Waypoint is excited to announce a new church project in Blacksburg, VA to launch in early 2026.

Jacob McKlarney is a West Virginia and Liberty University native graduate. He has been serving for the past 7 years at Waypoint partner, Chilhowie Christian Church, a strong church of 400 about 90 minutes west of Blacksburg.

Jacob and his wife, Haileah, completed Waypoint's Church Planting Assessment Center in October 2023. In September, Jacob began his formal church plant training as part of the Passion for Planting distance residency cohort. Waypoint partners with Passion for Planting to provide assessment, training, and project management for most church planting projects.

Blacksburg, a vibrant university town of 45,000, is notably the home of Virginia Tech. We anticipate "Hokie Nation" alumni and fans of the university from around the region will be especially interested in this church planting project.

The Chilhowie Church will serve as the "Sending" church. Other churches in the region are invited to financially support the project to help it launch strong.

The Blacksburg project will be Waypoint Church Plant #163. Welcome, Jacob and Haileah, to the Waypoint Church Planting family!

A NEW CHURCH FOR BLACKSBURG, VA!

CHUR

Recently, the few remaining leaders at First Christian Church, located 7 blocks away, made the surprising decision to donate their 4.4 million dollar facility to Common Ground Church rather than selling the property to be acquired by real estate developers. They wanted to leave a legacy ensuring a downtown gospel presence for generations to come.

First Christian, a long-time Disciples of Christ congregation, was originally launched in the early 1800s by a group of 30 believers who broke away from nearby Fredericksburg Baptist Church after espousing the teachings of a prominent young preacher, Alexander Campbell. The Bible he preached from is still on display at the church.

After being a portable church for more than two decades, Common Ground will now enjoy its own 20,000-square-foot facility with a 350-seat auditorium and 17 classrooms to house their 75+ children each Sunday. Their first public worship services in their new facility will be on February 9th.

Common Ground recently hosted more than 400 people for their final Christmas Eve services at the Old Silk Mill and average about 250 in worship on Sundays. They were pleased to celebrate 12 baptisms in 2024.

If the time comes when your church might be nearing the end of its natural life cycle, consider leaving a lasting legacy, like First Christian Church, to ensure a gospel presence in your community for generations to come.

ICOM RETURNS TO RICHMOND!

We're excited to announce the International Conference on Missions is returning to the Waypoint region in November 2027!

Waypoint first hosted ICOM at the Convention Center in downtown Richmond in 2015 and again in 2021. Nearly 4,000 attended in 2021, the first conference for many following the COVID-19 pandemic. More than 7,000 attended this past year's conference in Lexington, KY.

ICOM recently announced its return to Richmond in November 2027. ICOM is one of the best things going for our family of churches. Special programming for children, teens, and college students makes this a conference for any "Great Commission" believer.

The main hall features 500 exhibitors displaying the impact their organizations are making for the Kingdom around the country and around the globe. Dozens of workshops are held on Friday and Saturday afternoons for church leaders of all kinds: elders, ministers, missions leaders, and more.

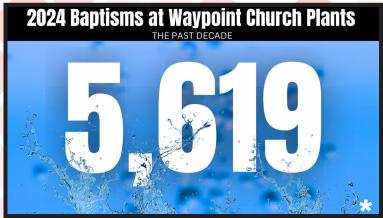

At previous conferences, Waypoint invited churches to give to a special international church-planting initiative. More than half a million dollars was contributed to plant dozens of churches around the globe. A similar initiative will soon be announced for the conference in 2027.

921 RECORD-SETTING YEAR FOR WAYPOINT CHURCH PLANTS

This past year, the collective average weekly worship attendance of our church plants Surpassed 10,000 for the first time, growing to 11,060, another all-time record! As a group, these church plants grew by nearly 1500 people per week compared to a year ago, up 15%.

More importantly, Waypoint church plants celebrated 921 baptisms in 2024, another all-time record. This collection of faith decisions easily eclipsed last year's high-water mark of 710 baptisms. This number is an impressive increase of 30% from last year's record.

There's no better way to invest your evangelism dollars in America than through the ministry of starting new churches!
