A.A.R.A. will be located here until the old athletic club in Old Colorado City is completed. This old Victorian house was recently renovated by owner Mr. Lloyd Wright.

NEW DIRECTIONS

BY LUKE ST. ONGE
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Having just returned from the International Racquet Sports Association's convention I would like to share some thoughts with you. The atmosphere of the convention (racquetball and tennis club owners) was a complete reversal of attitude from two years ago. It was upbeat and positive with the emphasis on national trends, physical fitness and professional management. One alarming trend was quite evident, however, and that was a real lack of emphasis on promoting the sport of racquetball. The red light went on when it became evident that the A.A.R.A. was the only entity present who was actively promoting the sport. There were exhibits showing how to convert a court to squash, volleyball, court tennis, court soccer, aerobics, tattleball, smack-it ball, and virtually every manner of appealing to the club owner to have instant success in converting his racquetball courts into a gold mine. This trend or fad has the overtones of the "grass is always greener on the other side" syndrome. I am the first one to admit and even support the "total fitness" concept as the wave of the future but there is an inherent danger if the pendulum swings too far. I caution all club owners now forced into this dilemma not to kill the "golden goose" racquetball which has made the "total club facility" a reality. There is and will continue to be a large, healthy, ever expanding racquetball market in this country and before you look for quick, easy short-term ways out of cash flow problems ask yourself: "If I put half the effort and resources devoted to this new project into racquetball promotion what would my results be?" Remember that if you ~~convert~~ convert to racquetball at age 10 and racquetball is his life-time sport until age 70 or more you will have built in cash flow for the next 60 years or more. Build a foundation; don't look for gimmicks to replace good management and hard work.

NYC Racquetball Promoted

The AARA, in cooperation with the court clubs of New York City and LITE beer from Miller, announced the formation of the LITE Beer NYC Championship Series. This tournament is designed to promote the sport of racquetball in NYC through the operation of a city-wide grassroots tournament. Qualifying tournaments would be run at the club level during the period December, 1982 — April, 1983, with the top 4 finishers in each division being invited to participate in the Borough and City Championships. All participants in the City Championships will receive a sweatsuit. As a bonus, all participants at all levels of the tournament will receive a membership in the AARA as part of their entry fee. Over 2,000 players are expected to play in this unique event. Contact your local court club for details.

For further information contact Allan Seitelman at (516) 261-3257.

AARA Now on U.S. Olympic Data Processing Center

The A.A.R.A. is now officially on stream with the United States Olympic Data Processing Center.

The Olympic Data Processing Center, under the direction of Mr. Ed Marten, services all the national governing bodies located in Colorado Springs with complete data processing needs.

In all, the System/38, via 32 terminals (5251 display stations and 5256 printers) performs duties for some 300,000 athletes, as well as a list of chores for the U.S.O.C. itself.

Under the direction of Kevin Ward, Assistant Director of Program Analysis, and Mary Jo Willis, Assistant Director of Computer Operations, final programming and services to the A.A.R.A. and its state affiliates will include cheshire labels for newsletters, monthly state membership print-outs by alpha as well as renewal labels on three-month expirations and one-month expirations. The A.A.R.A. is now equipped with an off-site terminal located in its office which allows 24 hour access to the system/38 for continuous updating of the membership file. In the past the A.A.R.A. was at the mercy of an independent computer service and the A.A.R.A. needs were fit in at the whim of the service center.

"We are just beginning to scratch the surface of what this system will offer us in the way of services to our state and regional associations. Future programming plans include moving the ranking system from Penn State to in-house as well as incorporating the financial information that we need on a daily basis. Eventually we can have our own word processing operation at our national headquarters at a very nominal cost," stated Executive Director Luke St. Onge. "When you are basically a service organization it's heaven to have the control in-house rather than depending on others to perform such an important function," he continued.

The U.S.O.C. is to be congratulated for its continuing emphasis not only on the Olympics themselves but the expanding services that the organization is providing to its national governing bodies. It's gratifying to be associated with true sports professionals dedicated to the preservation and expansion of amateur sports.

THE SHOE FOR FICKLE FEET.

Some feet are just impossible to satisfy.

You buy them shoes for tennis, and they start flirting with basketball. Or sneaking off at lunch for a quick game of racquetball.

It isn't fair. And if you're concerned they may get hurt, it isn't exactly cheap, either.

Or wasn't. Until we came out with the Challenge Court.

This shoe not only satisfies the most diverse, most demanding of appetites, it does so without compromise.

While originally designed for, and worn by, the top racquetball players in the country, the Challenge Court is now being enthusiastically run up and down the courts of the NBA by players the caliber of Norm Nixon.

In tennis, John McEnroe has found it sufficient to win the Transamerica Open Championship, the Australian Indoor Championships, the Grand Prix Tournament in Tokyo, as well as the Davis Cup.

One of the things that makes the Challenge Court such an outstanding performance shoe is something we call the extended ankle collar.

It works on the principle of biofeedback. And it does its most important work when the foot is in the air, headed for a painful landing, by sensing trouble and alerting the muscles in the lower leg to take corrective action.

And because the padded collar is lined with Spenco®, the Challenge Court is one of the most comfortable shoes on any court.

The bi-level hobnail cupsole provides excellent traction. And with a nylon mesh upper, the shoe is extremely lightweight. It even accepts custom orthotics.

So if you have a difficult time restricting your feet to a single sport, slip them into the Challenge Court. They'll be devoted.
