PRESS RELEASE

On Jan 22, 2019 the Isleton CC approved the City's first commercial cannabis permit to Timeless Palliative Care Collective (TPCC).

"The City welcomes Timeless Palliative Care Collective and we anticipate a positive impact on the City's economy and the Main Street community. We are glad that Ms Burnett Perkins chose Isleton to locate her business and expect that Timeless Palliative Care Collective will be a successful Isleton business", said City Manager Charles Bergson.

"TPCC is committed to helping people in chronic pain and those who are infirmed or terminally ill, who may benefit from the use of medicinal cannabis products to improve their quality of life and well-being." said Cynthia Burnett Perkins, Principal. MyOptions.

The TPCC retail brand, will collaborate with Comfort Homesake, a Bay Area advocacy and training corporation that is leading efforts statewide to improve patient and caregiver experiences in the palliative care market.

The TPCC facility will operate Monday through Friday in Isleton at 51 Main Street in the heart of the historic Main Street district and will be open to the public Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. For more information, contact TPCC at support@myoptions.us.
