

RETAINER POLICY

To reserve your spot, the retainer is $100 for hourly sessions, and $100–$350 for my day experiences (see Rate card). The amount will be deducted from the final session fee. For multiple sessions, your retainer will be carried forward and used towards the balance of the last session. I'll send you the payment details when we finalize your booking.

PAYMENT OPTIONS

- All major debit/credit cards (no Amex)
- Venmo or Zelle
- Cash preferred (drop off arranged at booking)

HOLD YOUR DATE

Remember, your chosen date/time is only locked in when your retainer is received. Act fast to avoid losing your slot.

WHY THE RETAINER MATTERS

- Secures your time and mine.
- Reflects your level of commitment.
- Covers the time I spend on inspiration, drawing, stencils, supplies & set up.
- Acts as insurance in case of cancellations or no-shows.

BOOK WITH ME

Ready to turn your tattoo dreams into reality? Here's how to book a spot:

1. LINK IN BIO: Click "Book with Lola" or go to: atombombtattoo.com/lola
2. DESCRIBE YOUR VISION: Provide details about your tattoo idea and attach any reference art/images you have.
3. SLIDE INTO MY DMs: Message me with your tattoo description and images.
4. PATIENCE IS A VIRTUE...I'M ON IT: While I try to respond quickly, please allow up to 48hr for a reply. No comms on Sundays—it's my only day off :-)
5. TAG-TEAM: If you are coming in with a friend, remember each person needs to fill out their own form or DM me.
6. SECURE YOUR SPOT: Once your request is approved, a retainer is required to lock in your date and time. You will be entered into my client management system and a notice goes out when you're booked. You will also receive an appointment reminder that will need to be confirmed.

CANCELLATIONS

I get it—life is unpredictable, but here's what you can count on with me: Retainers are 100% non-refundable. That means if you cancel for any reason within 48hr of your appointment, you lose your retainer.

RUNNING LATE? Call and let me know. If you're over 15min late without contact, you may be flagged as a no-show (see below).

NEED TO RESCHEDULE? You get one free reschedule with 48hr+ notice (not applicable during December). Beyond that, you'll lose your original retainer and have to place a new one to rebook.

NO CALL, NO SHOW: Not only will you lose your retainer, but your name goes on the naughty list and you're barred from future bookings. Sorry :-)

AM I THE ONE FOR YOU?

If you're considering me for your first or next tattoo, here's what you need to know:

MY STYLE: I'm a neo-traditionalist at heart, but always evolving. I prefer full-color designs and am open to various tattoo types as I grow.

MY PROMISE: I won't take on a project I'm not comfortable with. Your happiness matters; I want you to have the best experience. If I'm not the right artist for you, I'll suggest a talented colleague who might be.

MY STRENGTHS: More than just my technical skill, I bring confidence and excitement to each project. I won't agree to a design or style I don't think will stand the test of time.

THE LONG HAUL: You're not just a canvas to me; you're investing in a partnership to create something special. I won't cheat you on quality; your ink should last for years to come.

HEALED PICS

A photo of a fresh piece tells one story, but a healed shot speaks volumes about quality, commitment, and why some projects don't get the nod from me:

1. Healed pics help show why I take the time I do when tattooing, and prove no gimmicks are used when I post shots of my fresh work.
2. I study every healed piece, learning and evolving with each one.
3. Your photos become part of my social media content, inspiring others.

Want to contribute?

- Use a self-timer (or a helping hand) to get that perfect shot.
- Make sure your skin is moisturized (and preferably shaved) .
- No gimmicks, no filters—just the raw shot of your healed tattoos.
