

Two Standards

St. Ignatius presents to us Our lord Jesus Christ as leader and King, inviting all men and calling them to follow Him in the combat of the Enemies of God and men: - Satan, the flesh and world.

He promises victory to all those that will fight and that they be willing to be treated as he will be treated. The servant is not greater than the master. This fight is to the death.

It's a combat with evil – A spiritual combat.

Christ is not optional. He is the only option. To choose otherwise would be offensive to God. Our only hope of salvation is in Christ.

There is going to be a long and difficult battle. It is life long. A daily battle – He who wants to be my disciple must take up his cross and follow me. We must take up our daily cross.
