

No official Board Meetings were held in January, March, April, and June. Board workshops were held for discussion and planning and no official business was conducted during workshops.