CALL TO WORSHIP		The Riley's

Lord, I am not perfect. My mouth is just a little too slick and my soul is just a little too sick and tired of stumbling. Lord, we're made in your likeness. I keep falling because sometimes my tongue gets in the way. I know right from wrong, but sometimes my tongue gets the best of me. Lord, we're made in your likeness. It starts arguments and ignites fires that not even the firefighters can extinguish. My tongue, this sword of fire, has become an instrument of life and death. Lord, we're made in your likeness. "If you want it, you can come and get some," is my attitude. I am a Samurai. I am not the first, nor am I the last. I tried to put this all in my past, but it presently keeps finding itself in my future. Lord, we're made in your likeness. I don't want to keep living this way. I am ready to lay down my sword and shield to study war no more, but it's hard. People keep coming for me when I never sent for them. Lord, I am your child and I need you. Please help me control my tongue because we praise you and curse our brothers and sisters with the same tongue. And this should not be. Amen.

Monday (10/18) Job 42:1-6, 10-17

Verses 10 through 17 are not in the original manuscripts. Why do you think they were added? How would you respond to the book of Job if these last sentences of restoration were not added?

Tuesday (10/19) Psalm 34:1-8, (19-22)

How can we taste and see that the Lord is good? What did you think the psalmist meant by this?

Wednesday (10/20) Jeremiah 31:7-9

What and where is the Lord bringing the Lord's people from? If they are in captivity in Babylon how is it possible to sing aloud with gladness? Is there a time in your life that you needed to be delivered from captivity?

Thursday (10/21) Psalm 126

How does this psalm adequately express joy while in sorrow?

Friday (10/22) Hebrews 7:23-28

How are we made perfect in Christ by his sacrifice? Give thanks for that freedom today.

Saturday (10/23) Mark 10:46-52

What blindness do you need healed from today? Bigotry, anger, jealousy, racial prejudice? Cry out for the Christ to open your eyes and make you well within your soul.

Sunday (10/24) Worship in-person or online.
