

Emigration of members of the Jabroczy family from the village of Havka in Slovakia to the USA.

By Vladimír Říha

According to the records of The Statue of Liberty—Ellis Island Foundation, a total of 10 people emigrated from the village of Havka between 1897 and 1913 (17 years) with birth years of 1879–1892. Their ages ranged from 17 to 30 years. The Jabroczy Kata and Maria were sisters. One and the same person traveled 3 times, namely Jabroczy Wojciech, Jabroczy Wojtek and Jabrocky Adalbert at the age of 25, 27 and 30, so a total of 8 people traveled to the USA. They always traveled alone except for the case when Jabroczy Wojtek 27 and Andreas 17 traveled together on March 7, 1909, but they were not directly related. Of the 20 people born in the years 1879-1892 from the Jabroczy family from Havka, 8 people, or 40%, emigrated to the USA in the years 1897-1913. On average, this means 1 person every 2-year period, although in 1904, 1906 and 1909 it was two persons per year. For illustration, we state that the village of Havka had only 172 inhabitants according to the census in 1869. The further fate of those who emigrated to the USA is unknown, whether they stayed in the USA or returned home “do kraju” (to the region) with the money they earned, with which they could start a new life.

An overview of travelers from Havka village in Slovakia to the USA is shown in the table:
