The Lord Colors Our World - This was Mrs. K's view on her way to school yesterday! What an amazing God!

Greeting Families and Supporters,

Students do not have school on Thursday and Friday this week as we the teachers are heading to Milwaukee for the Lutheran Education Association Convocation. This is a time to connect with fellow Lutheran educators and principals, attend various learning sessions, and have fellowship with each other. This is also a great opportunity for students to get caught up on missing assignments as the 1st quarter ends next Friday, October 14th. Parent teacher conferences will be held the following week on Thursday. If you have any concerns or questions please reach out to your child's teacher. May you have a wonderful week in the Lord!

Blessings, Mrs. Kosmerchock

VERSE FOR TODAY: The great truth about Jesus' empty tomb is not just that he is risen, but that he is living! His victory over death wasn't short lived, it was ultimate. He now lives to make intercession for us until he can return and bring us to his home. Our life is hidden with him so that no one and nothing can take it from us. When he appears, we will get to share in his never ending glory. How can we not praise God for such grace!

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.
