Al Wetherill Sportsperson Award

Al was a frequent participant at the World Senior Championships in the early years. His passing prompted good friend, fellow Oklahoman Roy Rudichuk, to establish an award in Al's honor. The following elements: playing fair, enjoyment of the game, respect for the opponent and all principals involved, were Al's code. The first winner was Jorge Maya (TX) in 1988. The 2024 winner is Jay Heilman (TX). Thirty-nine others wear the Wetherill cap! Past recipients in this year's event include: Kay McCarthy, Jose Guzman, Mildred Gwinn, Nidia Funes, Cindy Tilbury, Sandy Rios, Glenn Martineau, Arthur Schmeiser, and Jay Heilman.

This award is presented annually at the Awards Banquet/Dinner. The recipient must be a player and may not be part of the LOC. Votes will be tabulated at the Saturday night event at the Buffalo Hall (listed on the national historic register).

WELCOME TO THE IRF WORLD SENIOR RACQUETBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Greetings to everyone participating in the 40th Frank Hotels IRF World Senior Racquetball Championships, where men and women representing countries in the Americas, Asia, Africa, and Europe, are competing in age divisions 30+ to 80+.

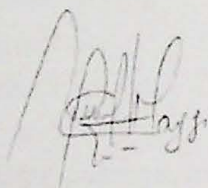

Founded by the late Ralph Waddington and Gary Mazaroff, the IRF World Senior Racquetball Championships began in 1985 and has become one of the longest-running major events in our sport. Many thanks to Gary and to Paula Sperling and their team of volunteers for planning and hosting this tournament.

We thank the City of Las Vegas, New Mexico, for their partnership and hospitality, and we are so appreciative of Mark Frank and Frank Hotels for their continuing backing of this event and for their sustained support of Racquetball.

I have just returned home to Argentina from Chengdu, China, where top athletes from 16 countries competed in singles and mixed doubles in the IWGA World Games. Having again experienced the pride of seeing Racquetball displayed on the world stage, I offer my most sincere gratitude to all of you who are competing in these World Senior Racquetball Championships and, through your participation, are helping to promote this great sport worldwide.

Again, thank you, and have fun together in Las Vegas!

Sincerely,

Osvaldo Maggi
President
International Racquetball Federation

AUGUST 2025

DEAR PARTICIPANTS, SPECTATORS AND SPONSORS;

Welcome, once again, to the beautiful Land of Enchantment. We are back in Las Vegas, NM (the original Las Vegas, by the way!). A fantastic part of the state, take the time to explore the city. It is within easy driving distance of places that you may have heard of, Santa Fe, Taos, Angel Fire. I hope you take the time to explore this part of northern New Mexico. I recommend that if you love beautiful mountains head back toward Santa Fe and take the Pecos exit and drive north up Hwy 63, it is a great drive and you will see the Pecos Wilderness in the distance. If you have time after the tournament, take the time to take this drive, I will be happy to answer any questions about this great trek!

The WSRC would like to express our appreciation to the citizens of Las Vegas as they support this event whole heartedly. A special thanks to Abe Montoya Recreation Center, NM Highlands University, and the United World College of the American West for allowing us to use their court facilities.

Remember you are playing at altitude, so stay hydrated. Las Vegas is at a higher altitude than Albuquerque! Enjoy your stay in New Mexico; and do not forget to take in the beautiful sunrises and sunsets. THANKS AGAIN FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION.

See you on the courts;

PAULA SPERLING
WSRC

A Message from the Executive Director

A Warm Welcome to All...

In late June my landlords informed me they had sold the building in which my office sits. No surprise; more a shock due to timing. The last thing on my mind was a MOVE. It has been thirty-two years that my professional endeavors have piggybacked with the New Mexico Racquetball Association clearinghouse at this location. A plethora of documents, equipment, files, papers, and supplies stared me in the face. Joe & Julie gave me until the end of August to relocate. I said I would vacate by the end of July, as most of my August energy is geared toward the organization and operation of the World Seniors. I was successful!

Al Stewart, in the song, Time Passages (1978) writes, 'Years go falling in the fading light.' Many stories written and spoken, all with an upside. The opportunity to clean out my office and its contents merged with reflection and projection; time for sorting items and cautiously moving them into trash bins, time for gifting some to others, and time for stockpiling most into a storage facility. Some had not been touched for decades.

World Senior Racquetball has a long history. This week we embark on the 40th edition. New Mexico Racquetball is approaching year fifty. We have operated well over five hundred tournaments; offered classes, clinics, courses for those under ten to those over ninety. Events have included most court sports along with bowling, golf, and distance running. Local, state, regional, national, and international themes have been part of the equation. Pros have come to share their skills; racquetball, handball, paddleball, and squash racquets.

Our current mission is the development and operation of a Racquetball Library and Museum at a location in New Mexico. The odds-on favorite is Las Vegas. How fitting! We have had a long relationship with the City; its Recreation Center and New Mexico Highlands University. Local businesses and organizations have lent support; helping us elevate the annual Meadow City tourney to an IRT stop and offering the infrastructure to host the IRF World Seniors. We welcome the world to this hidden gem, to share history and help grow our racquetball legacy.

Gary
