GEORGE WASHINGTON'S ANCESTRAL HOME

Enjoy an exclusive group visit to Sulgrave Manor. Choose from a new range of tour options for 2022 to suit your interests and schedule.

Sulgrave Manor

Discover over 400 years of history at Sulgrave Manor & Garden nestled in the beautiful countryside near Banbury. Built in 1539 by George Washington's direct ancestors, the Manor has been everything from a Tudor family home to a Victorian Farmhouse. Since 1921 it has been welcoming visitors as a symbol of peace and friendship between the UK and USA. Restored to its former splendour in 2019, the Manor is ready to welcome your group in style.

The Garden

Our Garden was designed in the early 1900s by Sir Reginald Blomfield: architect, garden designer and author. Yew hedges divide the garden into rooms, each one with its own atmosphere. Topiary peacocks welcome visitors at the front door and densely planted borders ensure botanical interest from spring through to autumn. The Tudor Villagers Garden boasts historic vegetables and herbs, whilst mature trees provide shaded seating and stunning autumn colour. Heritage fruit trees grow in the orchard and there's a designated Silent Space should you wish to simply sit back and enjoy views of the surrounding rolling countryside.
