Devotions

Monday (10/03)- Jeremiah 29:1, 4-7 - Look up the word welfare in the dictionary. How is the original definition different than in today's world? How did the word take on negative connotations from its original intent of wellbeing?

Tuesday (10/04)- Psalm 66:1-12 - What would it mean to your life for the Lord to bring you into a spacious place? How can you open yourself up to the Lord for the Lord to accomplish this in your life?

Wednesday (10/05)- 2 Kings 5:1-3, 7-15c - What is the biblical meaning of the number seven? Why was Naaman angry with Elisha? Do we try to make salvation harder than it is?

Thursday (10/06) - Psalm 111 - What does it mean to be upright? How has Jesus caused us to sit up straight?

Friday (10/07)- 2 Timothy 2:8-15 - Has the church been guilty of "wrangling over words"? How can we learn to listen to each other intently without judgment?

Saturday (10/08)- Luke 17:11-19 - What act of faith did it take for the ten lepers to head to the priest even though at the time leprosy remained on their bodies? In what ways do we need to move forward in faith even before we are healed?
