

BGSO JAM SESSIONS

Join us for a BGSO-led video game music jam session! A "Jam Session" is an event where musicians get together to read off of leadsheets. All musicians are welcome, as these sessions are open to any and all, even beginners! Generally, a leadsheet is played through at least once, and then a section will be selected for interested musicians to improv solo over. You are not required to take solos, and are welcome to just play what is on the sheets.
