God-Enthralled

I have so loved reading Tattoos On the Heart with you this summer, filled with moving reflections by Father Gregory Boyle about his years of ministry with gang members in Los Angeles. As I read, I often find myself in awe of just how different - and difficult - the “homies” life experiences are compared with my own. Heartbreaking hardships and tragedies abound. Father Greg shares his ultimate agony: “when kids I love kill kids I love.”

In the midst of all this pain, Father Greg is relentless in his commitment to share his presence and love with these young men and women. The more I read their stories, the more I find myself relating with them. Even though our life experiences may differ, Father Greg points out, “there is a longing in us all to be God-enthralled.”

I suppose it was this desire to be enthralled that made me sign up for a journey on the Schooner Inland Seas as a continuing education experience. As the flag ship of the Inland Seas Education Association, the sailing vessel promotes curiosity, stewardship and passion for the Great Lakes.

I volunteered to be a deckhand and quickly realized that I was going to be on a steep learning curve... literally learning the ropes! Thankfully, the crew was both welcoming and savvy, proving to be excellent teachers (and correcting my frequent mistakes).

We left Detroit early on a Wednesday and sailed all the way across Lake Erie to participate in the Cleveland Tall Ships Festival. We spent four days taking passengers - 38 at a time - out for sails around Cleveland. It was exhausting, humbling, and wonderful.

On the return journey to Detroit, we were somewhere in the middle of Lake Erie. I was enjoying the beauty of the schooner under full sails, moving steadily through the waves and sending spray rippling out. Seemingly out of nowhere, some swallows appeared. For half an hour, they flitted and flew around us, diving among the sails and riding the various pockets of wind around them. What a joy to observe creation at play, simply for the delight of it. Enthralled.

May you find yourself God-enthralled this summer!

~ Pastor Ben

Northbrook Book Club—Monday, August 8 at 7pm

The Northbrook Book Club will meet in-person and via Zoom on Monday, August 8th at 7pm to discuss Save for Fireflies by Nathaniel Missildine. Please contact Nancy Best for a Zoom invitation. In-person discussion will be at the church on the outdoor patio, weather permitting. Enjoy memories of a cross-country family road trip from the unique perspective of Pastor Ben's college friend, Nat Missildine. In 2008, after years living in France, the author returned to his native United States with his wife and two young daughters to drive a full loop around the country. His travel memoir of the experience traces the rediscovery of home as a tourist with no fixed address and no planned destination. Covering 12,000 miles through 32 states, the book offers an accelerated take on the life of a new family as well as the story of a country that may have undergone a greater shift than the traveler who has returned to pay witness to its resilience and splendor. How does Nat look back on this experience now? How do you remember your family summer road trips? What does "home" mean to you? We hope you'll join us in reading a delightful summer book and joining us for an engaging discussion. Readers will need to purchase a book on Amazon.

Please mark your calendars with the upcoming book club dates:

Tattoos on the Heart by Gregory Boyle

You are invited to join us as we continue to explore Tattoos on the Heart by Gregory Boyle. Mark your calendars with the remaining dates below. We will continue to meet in the backyards of our hosts listed below.

For thirty years, Father Boyle has run Homeboy Industries, a gang-intervention program located in the Boyle Heights neighborhood of Los Angeles, the gang capital of the world. In Tattoos on the Heart, he distills his experience working in the ghetto into a breathtaking series of parables inspired by faith.

Arranged by theme and filled with sparkling humor and glowing generosity, these essays offer a stirring look at how full our lives could be if we could find the joy in loving others and in being loved unconditionally. In each chapter, we benefit from Boyle's gentle, hard-earned wisdom.

These essays about universal kinship and redemption are moving examples of the power of unconditional love and the importance of fighting despair. Gorgeous and uplifting, Tattoos on the Heart reminds us that no life is less valuable than another.

Finance Committee—Wish List Campaign Update

We are overwhelmed, yet not surprised, by the incredible generosity of our Northbrook family. To date, the Wish List Campaign (read more about it HERE or contact the church office for details) has generated over $24,000 of pledges and matching gifts. Wishes range from benches and picnic tables to the park shelter, funding camperships, microphones, and flowers to beautify the church and sanctuary. The campaign will continue through August. We hope others will continue to explore the opportunity to make their “wish” come true. We are so very grateful to be a part of such an extraordinary church family.
