Accountable Reimbursement Policy

Whereas Treasury Regulations 1.162-17 and 1.274-5(e) provide that an employee "need not report on his tax return" expenses paid or incurred by him/her solely for the benefit of his/her employer for which he/she is required to account and does account to the employer and which are charged directly or indirectly to the employer; and

Whereas Treasury Regulation 1.274-5(e) further provides that "an adequate accounting means the submission to the employer of a reimbursement form (statement of expense) or similar record maintained by the employee in which the information as to each element of expenditure (amount, time and place, business purpose, and business relationship) is recorded at or near the time of the expenditure, together with supporting documentary evidence, in a manner which conforms to the 'adequate records' requirements" set forth in the regulation; and

Whereas this organization desires to establish a reimbursement policy pursuant to Treasury Regulations 1.162-17 and 1.274-5(e); therefore be it Resolved, that This organization hereby adopts a reimbursement policy pursuant to IRC Section. 62(c), IRC Section 274 and Treasury Regulations 1.162-17 and 1.274-5(e), upon the following terms and conditions:

The President, or any person now or hereafter employed by this organization shall be reimbursed for any ordinary and necessary business and professional expense incurred on behalf of the organization, if the following conditions are satisfied:

1. The expenses are reasonable in amount;
2. The person incurring the expense documents the amount, time and place, business purpose, and business relationship of each such expense with the same kinds of documentary evidence as would be required to support a deduction of the expense on the person's federal income tax return; and
3. The person documents such expenses by providing the organization treasurer with an accounting of such expenses no less frequently than monthly. In no event will an expense be reimbursed if substantiated more than sixty (60) days after the expense is paid or incurred by a pastor, associate in ministry or employee.

The organization shall not include on a President's or other employee's Form W2 the amount of any business or professional expense properly substantiated and reimbursed according to the preceding paragraph, and these persons should not report the amount of and such reimbursement on his or her Form 1040.

Any organization reimbursement that exceeds the amount of business or professional expenses properly accounted for pursuant to this reimbursement policy must be returned to the organization within 120 days after the associated expenses are paid or incurred and shall not be retained by the President, associate or employee.

If, for any reason, the organization's reimbursements are less than the amount of business and professional expenses properly substantiated by a President or other employee, the organization will report no part of the reimbursements on the employee's W2, and the President or employee may deduct the unreimbursed expenses as allowed by law.

Under no circumstances will the organization reimburse a President or other employee for business or professional expenses incurred on behalf of the organization that are not properly substantiated according to this policy. Organization and staff understand that this requirement is necessary to prevent our reimbursement plan from being classified as a "non-accountable" plan. All receipts and other documentary evidence used by a President or other employee to substantiate the business nature and amount of business expenses incurred on behalf of the organization shall be retained by the organization. The President or employee may, at his or her election, make copies of such evidence.

The organization reserves the right to deny a reimbursement request for the following reasons:

1. The individual requesting the reimbursement incurred an unauthorized expenditure;
2. The individual does not submit the request within 60 days of incurring the expenditure; or
3. The organization's budget cannot support the reimbursement.

In the case where the organization denies a reimbursement request, a written explanation shall be given to the individual stating one of the three items described above.

Benevolence Policy

This church, in exercise of its religious and charitable purposes, has established a benevolence fund to assist persons who are truly in need. The church welcomes contributions to the fund from anyone wishing to contribute to a worthy cause.

The administration of the benevolence fund, including all disbursements made to fully-qualified individuals, is subject to the exclusive control and the discretion of the benevolence committee or other designated body of this church. The benevolence committee will consider recommendations from anyone on how best to disburse funds, but is not bound in any way to honor any recommendation.

Contributors to the fund will not be permitted to recover a contribution for the reason that the committee did not honor a recommendation made by the contributor. This is a permanent and ongoing fund of the church that is made available to all individuals of the general public.

The Scriptures teach us in Gal 2:10 that we should remember the poor. Additionally, Gal 6:2 teaches us that we should bear one another's burdens. If for any reason the church, by vote of the board of directors including the pastor's approval, finds it necessary to close the fund at any time in the future, all of the funds contained therein shall be transferred to the general budget of the church.

Conflict of Interest Policy

Article I

Purpose

The purpose of the Conflict of Interest Policy is to protect this tax-exempt organization's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer or director of the Organization or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Article II

Definitions

Interested Person

Any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with governing board delegated powers, who has a direct or indirect financial interest, as defined below, is an interested person.

Financial Interest

A person has a financial interest if the person has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:

1. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Organization has a transaction or arrangement,
2. Compensation arrangement with the Organization or with any entity or individual with which the Organization has a transaction or arrangement, or
3. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Organization is negotiating a transaction or arrangement.
4. Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.
5. A financial interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. Under Article III, Section 2, a person who has a financial interest may have a conflict of interest only if the appropriate governing board or committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

Article III

Procedures

Duty to Disclose

In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors and members of committees with governing board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists:

After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest:

An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.

The chairperson of the governing board or committee shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy

If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Article IV

Records of Proceedings

The minutes of the governing board and all committees with board delegated powers shall contain:

1. The names of the persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a financial interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the financial interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the governing board's or committee's decision as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.

2. The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

Article V

Compensation

A voting member of the governing board who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

A voting member of any committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Organization for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

2. Has read and understands the policy,
3. Has agreed to comply with the policy, and
4. Understands the Organization is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.

Article VII

Periodic Reviews

To ensure the Organization operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax exempt status, periodic reviews shall be conducted. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

1. Whether compensation arrangements and benefits are reasonable, based on competent survey information and the result of arm's length bargaining.

2. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the Organization's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

Article VIII

Use of Outside Experts

When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for in Article VII, the Organization may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used, their use shall not relieve the governing board of its responsibility for ensuring periodic reviews are conducted.

Donated Property Policy

In the event that the church receives a donation of personal property that does not have a useful church function, the board of directors will meet at a regularly called board meeting and decide how to put the property to use or dispose thereof. The church will follow the procedures outlined below:

1. We will first attempt to find an applicable use of the property.
2. The property will be evaluated and an estimated value will be established that is as close to the fair market value of that item. An attempt to sell the property at that price will be made. The monies raised from the sale of the item shall be used solely for church purposes.
3. If efforts to sell the property fail, then it shall be auctioned off on the church property to the highest bidder. At all times the funds from the sale of the item shall be used solely for church purposes.

The organization may accept gifts of real estate, including houses, condominiums, commercial properties, farmland, rental property and undeveloped land, after a thorough review of the following factors:

1. The usefulness of the property for church purposes
2. The marketability of the property
3. The existence of restrictions, reservations, easements, and/or other limitations
4. The existence of encumbrances, such as mortgages and mechanics liens
5. Carrying costs, such as property owner's association dues, taxes, insurance, and other maintenance expenses, and
6. Fair market value in relation to the costs and limits listed above as determined by a qualified appraisal conducted in accordance with IRS standards

Prior to the acceptance of any parcel of real property, an assessment of the potential environmental risks may be conducted. This assessment may include the following:

1. An inquiry of the present owner regarding his, her or its knowledge of the history of the property
2. A title search to determine who the prior owners might have been
3. A consultation with federal, state, and local environmental agencies to find out whether the property has any history of hazardous waste contamination: and
4. A visual inspection of the property for any evidence of environmental hazards

An environmental audit conducted by a professional service also may be required. The decision to accept gifts of real estate requires approval by the Board of Directors.

The organization reserves the right to require that the donor or the donor's personal representative pay the cost, including professional fees, of any review or investigation described above as a condition of considering acceptance of the property in question.

Indemnification Policy

The corporation shall, to the extent legally permissible, indemnify each person who may serve or who has served at any time as an officer, director, or employee of the corporation against all expenses and liabilities, including, without limitation, counsel fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes, penalties and settlement payments, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon such person in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding in which he or she may become involved by reason of his or her service in such capacity; provided that no indemnification shall be provided for any such person with respect to any matter as to which he or she shall have been finally adjudicated in any proceeding not to have acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the corporation; and further provided that any compromise or settlement payment shall be approved by a majority vote of a quorum of directors who are not at that time parties to the proceeding.
