Delay and cost analyses, support arbitration proceedings and deliver expert testimony that stands up to legal scrutiny.

- Independent & Data-driven.

1. Executive Summary

In complex infrastructure, power, telecom, and EPC projects, disputes over delays, cost overruns, and contractual claims are common — and resolving them requires expert, evidence-backed analysis. Xeed Consulting offers specialized

- Delay & Quantum Analysis
- Arbitration Support
- Expert Witness Services

that help contractors, owners, and operators defend or pursue claims with credibility and precision.

2. The Business Problem

Projects face:

- Delays due to multiple causes (contractor issues, design changes, external factors)
- Cost overruns and disputed variation claims
- Arbitration proceedings that require solid technical and quantum evidence
- Lack of internal expertise to prepare defensible claims or rebuttals

Without structured expert support, parties risk weak claims, protracted disputes, and unfavourable outcomes.

3. Xeed's Delay, Quantum & Arbitration Services:

We provide end-to-end claims and arbitration support, covering both delay (time) and quantum (cost) dimensions.

We deliver:

- Delay Analysis: Critical path analysis, as-built vs. planned, cause-effect mapping
- Quantum Analysis: Valuation of cost claims, disruption, prolongation, escalation
-  Arbitration Support: Preparation of claims/rebuttals, document evidence bundles
- Expert Witness Services: Testimony before arbitration panels or courts

Key Service Components
