- IEF Board decisions are final.

- Points based on the individual horse/rider combination and cannot transfer to another horse or another rider.
- Anyone showing in any classes requiring the lope or canter are ineligible for the Supreme Walk/Trot Highpoint.
- The Supreme Walk/Trot High Point winner is ineligible to win both highpoint awards.
 - Should the situation arise that the Walk/Trot winner has accumulated more points than all other horse and rider combinations, we will look at the second highest overall point combinations to make the determination.
 - Should the second highest score also be eligible for the Walt/Trot HP, then the Supreme Walk/Trot award will be awarded to them and the Supreme High Point will be awarded to the Walk/Trot rider who outscored all horse and rider combinations.
 - Should the second highest score NOT be a Walt/Trot eligible horse/rider combination – The Walt/Trot scorer will be awarded Supreme Walk/Trot High Point and the other pair will be awarded the Supreme High Point.
 - THIS IS ONLY IN THE EVENT THE WALK/TROT COMBINATION OUTSCORES EVERYONE!
- Unsportsman like conduct will not be tolerated and eligibility can be revoked at IEFs discretion.
