WR students' gathered outside to view the solar eclipse on Monday!

Greetings Families and Supporters,

This week as I was part of an accreditation at St. Luke's preschool in Wisconsin Rapids, I was reminded of the awesomeness of Lutheran schools. Being able to share the love of Jesus everyday to our students, staff, and families is amazing! As we embrace another week, let us pause to reflect on the profound words: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it." Each day brings us new opportunities, challenges, and blessings, and it is within this space of learning and growing that we find ourselves blessed with the chance to make a difference in the lives of our students. Let us approach each day with gratitude, purpose, and a commitment to embodying the values of love, compassion, and faith as we journey together in the light of God's grace. Have a wonderful week! Mrs. Kosmerchok

VERSE FOR TODAY: To our age of grace-abusers and grace-cheapeners who don't see acts of obedient faith as necessary to authentic discipleship, the Holy Spirit reaches out with his truth. The Spirit reminds us that relationships on earth, even those in Jesus' family, require patient effort, gritty love, personal sacrifice, gracious forgiveness, and rigorous determination. If we read Jesus' prayer for unity in John 17:20-21, how could we not make every effort to keep his Body unified and be loving and patient with each other? Since Jesus purchased our salvation with his sweat, grace, and blood, how can we balk when our passionate efforts are required to preserve the unity and peace of Jesus' family?

Matthew 28:5-8 The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples: 'He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.' Now I have told you." So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples.
