Questions for interview-post on LinkedIn

So you want Hamilton to promote your business or build awareness to an activity you feel strongly about?

Well you have chosen the right place! Below are questions and instructions that will assist both of us in creating an interview that brings awareness and shows your passion on the subject.

Do you have a quick bio that I can either add or reference in your interview? If so please be sure to provide your bio or story before the actual interview.

Otherwise please answer these questions to peak curiosity:

What are your aspirations? How did you get started? How long have you been interested in this subject?

When did you start your professional career? (LinkedIn hiring managers are interested in your experience and linking what potential problem(s) they have that you can solve.

Can you please explain how your activity/business solves a problem for business owners or middle managers?

What credentials do you have?

My general questions for your video interview:

What type of clients do you see?

What issues do your clients face?

As a business owner what are some common issues facing people today that you recognize and find easy to solve?

I look forward to interviewing/highlighting you!
