
PROFILE

Adella Li began piano studies at 6 under Professor Sun Yun(上音孙韵教授) at the Shanghai Conservatory of Music. At 10, she received a Grade Eight Distinction award and went to Australia to continue her music education with Professor Margaret Hair at the Sydney Conservatorium High School of Music.

She won many awards in Ryde and Greater Sydney Eisteddfods and participated in the Sydney International KAWAI Piano

Masterclass Festival with professors Robert McDonald and John Perry in 2017 and 2019. Adella graduated in 2020 from the Sydney Conservatorium with top marks in piano performance. She won the Conservatorium Concerto Competition and made her solo debut with the Penrith Symphony Orchestra in 2022, conducted by Dr. Paul Terracini.

Now, Adella is pursuing a Bachelor of Music Performance under Professor John Perry at The Glenn Gould School in Canada, thanks to the Liliane Szenteleky-de Kresz full scholarship.

Adella Li

Musician, Solo Pianist

Adella Li is currently a full-time student pursuing a Bachelor of Music Performance under Professor John Perry at The Glenn Gould School in Canada, thanks to the prestigious Liliane Szenteleky-de Kresz full scholarship she was awarded. Alongside her studies, Adella has accumulated over 5 years of extensive teaching experience. She serves as a guest lecturer at Delicato Music Academy, where she imparts her passion for music and shares her knowledge and expertise with students, particularly in Online Music Theory Lessons.