

Download No. 5 CRLG Founders.

The CRLG Enterprise located in LaGrange, Georgia was founded in 2014 by a sculptor and a designer who met by happenstance as the God story of their lives unfolded they fell in love and spent years blindly stumbling through countless difficulties and somehow because of people like you stood in spite of it all. They married and became a modern blended family of six residing in Maine, USA.

Classical Sculptor Chris Rothermel practices sculpture internationally with over two decades of experience offered to his team, students and apprentices. His expertise continues to astound makers and artists alike with a remarkable depth not seen in material culture today. Chris is available for key projects through his private practice.
