COMMUNITY FUNDRAISER & DINNER EVENT

Honoring Kat Medellin and all Leukemia
Survivors in our Community

On April 6, 2024, from 4 to 7 p.m., New Market United Methodist Church and friends from the New Market community will be hosting a fundraising dinner.

Join us at the New Market Grange for dinner and dessert while we join together to honor Kat Medellin and other Leukemia survivors. In addition to hearing from several Leukemias survivors, Lauren Hill will also be providing music throughout the evening.

A free will offering will be collected during the event. Proceeds will be used to offset medical expenses for the Medellin family, as well as donated to the "Believe in Tomorrow Children's Foundation."

In order to prepare for this event, we are asking everyone to R.S.V.P. Please scan the QR code and include the number of guests attending.
