Dear Members of Alamo Heights Republican Women,

Two years of living through a pandemic has been hard for all of us - Moms & Dads, teachers, and kids, most importantly. Do not forget the fact that the current NEISD board closed our campuses and masked our children for a year. When students were locked out of schools, and parents out of school board meetings, that was my call to action to enter into the race for NEISD School Board Trustee, District 2.

Neither one of my opponents have school-aged children; I have the most at stake and I'm willing to do the hard work to make a positive change. In this race, I am fighting for the opportunity to shift the power dynamic back to one that favours parents & values their involvement. The only shift this board is making focuses on damaging social agendas which are negatively impacting our childrens' academic performance.

Your tax dollars are funding this madness, and I want to be a leader in the movement fearlessly standing against it. Will you support me in this fight? The battle we find ourselves locked in today shapes the future, and we cannot let the opposition win. These are small races. Every single vote counts. Every dollar counts. Every minute spent engaging voters counts. With your help in these key areas, WE CAN WIN on May 7th! Any support you can give now is a down-payment on a better tomorrow for our students. With your assistance, I look forward to raising the education bar.

Warmest regards,
Jacqueline Klein
