About Chana

She's more than a social media maven, she is a creative with no will it "fit in". A social disruptor with a heart of gold. Chana uses her platform to tell it like it is, promoting authenticity, inspire others, and story-tell with a comedic twist.

When she's not creating content, hosting her next podcast episode, designing websites and/or ensuring her clients are 110% satisfied, you can find Chana enjoying every second of spending quality time with her new little family.
