

Download No. 3 CRLG Enterprise Overview.

We found a home in LaGrange, GA as a company in 2019 and have grown to love it here. The way of life is rock solid, the Spirit of America is alive and well here, the support of good old-fashioned values a compelling combination. What began as a passion project to bring artistry to the forefront of American Culture now operates as a vertically integrated solution to the built environment, servicing some of the biggest names in the A&D Industries.

We are a brand family anchored in the arts, we manufacture high quality products here in the United States that support Architects, Engineers, Designers and General Contractors. We work with a variety of materials, both natural and manufactured, to fulfill project requirements to the industry we support. ## CRLG Vision.

Our vision is to bring artistry to the forefront of American Culture again knowing the power it has to influence our modern culture, trades, manufacturing and our overall economy by promoting quality products made here at home by people like you and me.

CRLG Commitment.

Our commitment to the industry we support is to promote a work life balance in the applied and fine arts using the skills we have to make beautiful products here in the United States of America.

CRLG Operations & Leadership.

Our founders will be transitioning the daily operations and leadership over the next several years to those whose knowledge is required for CRLG to begin to stand on its own two feet and grow to scale to support the market demand for its products.

CRLG Manufacturing. Elm City.

Our current facility is located in the heart of small-town America in LaGrange, GA where we make our proprietary products by special order with a skeleton crew as we begin to scale up under new expert leadership this year. Our turn of the century factory location will be undergoing a redevelopment effort under expert leadership. Inquire if interested in being a redevelopment partner or future tenant info@crlg.us for more information or other opportunities.
