Standings

Leagues Standings are tracked by golf scores and Challenge Points. Weekly league standings will be posted in the Standings section of www.tourgolfleague.com by Friday after league play each week.

What are Challenge Points?

Challenge Points are earned through easy and seamless competitions each week. Golfers with 3 or more Challenge Points earn a spot in the Championship Flight held Week 4. The golfer with the best golf score in the Championship Flight held Week 4 is League Champion!

Challenge Point Competitions

Below are summaries of the 4 Challenge Points that can be earned.

1 King of the Hill

King of the Hill is determined by drawing at first tee box. For this Challenge Point, golfers try to beat the King of the Hill by getting the best golf score to earn Challenge Point.

King of the Hill gets best golf score– King of the Hill earns 1 Challenge Point

Any golfer in foursome beats King of the Hill- All golfers, except King of the Hill earn 1 Challenge Point

2 Par 3 Shoot Out (par 3 course)

Hit 5 greens or more on drive - earn 1 Challenge Point

Bonus Challenge Point! Hit 7 or more greens on drive – earn additional Challenge Point

3 Bingo Bango -score card can be picked up at front desk or printed off (will be emailed prior to play).

1. 2 points awarded for each hole. Most points in foursome at end wins 1 Challenge Point (points are given to each golfer on tie)

Point 1: Longest drive in fairway or closest to pin earns point

Point 2: Once all players are on green – first to putt in earns point

*Furthest ball from pin putts first.

*1st golfer to putt in on first try only earns point.

4 Using cumulative golf scores for first 3 weeks, golfers finishing in the top 25% or better earn 1 Challenge Point

WEEK 4: Championship Flights

Golfers who accumulate 3 or more Challenge Points earn spot in Championship Flight. Golfer with best golf score in Championship Flight held Week 4 is League Champion.

Please pay league fee at www.tourgolfleague.com if you have not yet paid.
