

SST FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Delivery persons, flag persons, design professionals (engineers/architects), and Department-licensees/registrants (except safety professionals) are exempt from training.

If you serve as a Site Safety Manager, Coordinator, Concrete Safety Manager, Construction Superintendent, or competent person, training is required. While licensees themselves are exempt, their supervised employees must be trained.

I'm NOT a construction worker, but I spend time on construction sites as part of my job. Do I need to meet the Local Law 196 training requirements?
