Sermon Outline

Introduction: The Bible contains many prophecies of the coming of a Savior (Messiah) to save a sin sick World. Proposition: One of God's greatest desires and purposes for His people is for them to be with Him in Glory to praise, honor and worship Him. Interrogative sentence: How can we be with Him if we are sinners? Transitional sentence: There are two phases or stages of the Kingdom of God and they have been in existence since the beginning of time or has been fully functional before the foundations of the earth have been laid.	Title: "A Savior Is Born"
Proposition: One of God's greatest desires and purposes for His people is for them to be with Him in Glory to praise, honor and worship Him. Interrogative sentence: How can we be with Him if we are sinners? Transitional sentence: There are two phases or stages of the Kingdom of God and they have been in existence since the beginning of time or has been fully functional before the foundations of the earth have been laid. I. First main division: It is a literal physical kingdom. (Planets, stars, animal, birds, plants, etc.) 1. First subdivision: The earth is Lord's and the fullness thereof. (I Corinthians 10:20) (1) Kingdom is a composite word made up of King and Dominion. (2) Kingdom refers to a realm or region governed by a king: the spiritual realm of God. Discussion The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	Text: Luke 2:4-20
Proposition: One of God's greatest desires and purposes for His people is for them to be with Him in Glory to praise, honor and worship Him. Interrogative sentence: How can we be with Him if we are sinners? Transitional sentence: There are two phases or stages of the Kingdom of God and they have been in existence since the beginning of time or has been fully functional before the foundations of the earth have been laid. I. First main division: It is a literal physical kingdom. (Planets, stars, animal, birds, plants, etc.) 1. First subdivision: The earth is Lord's and the fullness thereof. (I Corinthians 10:20) (1) Kingdom is a composite word made up of King and Dominion. (2) Kingdom refers to a realm or region governed by a king: the spiritual realm of God. Discussion The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"
Interrogative sentence: How can we be with Him if we are sinners? Transitional sentence: There are two phases or stages of the Kingdom of God and they have been in existence since the beginning of time or has been fully functional before the foundations of the earth have been laid. I. First main division: It is a literal physical kingdom. (Planets, stars, animal, birds, plants, etc.) 1. First subdivision: The earth is Lord's and the fullness thereof. (I Corinthians 10:20) (1) Kingdom is a composite word made up of King and Dominion. (2) Kingdom refers to a realm or region governed by a king; the spiritual realm of God. Discussion The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	Introduction: The Bible contains many prophecies of the coming of a Savior (Messiah) to save a sin sick World.
Interrogative sentence: How can we be with Him if we are sinners? Transitional sentence: There are two phases or stages of the Kingdom of God and they have been in existence since the beginning of time or has been fully functional before the foundations of the earth have been laid. I. First main division: It is a literal physical kingdom. (Planets, stars, animal, birds, plants, etc.) 1. First subdivision: The earth is Lord's and the fullness thereof. (I Corinthians 10:20) (1) Kingdom is a composite word made up of King and Dominion. (2) Kingdom refers to a realm or region governed by a king; the spiritual realm of God. Discussion The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"
Interrogative sentence: How can we be with Him if we are sinners? Transitional sentence: There are two phases or stages of the Kingdom of God and they have been in existence since the beginning of time or has been fully functional before the foundations of the earth have been laid. I. First main division: It is a literal physical kingdom. (Planets, stars, animal, birds, plants, etc.) 1. First subdivision: The earth is Lord's and the fullness thereof. (I Corinthians 10:20) (1) Kingdom is a composite word made up of King and Dominion. (2) Kingdom refers to a realm or region governed by a king: the spiritual realm of God. Discussion The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	Proposition: One of God's greatest desires and purposes for His people is for them to be with Him in Glory to
Transitional sentence: There are two phases or stages of the Kingdom of God and they have been in existence since the beginning of time or has been fully functional before the foundations of the earth have been laid. I. First main division: It is a literal physical kingdom. (Planets, stars, animal, birds, plants, etc.) 1. First subdivision: The earth is Lord's and the fullness thereof. (I Corinthians 10:20) (1) Kingdom is a composite word made up of King and Dominion. (2) Kingdom refers to a realm or region governed by a king; the spiritual realm of God. Discussion The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	praise, honor and worship Him.
I. First main division: It is a literal physical kingdom. (Planets, stars, animal, birds, plants, etc.) 1. First subdivision: The earth is Lord's and the fullness thereof. (I Corinthians 10:20) (1) Kingdom is a composite word made up of King and Dominion. (2) Kingdom refers to a realm or region governed by a king; the spiritual realm of God. Discussion The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	Interrogative sentence: How can we be with Him if we are sinners?
1. First main division: It is a literal physical kingdom. (Planets, stars, animal, birds, plants, etc.) 1. First subdivision: The earth is Lord's and the fullness thereof. (I Corinthians 10:20) (1) Kingdom is a composite word made up of King and Dominion. (2) Kingdom refers to a realm or region governed by a king; the spiritual realm of God. Discussion The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	Transitional sentence: There are two phases or stages of the Kingdom of God and they have been in existence
1. First subdivision: The earth is Lord's and the fullness thereof. (I Corinthians 10:20) (1) Kingdom is a composite word made up of King and Dominion. (2) Kingdom refers to a realm or region governed by a king; the spiritual realm of God. Discussion The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	since the beginning of time or has been fully functional before the foundations of the earth have been laid.
1. First subdivision: The earth is Lord's and the fullness thereof. (I Corinthians 10:20) (1) Kingdom is a composite word made up of King and Dominion. (2) Kingdom refers to a realm or region governed by a king; the spiritual realm of God. Discussion The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"
(1) Kingdom is a composite word made up of King and Dominion. (2) Kingdom refers to a realm or region governed by a king; the spiritual realm of God. Discussion The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	I. First main division: It is a literal physical kingdom. (Planets, stars, animal, birds, plants, etc.)
(2) Kingdom refers to a realm or region governed by a king; the spiritual realm of God. Discussion The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	1. First subdivision: The earth is Lord's and the fullness thereof. (I Corinthians 10:20)
Discussion The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	(1) Kingdom is a composite word made up of King and Dominion.
The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	(2) Kingdom refers to a realm or region governed by a king; the spiritual realm of God suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	Discussion the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into the "Lake of Fire" 2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	The earthly realization of the kingdom has been postponed, and is now in abeyance (temporary
2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	suspension) until the return of the King from Glory (Acts 3:20) At which the saints will inherit
2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20) (1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	the kingdom prepared from the foundation of the world to help judge the condemned souls and look into
(1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"	the "Lake of Fire"
	2. Second subdivision: Jesus will restore the Kingdom to its original state (Acts 3:20)
(2) Restoration began with the birth of Jesus Christ our Lord and Redeemer, King of	(1) Paradise will be once again upon the earth as it was before the "Fall of Man"
	(2) Restoration began with the birth of Jesus Christ our Lord and Redeemer, King of kings, etc.

Discussion

T
Transition
ond main division
1. First subdivision
(2)
	Discussion
ond subdivision
(1)
(2)
(2)
(2)	Discussion

3. Third su	ıbdivision
	· /	Discussion
Transi	tion
nclusion
1
2.
- ·			