Barreiras, Bahia

Josh and Melissa Daniels

Barreiras is a city located in the west of the state of Bahia, Brazil. It is the most important urban, political, technological and economic center of the western region of the state.

Caldas Novas, Goiás

Julio and Suzy Esquivel

Caldas Novas is a city in the Brazilian state of Goiás. It is popular for its hot springs that attract travellers all year round.

Josh and Melissa Daniels

The Daniels have served 18 years in Barreiras. They have a growing church and satellite locations for church planting. They are excited about the possibility of an Internship program

Julio and Suzy Esquivel

The Esquivels served with Word of Life for 12 years and feel compelled to be involved in a local church ministry. They are very good with students and young adults.

Goals for the Internship Survey Trip

- Familiarize ourselves with the two missionary families.
- Explore their current ministries.
- Assess whether these ministries offer suitable hands-on opportunities for interns.
- Confirm the feasibility of travel arrangements.
- Analyze the logistical advantages or obstacles associated with each location.
- Evaluate how many interns each family can comfortably accommodate.
- Prepare to preach and teach in each setting.

Jason Sneed and I will make this trip together. Jason will do photography, help survey the locations and document the trip.
