MEET EARL

I have firsthand experience working in toxic environments that hinder organizational growth. Poor communication, lack of teamwork, negative mindsets, and unsuccessful recruitment are some of the issues that hold many organizations back from thriving. If you're experiencing any of these issues, it's time to take action and rise above them.

With over 29 years of leadership and organizational experience, I offer consulting, classes, and mentoring to individuals and organizations across the United States. My passion for teaching, mentoring, and building up others has enabled me to develop my skills and insights into effective leadership and organizational development.

As a retired Chief of Police and former Assistant Director of the Council on Law Enforcement Education and Training, I have honed my skills and insights into leadership and organizational development. Many of my clients have praised my work, saying that they wish they had contacted me sooner.

Testimonial

“This course was awesome! It really helped me improve my skills as a leader and a person. I liked how it was structured. I learned how to communicate better, motivate others, and deal with challenges. I also discovered some things about myself that I didn't know before, like my strengths and weaknesses, my values and goals, and my personality. This course made me more self-aware and confident in my abilities.”
