

Jim and Michelle Teague

Your Shortcut to Success

With over 40 years of combined experience in teaching, speaking, training, and coaching, Jim and Michelle are here to help you with leadership development, communication skills, and team building. They have worked in various industries including manufacturing, housing, transportation, health care, senior living, academia, and technology. Both have experience working with small, family-owned establishments, large corporations, privately held organizations, and publicly traded companies.

Jim and Michelle provide clarity to you and your organization through problem-solving and brainstorming activities, providing you certainty by developing solutions that work. They give you and your team the confidence you need to succeed in achieving your goals. In addition, they offer connection opportunities with other professionals who are experiencing similar challenges.

They will:

- Provide insight into communication and leadership styles to build stronger teams
- Conduct leadership assessments to pinpoint areas needing attention
- Develop training solutions based on the assessment specific for your team
- Motivate you and your team through speaking, coaching, and training

Their Speaking Topics:

- The Power of Partnership
- Influence: Small Changes for BIG Results
- Leading With Certainty
- Say What? Communicating with Clarity

Their Training Specialties:

- Communication Skills
- Leadership Development
- Personality Styles
- Teamwork
- Influence for Leaders and Salespeople
- Ready, Set, Goals!
- Leading Through Change

CONTACT INFORMATION