

Egg-citing times at Circle Rocking S Farm

Circle Rocking S Farm hosts egg hunt and more

ARTICLE SUBMITTED

From all over West Michigan, snow, rain and cold, nothing stopped over 60 special needs participants of all ages, from attending the annual special needs egg hunt, bonnet contest and crafts at Circle Rocking S Children's Farm in Free Soil on Tuesday April 15th.

Special thanks to all our volunteers that day especially Victory Trinity Lutheran Church for stuffing almost 2,000 eggs. Fountain and Free Soil Fire Dept. who were also our bonnet contest judges.

Also to K of C of Ludington, Liz Stark for running the craft building and all the other ladies and gents who volunteered that day.

Bonnet contest winners are: (2 judges- two sets of winners) There was a huge number of bonnet entries.

1st place: Chrissy Spurgis from Ludington and Amber Miller from Thompsonville. 2nd Place: Sheryl Kruezer from Manistee and Ron Kibby from Benzonia. 3rd. Place: Barbara Gersill and Mary Gillehay from Benzonia. Ruth Ward from Thompsonville won for the adult/volunteer category.

RIGHT: The winners in the Easter Bonnet Contest pose for a group photo.

Chrissy Spurgis from Ludington models her winning Easter Bonnet.

