayne M. Howard

The first half of the tournament season came to an end with the RAM State Doubles Championship over the first weekend in December at Total Sports in Mt Clemens. Polar fleece vests for all, plaques, great food and play awaited all the competitors. Thanks to Ed, Bob, Dawn, Shawn and the rest of the staff for putting on a great event. But let's get right to the competition.

Our youngest competitors took to the courts for the Junior Championship. When the dust cleared, Braeden D'almeida and Chris Wilkens got past the team of Zachary D'Almeida and Caige Duryea to claim the Championship.

After tough matches with close competition, the ladies teams split the championships. Laura Johnson and Melody Gorno beat the team Maureen Price and Natalie Gilbert to earn the Women's 40+ Division.

Maureen Price and Natalie Gilbert turned the tables and won the Women's Open Championship by defeating Laura Johnson and Melody Gorno to take home the Gold. These were two great matches to watch, with only a couple points separating the two teams.

The Junior/Veteran Championship went to brothers Andrew Price and Jim Price who defeated the father/son combo of Myles Kelly and Chris Kelly. Caige Duryea and Caige Duryea and Mike Bowles and Scott Bowles rounded out the semis.

The Men's A Division went to Jim Kutt and Ben Marciniak-Jennings by defeating Larry Panetta and Scott Sellers. Scott Duryea and Rick Davenport and Aaron Melch and Daniel Fletcher rounded out the semi-finals.

The father/son combo of John Brennan and Mike Brennan defeated Joe Trocchio and Rich Sporer in the finals of the Men's B Division. The teams of Dennis Reid and Twayne Howard, and Steve Mizzi and Leon Rivera made it to the semis. Congratulations to Mike Brennan for winning a double gold.

Another father/son pairing also won the Centurian Championship. Ken Bonnett and Joel Bonnett defeated the team of Bob Gravelyn and Steve Jazwiec to take home the Gold. Mike Chambon and Scott Sellers, and Dave Erdman and Mark Reed were the semi-finalists.

The Centurian A Championship went to the team of Keith Vogel and Leon Rivera who defeated Dan Greene and Melody Gorno after making it through the pool play to earn the Gold.

Andrew Price and Maureen Price (seriously, no relation) teamed up to defeat Margrit Schemeckko and Ed Arias to win the Mixed Open Championship. This was Andrew's second Gold of the weekend one of only three players to accomplish this feat. Congratulations, Andrew!

The Men's 40+B Championship went to Bryan Galloway and John Leggett who defeated Jeffrey Mira and Mark Zimmer, and the team of Twayne Howard and Dennis Reid in round robin fashion.

Gary Giblin and Dan Greene defeated Pierre Chrest and Bernard Snay to win the Men's 60+ Championship.

The Men's 45+ Open Championship went to the team of George Yarbenet and Jim Miller after they defeated Mike Chambon and John Stallmer. The teams of Jim Woolcock and Dan Verbeck and Mike Middleton and Gary King were the semi-finalists.

Ben Marciniak-Jennings and Dan Mullin got past Aaron Melch and Dan Fletcher to take the Men's 35+A Division. That was Ben's second gold of the weekend. Congratulations. Gary King and Mike Middleton and Marcos Rivera and Scott Bowles rounded out the Semis.

Jim Woolcock and Dan Verbeck defeated Al Montoye and Jim Therrell in the finals of the Men's 50+ Open Championship. The teams of Tom Blakeslee and Jack White and Ed Arias and Tom Yates were the semi-finalists.

The pairing of Dusty Smith and Mike Brennan won the Men's C/D Championship after defeating Jeff Mira and Mark Zimmer. Zach D'Almeida and Caige Duryea and the team of Jim Price and Nathan Kauffman filled out the semis.

Mike Chambon and John Stallmer took the tough Men's Elite Championship by defeating Jason Kennedy and Steve Goedker in the Finals. Dan Mullin and John Kutt, and the team of George Yarbenet and Jim Miller were the semi-finalists.

The big show came down to the old lions and the new kids. In the end it was age and experience over youth and fire. Joel Bonnett teamed up with Shannon Kohl got past the team of Andrew Price and Brad Schopieray in a long, tough tie-breaker. Greg Lewerenz teamed with Ryan Covell and Steve Goedker teamed with Jason Kennedy to complete the semi-finals.

What a great weekend of racquetball. It truly lived up to everything you could hope for in a tournament weekend. Make plans to join us for the State Doubles Championship next year, the first weekend of December. See you there.

2009 WEST MICHIGAN OPEN BRINGS OUT THE BEST OF THE BEST

- Twayne M. Howard

Many things can contribute to a great and memorable racquetball tournament. Usually, the first thing that makes a great tournament memory is your own great result – who you beat and how you finished. But then, there are all the other things about a tournament – what was the shirt like, how was the food, what about the trophies, did it run on time? But some of the most important things are in no one's control, and they can make a truly memorable weekend. Did you get to hang with your friends, and did you make any new friends? What about those memories?

But what can make a truly memorable racquetball weekend, is getting to watch great racquetball, and see things you can't even imagine being able to do. For me, being able to see the best of the best play the sport at the highest level is a tremendous thrill. And anytime you get to attend a Pro racquetball tournament, the potential exists to put all of those things together and make a very memorable tournament weekend.

The 2009 West Michigan Open benefiting Helen DeVos Children's Hospital Foundation certainly did its part to make it a memorable weekend -- the food, the shirts, the full house, the play and the Pros. Oh Man! Those PROS! They can play, can't they? But before we get to the Pros, let's check out some of the rest of the results.

Many of the great Juniors we have gotten to watch over the past few years are now making their mark in the adult divisions -- Mercedes Arias, Nathan Tucker, Brad Schopieray, Bryan Schopieray and certainly Andrew Price are charging up the divisions and the rankings. We have the same great expectations for our current Juniors. In the WMO Juniors Division, Michael Bronson showed his strong racquetball genes and won. He took the Championship over Zach D'Almeida, Caige Duryea and Braeden D'Almedeida, who also have pretty darn good bloodlines. All of these players should be fun to watch in the coming years.

The Men's 35+A Championship went to William Garrow over Chris Sailor in the finals.

Attica Mitchell defeated Bryan Galloway in the finals to win the 45+A Division.

Dan Deitrich and Rich Westerbrink faced off in the 45+B Finals with Dan taking first.

Ed Arias and Jim Therrell put on a great show in the 50+ Open Championship, with Ed finishing on top.

Art Murphy claimed another championship after beating Richard Bronson in the Finals of the 55+B Division.

The 25+C/D Championship went to Jeremy Brunan who defeated Doug Mol in the finals.

Leon Rivera showed a glimpse of thing to come by taking the 25+B Championship over Pat Trainor.

Dave Lund proved he is one of the best of the best again by winning the 60+ Open Championship and getting past Tom Sharum in the finals.

Scott Duryea defeated Paul Kramer in the championship of the A Division.

Two of the aforementioned Juniors squared off in the Final of the B Division with Mercedes Arias taking out Nathan Tucker.

Nathan came back and won the C championship by defeating Michael Brennan in the Finals.

Doug Mol won the D Division by defeating Jack Groot in the finals.

Brad Schopieray continued his rise through the ranks by defeating Jason Kenendy to win the Elite Championship.

Andrew Price also took another step up and beat Jim Bronson to win the Open Championship.

And now for the Pros. The draw of thirteen featured Andy Hawthorne, currently ranked # 10; Cliff Swain, the Greatest Player in the History of Racquetball; Brian Simpson, a veteran of the tour coming up from Indiana; and a full slate of players ready to take them on.

Early round action mostly went according to the seeding as Andrew Price defeated Jason Gorski, Shannon Kohl got past Steve Goedker in five tough games and Brandon Cortese eased past Matt Barbuscak. The two upsets featured Ryan Covell taking out Jim Bronson in three close games and Brad Schopieray taking out Ed Arias in four.

The Quarters also went in straight form as the Pros took the stage. Andy Hawthorne dispatched Andrew Price in three quick games and Cliff Swain sent young Brad packing in similar fashion. The kids have made great progress, but this is a whole different universe. Brian Simpson snuck past Brandon Cortese in a long five game match, but only after Brandon was injured diving for a ball. Shannon Kohl, the top-seeded local Pro managed to get past Ryan Covell, but it was a struggle every step of the way.

It's truly amazing to watch this level of racquetball, and how much difference there can be between the levels. In the semis, Shannon and Brian put up a great fight, several times taking a game to the brink, but in the end Andy and Cliff

2009 US OPEN IN MEMPHIS TENNESSEE

- Dan Mullin

The U.S. Open occurred earlier this year than in previous years, with play commencing in October versus its normal mid-November start. Just a few short weeks earlier, but it made a huge difference in the weather in Memphis, but not in the caliber of tournament play. Michigan saw a smaller contingent of players than normal, however, given the economy, it was still a great showing.

For racquetball players, tournaments are a wonderful experience. You get to play against your friends (or nemeses), have a great work out, eat some great food, etc. Of course, for tournaments, your level of intensity goes up from playing in leagues or on Saturday mornings. That same intensity goes up when you play at the States Singles Championships. If you are new or fairly new to going to a national event, it normally takes you five or six points just to get your legs to stop shaking.

This event is the equivalent of racquetball's Olympics! So how did Michigan players do? Twelve players made the trip to Tennessee to test their skills against the some of the best players in the world.

Young Matt Barbuscak lost in the round of sixteen in the tie-breaker, 11-7, in the Under 24B. In Men's B he won the first round, but lost in the round of 32.

Ron Griggs entered into A and 35+A. Ron had a rough time getting into the groove, losing in a tie-breaker in 35+A in the first round. Ron slipped past the first round of A, winning 11-10 in the tie-breaker, but did not have that much fortune in the next round.

Mark Candy jumped up to B and made an impressive run to the round of 16, finally losing in a tie-breaker. While still playing impressively, he lost in the tie-breaker in 45+A.

Lewis Forest and Tom Blakeslee both lost in the round of sixteen in tie-breakers in the 55+ division.

George Goudie played in an exceptionally large draw for 55+A, cruising through the first round, but was taken out in the round of 16 by the #1 seeded player. In the 55A+ division, he lost in the round of 16.

Sharon Huczek, normally our perennial gold medal winner did not have that extra step this year in the Women's 55/60+ division placing sixth.

Stanley Kurzman went to Memphis to play in the Men's 75+ division. That in of itself is impressive!

Mike Malcolm and Dan Mullin had poor showings in the B division, losing quickly; however, both had impressive runs in the 35+B division. Both advanced from the round of 32 to the semi-finals looking to set up an all Michigan finals, but both fell short of their goals. The actual game to determine third/fourth place has yet to take place, but will in the near future. Malcolm and Mullin also paired with each other for B doubles losing in the round of 16 to a couple of kids from Mexico.

Chuck Van Hoose made his annual trek but could not escape losses in the first round of 60+ and 55+B.

Leon Rivera made his first trip to Memphis not knowing what to expect. Leon started playing racquetball just a year ago and had little experience under his belt. When advised on where to go, he followed suit and dropped down a division from local tournaments. What he lacked in national tournament experience, he made up in running, stamina, and a big heart. Leon came away from his first national tournament experience with a gold medal in D and a gold medal in 35+C (11-10 in the tie-breaker!). Leon has taken ahold of racquetball and is quickly becoming a regular in tournaments and climbing up the ranks. Great job Leon!

Congratulations to all who represented Michigan at the US Open this year. If you have not been to Memphis, mark the date for 2010 on your calendar and plan to attend. The tournament is fantastic and the extra events superb.

LYNN HAHN INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME

RAM Hall of Fame inductee, Lynn Hahn was honored again this year as he has been inducted into the Muskegon Area Sports Hall of Fame. Mr. Hahn becomes the first racquetball player to be so honored in the 24 year history of the Muskegon Area Sports Hall of Fame.

The Sports Hall of Fame now has 96 individual members and eight sports team members. The Muskegon Hall of Fame considers hundreds of nominees yearly before naming a select group of inductees. The Muskegon Hall of Fame Board received a letter signed by a large number of Muskegon area racquetball players indicating if the board were to ever honor the sport of racquetball, Lynn Hahn should be the first inductee.

Mr. Hahn began playing racquetball in the early 1970s and continues to play today at the age of 78. He continues to hold his own against the younger players in the 70 and older division.

Mr. Hahn will be honored on June 5th with an induction ceremony to be held at the Holiday Inn-Muskegon Harbor. Congratulations to Lynn as a great ambassador for racquetball.

were just too much and each match ended in three entertaining games.

The Finals was a great battle, and one of the best Finals we've had. The first game went to Andy, (11-6), who was flying all over the court to make amazing gets. Cliff then turned up his drive serve and showed the fire of old to take the second game (11-2). Andy and Cliff traded 11-2 blowouts in the third and fourth games to set up a war in the fifth game. Incredible serve followed amazing get, followed tremendous shot time and time again. The crowd was on edge as each player had a shot to win at the end before Andy finally won the game 12-10 to take the match. This spectacular show had the crowd roaring their approval.

Thanks to all of our sponsors, Mark Neistat of TDS Metrocom, Jeff Grover of Greater Michigan Biomet, Steve Seely of Wells Fargo, Al Emmons of Sperry Van Ness, Bob Gravelyn of Rivertown Insurance Company, Al and Judy Kohl, Scott Crowley of Highland Group, Allan and Caryn Coyle of Alliance Service, Mike Malcolm, Roger Helmer Construction, Tom Blakeslee, Paula Spagnuolo and the Michigan Athletic Club, Charles Curtis, Jerry Spruitt of the Sean Inn Motel & Restaurant, Richard Hall, Lynn Hahn, Dennis Reid, David Lund, Bill Stough of Sustainable Research Group, Al Parent, Dave McCorry, Steve Echinaw and Buzz Carhart. We absolutely couldn't have put on this type of show without them.

Sound like a fun time? Only one way to enjoy it. Check the schedule and join us next year. Come see the Pros and make new friends and a make a memorable weekend for all. See you there.
