5487 Tuttle Road * Free Soil, MI 49411

1:00 pm - 4:00 pm

This exciting combination of events celebrates the 31st anniversary of the Blessing of the Animals. Proceeds from the benefit car and tractor show, silent auction and games (including pet costume judging, rubber chicken toss, watermelon seed spitting, pie eating, hay bale toss, egg toss and more) support the Children's Farm special needs programs. Prizes to be awarded.

Bring your pet (or pets) to be blessed in a beautiful ceremony officiated by local clergy members. The blessing service is free and begins at 1:30 pm sharp.

Games start after the Blessing ceremony. Silent auction runs until 3:00 pm. You must be present to win.

The Living History event is free. Browse historic exhibits at your leisure. Celebrate America's 250th birthday with the living history participants.

The car and tractor show is sponsored by the Pere Marquette Motoring Club. $15 entry fee per car/tractor (and show-related swap meet $15 per table). Free goodie bag for all car/tractor entries. Sign up the day of show but preregistering can be made by phoning (no texting) 231-462-3732. Vehicles must be in place by 1:00 pm.
