The True Meaning of Advent

“Gracious God, we give you thanks for this day, and for your many blessings which we enjoy.”

Happy December! Happy First Sunday in Advent, so Happy New Year! Much of America may think that “It’s the Most Wonderful Time of the Year” because in 1963 Andy Williams recorded a charming song about these weeks leading up to December 25. And much as we may love the song and the nostalgia that it evokes for getting together with family and friends, as Christians, the season of Advent means so much more.

This year we embark on the good news of Jesus Christ as told by Matthew, and what a different beginning to the year Matthew gives us! Our gospel lessons for the first three Sundays of Advent are about the second coming of Christ, not the arrival of the baby Jesus. Matthew refers to this character as the “Son of Man” and warns us to be prepared to be separated from our families. We will also hear about John the Baptist, that wild man living in the desert eating bugs who called his religious leaders snakes. He warned them to turn around, to go in a different direction, and not to be proud or rely on the virtue of their ancestors. Finally, by the Fourth Sunday of Advent we finally hear about the birth of Jesus, but even here Matthew’s focus is on the earthly father of Jesus.

Some have referred to Christianity as “the great reversal.” In these days of increasing darkness we celebrate the coming of THE light of the world. The light and love of Jesus have been poured in our hearts and cannot be extinguished. However, like the Sadducees and Pharisees challenged by John the Baptist, we too are called to turn around and head in new directions. What new directions might those be? How is God leading you, and where is God beckoning you forward? How is God beckoning St. John’s forward? God is constantly drawing us closer and closer, shaping and forming us more and more into little Christs, for the repair of God’s beautiful and beloved creation. May you enjoy a blessed and holy Advent.

Peace and all blessings,
Henny+

New Advent Bible Study Underway

In Light of the World: A Beginner's Guide to Advent, author, professor, and biblical scholar Amy-Jill Levine explores the biblical texts surrounding the story of the birth of Jesus. Join her as she traces the Christmas narrative through the stories of Zechariah and Elizabeth, Mary, the journey to Bethlehem, and the visit from the Magi. These stories open conversations around connections of the Gospel stories to the Old Testament, the role of women in first-century Jewish culture, the importance of Mary's visitation and the revolutionary implications of Mary's Magnificat, the census and the stable, and the star of Bethlehem and the flight to Egypt.
