OLYMPIC FESTIVAL BOUND

The hometown teams of Tim Hansen/Sergio Gonzalez and Mary Lyons/Susan Morgan-Pfahler both qualified for the 1990 Olympic Festival by reaching the semi-finals of the Ektelon/US National Doubles Championships in Minneapolis.

Faced with tough teams throughout the draw, #2 seeded Hansen and Gonzalez were expected to face defending champions Brian Hawkes and Bill Sell in the final, but both top seeds were upset by powerful pair-ups in the semis — Hawkes and Sell by Tim Doyle/Egan Inoue, and Hansen/Gonzalez to Doug Ganim/Dan Obremski.

Tim and Sergio got a slow start against Ganim and Obremski with a first game loss of 15-6, then rallied to a 15-3 second game victory. It became a down-to-the-wire tiebreaker for Team Florida when, ahead 8-6, Tim dove for a forehand reverse pinch and rolled it out. The crowd went wild, Tim and Serg went wild, the next shot went wild and it was side out. The next five points went to Ganim, who buried three backhands and served two aces, one at match point. The last serve was called short, but Tim and Sergio overruled referee Otto Dietrich with a congratulatory shake of hands with their opponents.

Mary and Susan also started slow against Malia Bailey and Toni Bevelock in their semi-final, losing the first 15-9, then turning the tables in the second with a matching 15-9 score. In the third, Bailey and Bevelock inched into an early two point lead that lasted throughout the game. At 2-5, Mary laid down a "slow-good" overhand rollout for a point, but Toni replied with a backhand scoring drive that put them at match point. After two more side-outs and a point scored in each by Team Florida, a final backhand winner down the line by Bevelock ended the match at 11-5.

Hansen/Gonzalez and Lyons/Morgan-Pfahler followed up with third place wins in the open (over Hawkes/Sell and Paraiso/Whitmire, respectively), and Susan and Mary retained their Women's 30+ title with wins over US Team Coach Fran Davis and Peggy Ludwig in the semis, and Cindy Baxter and Diane Green in the final.

An exciting Men's 40+ win went to AARA President, Regional Director, FRA founder and tournament director (!) Van Dubolsky and partner Leo Marsocci. The two claimed a semi-final win over long-time champions Johnny Hennon and Ed Remen in straight games of 15-14, 15-12, then followed up with a slightly easier final match against Texans Bob Lindsey and Tom McKie, 15-9, 15-3. The lonestar team had its revenge against the sunshine state in the Men's 45+, where they disappointed defending champions Graig Shaak and Roger Wehrle in an 11-5 tiebreaker.

On the women's side, Kersten Hallander and Claudia McCarthy came out on top of the round-robin list in Women's 19+, and Jo Kenyon teamed with Rose Mooney of the AARA National Office staff to take the gold in Women's 55+.

WARREN AND WINTER TAKE SOUTHEAST BY STORM

Since winning a bronze medal in the Men's 19+ division at National Doubles last year in Baltimore, north Floridians Glenn Warren and Curtis Winter have steadily built a reputation for themselves as one of the most impressive lefty/righty open doubles teams in the southeast. Southpaw Warren, from the University of Florida/Gainesville, and Winter, the club pro at Jacksonville's ATA Beaches facility, combine textbook form, court-sense and speedy retrievals to overcome the most formidable opponents.

By way of proof, the two kicked off the "doubles season" by taking the FRA State Doubles title in August with an upset win over Olympic Festival gold medalists Sergio Gonzalez and Tim Hansen. Seeded fourth at States, Warren and Winter moved through two rounds to reach the finals, defeating Brent Huber/Gary Harrell in the quarters and Charlie Nichols/Jason Waggoner in the semis.

Glenn gets out of the way, Curtis gets ready to cover the pinch, and Tim waits his turn to hit the ball.

The two got off to a slow start in the final, losing the first game 15-5, then rallying in the second for a close 15-11 win. In the tiebreaker, Warren's wall-hugging drive serve kept Gonzalez on the defensive, while Winter gave the crowd an "airshow" by refusing to give up on any shot, no matter how well-executed. Admittedly, both Gonzalez and Hansen were at less than peak form after their triumphant return from the Olympic Festival, but the third game score of 11-9 was an indication of an exciting tiebreaker for both the players and spectators.

Following up in September, Warren and Winter moved on to regional competition and advanced past Georgia legend Davey Bledsoe and Brian Buckalew before defeating hometown opponents Brent Huber and Gary Harrell in two games of 15-11, 15-7 to take the Region Four Open Doubles championship.

For their regional win, Warren and Winter received the #3 seeding at National Doubles in Minneapolis and had hoped for an all-Florida final against #4 seeded Charlie Nichols and Jason Waggoner in the Men's 19+ division. Both Florida teams ran into trouble in the quarterfinals, with Glenn and Curtis losing a tiebreaker to eventual winners Rob McKinney and Todd Stead. Charlie and Jason had the same tough luck with Bruce Erickson and Jim Jeffers, losing in straight games of 15-12, 15-10.

Claudia McCarthy made a rare appearance at State Doubles, teamed with Jacksonville's Kersten Hallander in the Women's Open. Claudia's layoff from competition over the past several years (while she focused on her studies at the University of Florida/Gainesville) apparently had little effect on her game. She and Kersten took defending champions Mary Lyons and Susan Morgan-Pfahler to a tiebreaker before losing 11-7.

McCarthy and Hallander then took their show on the road to represent Team Florida at National Doubles in Minnesota, and brought home a gold medal in the Women's 19+ division. They also competed in Women's Open and defeated the team of Peggy Ludwig and Ektelon's Terry Graham before meeting Malia Bailey and Toni Bevelock in the quarterfinals for a 15-12, 15-2 loss.

AMERICAN AMATEUR RACQUETBALL ASSOCIATION

RANKING INFORMATION:

*All individuals marked with an asterisk within the skill divisions are no longer eligible to compete in that division, and must be placed in the next higher skill draw in Florida tournament play. This notation is made to help tournament directors eliminate sandbagging, and as an incentive to players to "move up" in ability by competing in the next skill level.

The "cut-off" levels are: "A" = 250 & up, "B" = 200 & up, "C" = 150 & up, "D" = 100 & up. Once a player has reached the maximum point designation in the listed skill divisions, he/she must play at the next higher level. For details on the "cut-off" list policy and procedures, please contact any Florida Racquetball Association Board Member.

Ranking positions are based upon total points earned by reaching the quarterfinals or higher at AARA/FRA sanctioned events over a constant twelve month period. Point awards are based upon the following schedule:

Event Level =	1	2	3	4	5	6
1st place	30	50	150	250	300	600
2nd place	20	30	100	150	200	400
3rd place	15	20	75	100	150	300
4th place	10	15	50	75	100	200
5-8 place	5	10	25	50	75	100

- Level 1 = Closed State Tournament
- Level 2 = Open Tournament
- Level 3 = State Championship
- Level 4 = Regional Championship
- Level 5 = National Invitational
- Level 6 = National Championship

Current rankings reflect those points earned by singles players over a constant 12-month period, up to and including the events which are either featured in this issue or appear in the "Tournament Results Around the State" section. So, if the results of a tournament you played in are listed anywhere in the FRA NEWS, your points have also been calculated here. Congratulations!

A DEDICATED YOUNG LADY

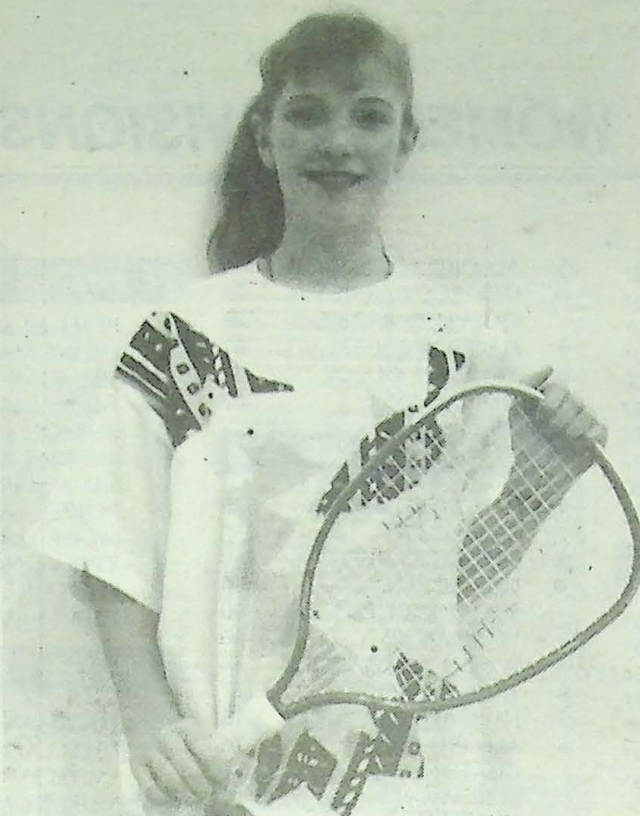

by Bob Hurst

Dedication to racquetball has paid off for 11 year old Kimberly O'Connor. In 1987 she joined the Power Court Players team in Panama City. After many near wins in tournament finals, she decided that if she was going to be a champion player, she would have to give up her beloved gymnastics and devote her entire after-school time to racquetball.

She became a Head sponsored player in 1988, and is coached by Eric Breese. She now puts in more time than any other team member, with a two-hour playing, practice and drill schedule completed five days a week. Through these efforts she took the Girl's 10 and under title in the 1989 State Singles Championships.

An "A-B" student in the sixth grade at Hiland Park Elementary, she participates in school dance and rhythm/percussion band, and is secretary for her student council. Off the court she enjoys reading and Nintendo.

"Kimmi" as she's know locally, has the immediate goals of capturing the Regional, National and World titles this year. Her long-term dream is to be top-ranked women's open player by her 16th birthday!

WELLNESS AND YOU

By Linda Diamond

In the early part of this century, infectious diseases were the number one killers in the United States. Today, lifestyle epidemics like heart disease, cancer, stroke and accidents have taken the lead. Called "diseases of choice," these fatal illnesses are largely preventable, given that we are each responsible for our own lifestyles.

At least 90% of all fatal and near-fatal episodes of premature stroke and heart attack are preventable. This means that, by the very way you live your life, you greatly determine not only the length of that life, but also its quality. We often believe that our habits don't matter all that much, but they do!

Many people think of "health" as the absence of sickness, yet such a condition says nothing about how "well" you are. Basically, "wellness is a conscious and deliberate approach to an advanced state of physical and psychological/spiritual health." It is also a way of life that each individual is totally responsible for throughout his or her existence.

You can easily be free of illness and still not have wellness. Wellness means striving to maximize your potential in life, minimize your chances of becoming ill and vastly increasing your prospects for total well-being. In real terms, good health is the outcome of the wellness lifestyle.

There is much more to wellness than just being fit. Five common dimensions of wellness are self-responsibility, nutritional awareness, stress awareness and management, physical fitness and environmental sensitivity. Of these, self responsibility is by far the most important factor.

Only you are responsible for shaping your maximum potential in life. Only you are responsible for the quality of your existence. The universe does not care what happens to you. With a handful of exceptions, the entire human race of 4.5 billion people does not care either. So it pays to care completely on your own. Wherever you are, whatever your circumstances, take an active part in caring for your own well-being.

newsletter, and is the AARA Media/Public Relations Director as well. We need information that recognizes all racquetball activities, not just our sanctioned tournaments.

2. Tim Hansen, Boynton Beach. Tim's allegiance to the outdoor game in Palm Beach County has blossomed into what will probably be the largest sanctioned outdoor tournament in Florida's history. It is great to see one of our strongest, most visible tournament players put his knowledge and enthusiasm to work in an event especially designed to attract new players at the high school level.

3. Mary Lyons, Jacksonville. Special thanks to Mary for her work in keeping the big tournaments coming. Her success rate at RacquetPower events speaks for itself. She also coaches and advises a large junior team at the club, and offers such promotions as the recent Lynn Adams camp. As we see more and more state and regional events at RacquetPower, be sure to thank Mary. It is a lot of work and she makes it happen. Continued best wishes to Mary and Susan Morgan-Pfahler as they compete in WPRA events.

4. Joe Glavan, Plant City. Joe recently turned 70, but continues to play tournaments and teach the game at American Fitness in Brandon. He plans to pursue racquetball activities at a retirement residence in Ocala as a volunteer. If you want information about Golden Masters in Florida, please give Joe your support.

5. A very special thanks to the entire racquetball community in Bradenton, where an obviously disruptive situation continues to undergo a successful recovery. Specific thanks to Allan Engel, Jimmy Smith, Chris Conway, Britt Engel, and Susan Cox for their devotion and support of all the players. Thanks also to supportive parents and advisors, and congratulations to all involved in rising to a very difficult situation. Thanks also to Jerry Bowes of Westbay Athletic Club for his support of our sport in Bradenton. Under his direction, I expect a major resurgence of racquetball in Manatee County.

6. Judi Schmidt and Helen Quinn of "National Racquetball" magazine, Dunedin. Thanks to new editor Judi, and managing editor, Helen, for continuing to produce a great publication in the face of intense advertising competition. I challenge every FRA member to support this Florida institution, National Racquetball, by purchasing a subscription today for yourself and another one for a friend as a gift any racquetball player needs.

Get your racquet ready and watch the ball!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

by Gene Owen

Thank you again to all who have contacted myself or other board members about specific racquetball projects. Volunteer support is the backbone of amateur sports in Florida — and racquetball is no exception. Please continue to be ambassadors of our sport to make it grow so as to attract media attention and corporate support.

Whenever you, your friends or acquaintances from your city participate in an event that deserves recognition, it is your duty and responsibility to contact local newspapers, television and radio stations to request coverage that shows the nonracquetball public that we exist. I ask that you do this on the local level, while items of state and national interest should be directed to Linda Mojer in Orlando. Linda is not only past-President of the FRA, but she remains the editor of this

Special thank-you's go to some of our members this month, at the risk of leaving some out (just call me, and we will print your good works in the next issue):

1. Ken Arrowsmith, Kevin Griffin, John Armatas, and especially Paul Gorman at the Tampa and Hillsborough County YMCAs. These employees and volunteers are the people behind very active, successful new programs at the YMCA which follow the completion of brand new courts at three Tampa locations! Longtime Tampa sports volunteer "Killer" Gorman has appeared on local TV and in newspapers, promoting his classes, leagues, challenges and tournaments. By the time you read this, you may have played in the tournament scheduled at the Northwest YMCA organized and operated by Ken Arrowsmith. Program directors at other YMCAs that have courts but no activity should take notice and contact the Tampa facilities for details.

WORLD SENIOR RACQUETBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS

by Jo Kenyon

The 1989 World Senior Racquetball Championships were held at the Academy Court Club in Albuquerque, New Mexico, September 6-9. Of the 320 participants representing Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Cuba, Germany, Ireland, Mexico, Norway, Panama, Puerto Rico and the US, 68 (21%) were women. The excellent turnout included players from 35 states who self-officiated their own matches in a roundrobin format.

There were over 1500 matches played, running from 7:30 AM until well after midnight each day. In most divisions, three matches (of 3 games to 11) were played back to back Wednesday through Friday. Total points were tallied for each player, plus a point for each game won, and seven bonus points for each match won. The top four players in each age division were then placed in a single elimination (best of 3 to 15), Championship medal round played on Saturday.

Medals were awarded to the top four finishers in divisions with eight or more participants, with no playoffs for third place (both 3rd and 4th received a bronze). Medals were awarded at a banquet on Saturday night, followed by a raffle for the players and an auction to benefit the US National Racquetball Team. An enthusiastic crowd raised approximately $4500.00 for the team, and each player was given a beautiful tournament jacket for participating in the event.

Three Florida women won Senior World titles in their respective age divisions. Eileen Tuckman of Delray Beach defeated Gail Woods of Louisiana to win the Women's 35+ division. Agatha Falso of Boca Raton took the win from Terry Ann Rogers of California in the Women's 40+ division, and Jo Kenyon came out on top in the Women's 55+ with a defeat over Cleata Ching of Pennsylvania. Jeff Leon of Delray Beach, representing Panama, lost a hardfought tiebreaker to Ed Remen of Virginia to bring home a silver medal in the Men's 45+. Other Florida players included Sue Giliberti (W40), Harry Weiman (M45), Don Alt (M55), Bill Krautheim (M60) and Nick Sans (M65).

PLAYER PHOTO-PROFILE

LORETTA BURSON — A surprise force in the Women's A and 30+ draws in the Sunshine State Games this year, Loretta has played outdoors for many years and recently switched to indoor play. She seldom enters tournaments, and it had been a full three years since her last appearance on the Florida circuit. Originally from the Daytona Beach area, the Armed Forces have kept her on the move, but her skills have remained on the upswing. At the Sunshine State Games, she placed second in the Women's 30+ division and won the A's.

FITNEWS by Linda Olyer

FITNEWS is a new column designed just for you . . . the RACQUETBALL player! Only a few short years ago, racquetball players participated in the sport as a fun way to get fit. Since then, times and attitudes have changed and the racquetball player has evolved. Today, players utilize a wide range of other training tools in order to be a fit ATHLETE who excels in his or her racquetball game!

Fitness can be a very elusive goal. Physical fitness is defined as "the ability to carry out daily tasks with vigor and alertness, without undue fatigue, and with ample energy to enjoy leisure-time pursuits and to meet unusual situations and unforeseen emergencies." Fitness is more than merely "not being sick." It is a state of well-being that breeds confidence, poise, posture, physical ability and an exhilarating feeling of buoyancy.

Fitness has three main components: cardiovascular fitness, strength and flexibility. In upcoming FITNEWS columns, look for ways to help improve your level of fitness and, thus, improve your game! Also in FITNEWS: How Florida's top players keep a "fitness edge" in their game!

FRA NEWSflash

First, the bad news. As many of us are already aware, Bradenton racquetball coach Pat Powers was arrested on a series of sexual misconduct charges on September 15th. Additional charges were filed on October 6th, following an investigation by the Manatee County Sheriff's office. To date, Powers remains in custody, with bail set at $133,152.

The good news. Despite the adverse publicity of this unfortunate incident, many of Power's former students continue to compete on the tournament circuit. The support, understanding, concern and goodwill of Florida players during this difficult time is what makes the racquetball community one to be proud of.

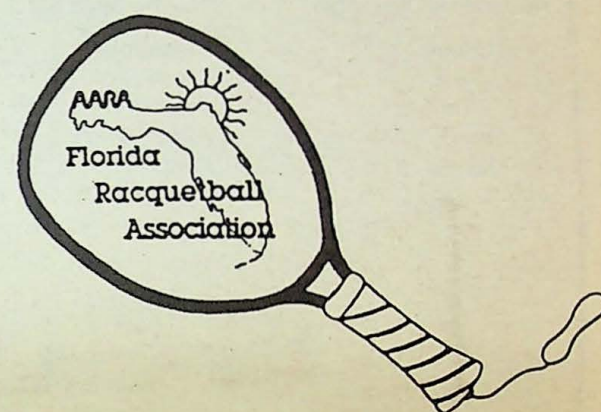

Point levels go up. The FRA Board voted a slight increase in the point levels for skill division competition at its last meeting at State Doubles. The new "maximums" are: A=250 & up, B=200 & up, C=150 & up, D=100 & up. This means that once you reach these "rounded-up" levels, you must compete in the next higher skill division. The limits represent a potential combination of wins that equate to an exceptional showing at a Level-3 (state) or Level-4 (regional) event, or a string of Level-2 (local) wins. In other words, stop sandbagging and move up once you reach the top of the heap!

PARI comes to town. The Professional Association of Racquetball Instructors (PARI) will conduct a clinic at the Sarasota Family YMCA on December 2-3. The national program to certify instructors has enjoyed a great deal of success, but the clinics are hosted in Florida only occasionally. For more information about the program and how to sign up, contact Barbara Simmons at 813/957-0770.

Fund-Raiser. At State Doubles, Penn Athletic Products Company donated a "bag of balls" as a fundraiser for the US National Team. The balls were sold for $1.00 each and the biggest sale went to Tim Hansen, who selected 100 of the best ones. A total of $300.00 was collected, thanks to Penn (and Tim)!

Author, Author! The FRA NEWS welcomes articles by two new authors this month, Linda Olyer of Jacksonville and Linda Diamond of Orlando. Both women are professionals in the health and fitness field and have taken shared their viewpoints this month, and come to remarkably similar conclusions about the immense value of overall "wellness" to the racquetball athlete. Lynne Balthazor of Ft. Lauderdale has also provided readers with a "miniprofile" of an east coast up-and-comer. Any more Linda's (or variations thereof) who would like to add to our pages?

Attention National Racquetball Subscribers! Sorry, but the special subscription rates for new AARA members are no longer in effect. To subscribe to National Racquetball, you'll need to place your order by filling out a subscription card from the magazine. Tournament directors should not accept additional monies for subscriptions with AARA membership forms — effective immediately.
