

NITROGEN POLLUTION

THREATENS THE PECONIC RIVER

Nitrogen is a nutrient found in fertilizers, animal waste, and septic systems. Too much nitrogen can pollute our waterways.

Common sources of nitrogen:

Fertilizer

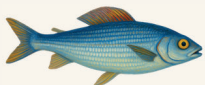

Animal
Waste

Septic
Systems

Why does it matter?

Harm to aquatic life

Unsafe water for recreation

How you can help

Properly dispose of pet waste

Eliminate or limit fertilizer usage

