Residents at a nursing home in Shabbona, Illinois enjoy a visit from Elliot the Therapy Cat, from Circle Rocking S Children's Farm.

Elliot the therapy cat at Circle Rocking S Children's Farm visited a nursing home in Shabbona Illinois last week.

As you can see, he has a tough job of being loved to death. Shoshana the other therapy cat also worked that day. Therapy animals are trained to be very still and calm, have all their shots, nails clipped, and be still if anyone pulls its tail, ears or from any other rough handling. The cat normally works up to 2 1/2 hours per facility.

This is just one of the many free programs Circle Rocking S Children's Farm in Free Soil, Mi offers. The farm works strictly off of donations by the general public they are not funded by any insurance or government programs. The farm is a 501c3 tax exempt non-profit org.

At the end of March, the farm will be taking bunnies to the nursing homes and shut ins.

As Elliot the cat would say, "It's tough job but some feline has to do it."
