

CAMP HUNT MEN'S RETREAT
SEPTEMBER 20-22, 2018
Speaker: Kerry Morris, Albany, NY

REAL MEN OF GOD

When I was young, you could tell immediately who was a man and who was a woman. If a man dressed up like a woman, it was usually a comedian on a variety show. In the world we live in, it appears that those days are over. Today we hear phrases like, "I identify myself as a man" or "I identify myself as a woman". According to many in our culture, gender no longer has anything to do with anatomy.

There is a lot of confusion today about exactly what a man is supposed to be. I believe we have set the bar pretty low for what we expect from men in our society. I believe that there is a general disdain for men in our country. Often we are depicted as bigoted grunting Neanderthals who treat women like trash or as little boys who have never grown up. Some view us as emasculated and weak, but necessary for procreation. Certainly there are many good men in our land, but there appears to be no consensus on what traits a real man should possess. It will be difficult for the next generation of young males to know what to aspire to

This year in our Camp Hunt Men's Retreat I will be discussing what makes a man, from God's perspective. What is A Real Man Of God? What traits does God want in a man? Obviously in five lessons, our understanding will not be complete. In the end, if we can stand before our Father one day as Real Men Of God, then we will be a success in the eyes of the only one who really matters. I hope you enjoy our study.
