Other Wells Fargo Benefits

It's Cybersecurity Awareness Month. Look out for these tell-tale signs to help spot an imposter scam.

Imposters may contact you with a message that:

- is unexpected.
- appears to be from a legitimate source but could be spoofed.
- claims to be urgent and asks you to act right away.
- uses language that manipulates your emotions.
- asks you to pay in an unusually specific way such as gift cards, cryptocurrency or payment apps.

Remember, caller ID can be spoofed, emails can be faked, voices can be cloned, and images can be altered. If you have doubts about the message call the company or government agency directly to find out if there really is a problem. And if they're impersonating Wells Fargo, call us right away or you can always check your account in the Wells Fargo Mobile® app* or online banking.

Updated limits on Overdraft Fees

Effective October 1, 2024, we will no longer assess overdraft fees on items of $10 or less. Additionally, if both your ending daily account balance and available balance are overdrawn by $10 or less after we have processed your transactions, we won't assess an overdraft fee on those items.

This notice re-establishes that Wells Fargo has the right to conduct setoff for overdrawn deposit account balances, where applicable, and in accordance with your governing Deposit Account Agreement. When we exercise this right, we may reduce funds in any account you hold with us for purposes of paying the amount of the debt, either due or past due, that is owed to us as allowed by the laws governing your account. Our right of setoff won't apply if it would invalidate the tax-deferred status of any tax-deferred retirement account (e.g., a SEP or an IRA) you keep with us. To review a copy of your Deposit Account Agreement, including the provisions related to the right of setoff, please visit wellsfargo.com/online-banking/consumer-account-fees/ or wellsfargo.com/biz/fee-information/.

- To dispute or report inaccuracies in information we have furnished to a Consumer Reporting Agency about your accounts: Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. may furnish information about deposit accounts to Early Warning Services. You have the right to dispute the accuracy of information that we have furnished to a consumer reporting agency by writing to us at Overdraft Collection and Recovery, P.O. Box 5058, Portland, OR 97208-5058. Include with the dispute the following information as available: Full name (First, Middle, Last), Complete address, The account number or other information to identify the account being disputed, Last four digits of your social security number, Date of Birth. Please describe the specific information that is inaccurate or in dispute and the basis for the dispute along with supporting documentation. If you believe the information furnished is the result of identity theft, please provide us with an identity theft report.
- In case of errors or questions about other transactions (that are not electronic transfers): Promptly review your account statement within 30 days after we made it available to you, and notify us of any errors.
- If your account has a negative balance: Please note that an account overdraft that is not resolved 60 days from the date the account first became overdrawn will result in closure and charge off of your account. In this event, it is important that you make arrangements to redirect recurring deposits and payments to another account. The closure will be reported to Early Warning Services. We reserve the right to close and/or charge-off your account at an earlier date, as permitted by law. The laws of some states require us to inform you that this communication is an attempt to collect a debt and that any information obtained will be used for that purpose.
- To download and print an Account Balance Calculation Worksheet(PDF) to help you balance your checking or savings account, enter www.wellsfargo.com/balancemyaccount in your browser on either your computer or mobile device.

1. Use the following worksheet to calculate your overall account balance.
2. Go through your register and mark each check, withdrawal, ATM transaction, payment, deposit or other credit listed on your statement. Be sure that your register shows any interest paid into your account and any service charges, automatic payments or ATM transactions withdrawn from your account during this statement period.
3. Use the chart to the right to list any deposits, transfers to your account, outstanding checks, ATM withdrawals, ATM payments or any other withdrawals (including any from previous months) which are listed in your register but not shown on your statement.
