Enjoying a gorgeous day outside for lunch!

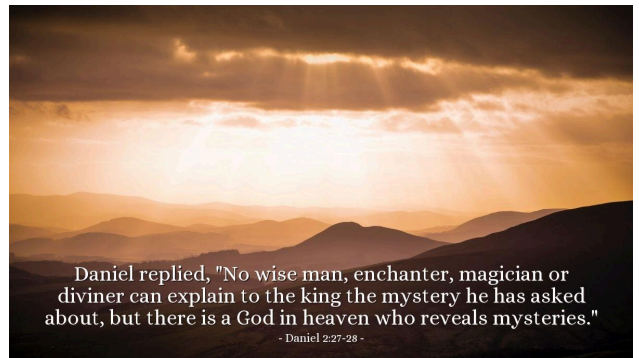

Greeting Families and Supporters,

As a cherished member of the Wolf River community, I invite and urge families to actively participate in recruiting students for the upcoming year. Your enthusiasm and advocacy are crucial in shaping the future of our school and ensuring its continued success. By sharing your positive experiences and the unique opportunities Wolf River offers, you play a vital role in attracting new students who will enrich our community. Together, let's extend a warm invitation to prospective families, showcasing the supportive environment, excellent education, and vibrant community spirit that define Wolf River. Your efforts in spreading the word about our school will help cultivate a diverse and thriving student body, fostering a dynamic learning environment for all. Together we can prepare Christian leaders for this ever-changing world!

Blessings, Mrs. Kosmerchock

VERSE FOR TODAY: Daniel spoke the ageless truth to King Nebuchadnezzar when he wanted his dream interpreted. The question for us is straightforward: "Do we believe what Daniel said?" What is the bedrock of our faith in uncertain times? Who knows where all the upheaval, tumult, and uncertainty are truly heading? In whom can we find the solution to our most perplexing problems? Where can our hearts find comfort in times of political upheaval and conflict? For Daniel and his friends, there was one solid and accurate answer: the LORD God of Israel. It wasn't in the so-called wise teachers or sages of the day. It wasn't in the religions of the East. It wasn't in the super-spiritualists. It was and still is, in the LORD God alone.

Daniel replied, "No wise man, enchanter, magician or diviner can explain to the king the mystery he has asked about, but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries."
