FEATURED ARTIST

Joanna Powell Colbert

In my artwork, I return over and over to several themes: seasonal cycles in nature and in human life; the Pacific Northwest landscape; and the Sacred Feminine in myth and folklore. I've been fascinated by the rich, archetypal symbolism of the Tarot since I picked up my first deck in 1970. I brought my love of the natural world to tarot tradition when I created the Gaian Tarot and, later on, the Herbcrafter's Tarot.

When I work with colored pencils, I lay down creamy, waxy layers of rich, transparent color. I also work in mixed media collage, and more recently in the digital program Procreate. I developed a process where I begin with a pencil sketch, then scan it into Procreate. I add layers of color and texture digitally, then print the piece out on my archival printer. I finish by hand with colored pencils.

I created a new Hermit card (Major Arcana #9) for this ninth NWTS. I set it in the Pacific Northwest as a homage to Portland, and in the fall since we are gathering in September. Fall suits the energy of the Hermit—that time of year when we begin to turn toward the dark, and become more introspective.

I've always enjoyed turning archetypes on their heads. So instead of a wise old white man, I decided to make my Hermit a wise old dark-skinned woman. I wanted to explore the experience of living alone as an aging person who has a rich inner life, cherishing solitude while deeply connected to the earth and to community. I call her "Elder Hermit."

ABOUT Joanna

Joanna Powell Colbert is a sacred artist, earth mystic, moon lover, and caller of circles. She is the creator of the Gaian Tarot (which took nine years to complete) and the Pentimento Tarot, a majors-only deck; and is the co-creator of the Herbcrafter's Tarot. Her work is grounded in earth-centered spirituality, seasonal contemplative practices, creativity as a devotional path, and using the tarot for inner guidance and self-exploration. She is currently working on the Sacred Wheel Oracle, a deck based on the Wheel of the Year, the lunar cycle, and the seasons of our lives. She lives on the edge of woods and lake near the Salish Sea in Bellingham, Washington.

Photos & Video Policy

NWTS will be taking pictures throughout the weekend. Please ask people to exclude you if you do not want your picture taken. That applies to your fellow conference attendees who are taking photos as well.

You are welcome to take photos of presenters unless they express otherwise. All presentations are recorded and will be available in our private YouTube channel that will be shared with all attendees; therefore, videos are not allowed unless they are short clips. You also need not worry about getting a photo of every PowerPoint slide.

Lost & Found

Lost & Found is located in the vending hall at the Soultopia/NWTS Booth. Any unclaimed items will be donated to Goodwill at the end of the weekend.

Need Help? Our Staff is Ready!

Look for the special Lanyards with the NWTS Staff on them. If anyone is wearing this lanyard, they are on the clock and available to help or ask at the NWTS Headquarters Table in the Main Ballroom.

Tips to Maximize Your Experience

NWTS is a weekend of intense learning with lots of activities that makes for a good time and enriching experience. Attendees have had experiences of energy that run a spectrum of intensity. From the discovery of the unknown to finding a “home,” it can certainly be overwhelming — and let’s face it, the late nights with good friends can take a toll on your energy as well.

- Ask before hugging and respect boundaries.
- NWTS adheres to the current COVID policies and requirements.
- Exchange and respect pronouns. “Hi, I’m Michelle (she/her). Nice to meet you.” “Hi Michelle, I’m (name), (they/them).”
- Be respectful to yourself, hotel staff, restaurant and bar staff, NWTS staff, and other participants.
- Keep your NWTS program with you at all times.
- Wear your badge at all times.
- Look for signage or ask the staff where to go.
- Check out the Swap Table.
- Give yourself self-care (sessions are recorded, so pace yourself).
- Visit the vendors and purchase goodies to take home.
- Save your Raffle tickets and show up to all drawings.
- Read class descriptions to know what to bring to class.
- Don’t try to do it all – pace yourself.
- Stay hydrated.
- Remember to eat - food is grounding.

POTLATCH TABLE

To participate in the potlatch, you will need to leave something of value on the table, then pick up any item you would like. Kindly ensure your exchange is fair and limit yourself to one or two items simultaneously. PLEASE KEEP YOUR ITEMS DIVINATION RELATED!

Examples: tarot decks, oracle decks, crystals, books, etc.

RAFFLES

NWTS has many raffles with donations from our speakers, sponsors, and vendors. There are several ways to obtain raffle tickets, including but not limited to checking in, attending events, attending presentations, finding your NWTS Buddy, showing kindness to staff, and buying NWTS merch. There will be several opportunities to win throughout the weekend. Visit the Vending Hall to see the raffle prizes. Simply place your tickets in the raffle box.

You must be present to win!

NWTS BUDDY

While NWTS is in its 9th year, 2024 is a reunion of sorts. Many of us have not seen one another in person for several years. Our gathering is also an opportunity to meet new divination friends. To facilitate mingling, we have randomly assigned NWTS BUDDIES. Look at your NWTS badge after you check in. Each badge has a tarot card on the back. Look at the badges for other attendees and speakers because another NWTS participant will have a match to yours. Find them during the weekend and introduce yourself. You and your buddy can visit the Registration/Con Information table to each receive two extra raffle tickets. You may choose to interact more by attending a presentation together, grabbing coffee, or perhaps even exchanging email information after the event.

ZOOM Recordings

All presentations are being transmitted LIVE via ZOOM. Please note this may inhibit your presenter's ability to move around the room. Please limit your questions to the end of the presentation unless instructed otherwise by the presenter in your room.

Post-NWTS Presentation Access

Recordings of the presentations will be available to you for 30 days. This is only for those who bought a ticket. It is not for anyone else. An email will be sent to you within two weeks of the event. The link is good for 30 days from the date of receipt.

"It has always been a great sorrow to me that I never met Scott, but through this wonderful new biography, I feel as though I finally have. Thank you, Christine Cunningham Ashworth, for sharing him with me and the world. It is a gift beyond measure."

-Deborah Blake, author of The Everyday Witch's Coven and The Eclectic Witch's Book of Shadows

"A touching and intimate portrait of one of America's most important witchcraft pioneers, intensely readable and relatable, Scott Cunningham - The Path Taken is now required reading for anyone interested in Craft history. Thirty years after Cunningham's untimely passing, this book illustrates why his work is just as popular today as it was during his lifetime."

- Jason Mankey, author of The Horned God of the Witches

Christine Cunningham Ashworth brings her flare for storytelling to this moving portrait of her brother Scott, whose teachings influenced Wicca in North America.
